The Gates Family.

Mr. Charles O. Gates of New York has issued a circular to the members of the Gates family, several of whom reside in Utah, asking for genealogical information. In the circular he says:

"Give me all the information you can about yourself, your own family, and as much of your ancestry as possible. If you respond promptly and do all you can, you will help very greatly in the work of getting together a history of your family, one of the oldest families of the country.

"If you know at the present time any persons of the name of Gates, in your vicinity or elsewhere, kindly send me their names and addresses so that I can communicate with them.

"The names of your parents, and places where they lived, dates of birth and death, would be of value."

Send information to Charles P. Gates, 81 Fulton street, New York.

Dana Never Hurries.

Charles A. Dana, who has been a journalist more than 50 years and who gets through more work in a day than most men do in a week, ascribes his excellent health, his continued mental vigor and activity at a time when most men have retired mainly to his never allowing himself to be in a hurry. This habit has, he says, saved him from the nervous disorders from which more than half of us Americans really die.—San Francisco Argonaut.

TAYLOR TALKS RAILROAD.

Tells the Los Angeles Express of the Resources of Southern Utah.

How Rails Can Be Cheaply Manufactured at Cedar City for the Coast Road.

Thomas Taylor of Cedar City, Utah, is now in Southern California. Concerning Mr. Taylor and the coast railway scheme, the Los Angeles Express says:

"There is no railroad in Iron county. The nearest line is the Union Pacific, at Milford, about forty miles distant. The Rio Grande and Denver is about twice as far off and proposes to build to Cedar City or Parowan in Iron county, shortly. The scheme of Mr. Taylor is to build from Iron county to this city a railroad that will not only give Los Angeles another transcontinental route, but will also make it the greatest manufacturing town on the coast.

The line would connect with the Union Pacific or Utah Central and Rio Grande & Denver roads at Cedar City. It would cross the county to Desert Springs and thence by Bullionville and Pioche in Lincoln county, Nevada, to Clover valley. Thence down the Virgin river to the Colorado river, to Vegas, Wash., to Good Spring, to Ivanpah, to Ludlow on the Southern Pacific, through the Morongo Pass to Banning, and thence on to Los Angeles. A preliminary survey of the road shows that the entire distance, 400 miles by rail, but about 330 miles as the crow flies, can be built at less than a 2 per cent grade which means a great saving in cost of hauling freight and passenger trains. Cedar City is about 6,000 feet above the ocean, so that it would be a down hill haul from there here.

Mr. Taylor proposes to erect furnaces at Cedar City and to manufacture rails and iron at that point. He says ore for steel can be obtained at Cedar City for $1 a ton, whereas in Chicago it is worth $3.75. Good coking coal is to be found in abundance in Iron county. He proposes to ship iron and coal here which with our oil product would make Los Angeles a second Pittsburg. He says it will take about six months to get his rail plant erected and in working order at Cedar City after the railroad gets there and he proposes to manufacture the rails for the road from Utah to Los Angeles there. The road will cost $10,000,000. A company, the Utah Iron and Coal company, has been formed in Utah and stock for $5,000,000 has been issued.

The money for the building of the railroad and the developing of the mines, Mr. Taylor has secured in England. He has a letter from his agent there under date of July 15, saying the money has been secured and is ready as soon as the experts have examined the mines and gone over the proposed line of road between Cedar City and Los Angeles.

The object of the gentleman's visit in Los Angeles is to secure the co-operation of the business men of this city in helping him to make the preliminary surveys, etc. About $50,000 must be raised to secure the line by Los Angeles and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association has taken hold of the matter.

Mr. Taylor expects to spend $2,000,000 in developing the mines, building a line to connect them with the Union Pacific and Rio Grande railroads and erecting a steel and iron plant. He has consulted with the projectors of the Japanese steamship company to San Diego and this port and they say Japan will afford a splendid market for the iron. The Japanese government is going to build a large navy and that means a demand for heavy armor and much iron and steel. South and Central America and Australia are also expected to prove good consumers for iron.

Mr. Taylor also expects to take back to Utah, fruits, wines, sugar and other products of this section. He says he has been over the entire route and that there are many fertile valleys, and rich deposits of silver and ore besides the iron and coal before referred to.

He will remain here until he ascertains if the people of Los Angeles will help him in his project, and if they do he will at once close with his London correspondents and begin the construction of the road. So far he has received every encouragement and he believes that very shortly the preliminaries will be completed and work begun. How soon, however, depends on the people of Los Angeles, not on him.

VIOLENTLY INSANE.

Unfortunate Mrs. Cohen in the Custody of the Sheriff.

Mrs. H. de Montigny Cohen was taken into custody last night by Sheriff Hardy on account of insanity. Mrs. Cohen came here several days ago and put up at the Templeton, where she has on several occasions startled her neighbor guests and all the time has cause considerable comment by her strange talk and actions. It was about 8 o'clock last night when Sheriff Hardy was called by the management of the hotel, who discovered that the lady was becoming violent. The officers were good enough to use a little strategy to induce the unfortunate lady to leave the hotel. For some time Mrs. Cohen has been announcing her intention to give lectures and the officers explained to her that they had secured a hall in which she could deliver her lecture and if she would come along they would take her to it. Mrs. Cohen consented with the result that she is now being cared for in the county jail.

Late last night and in all the hours up till morning Mrs. Cohen has been spasmodically breaking out into long, half-smothered wails that could be heard for blocks around.

Mrs. Cohen is the wife of H. A. Cohen, manager of Captain De Lamar's mining properties. Domestic troubles resulting from her mental condition led to the institution of divorce proceedings by her husband, who, however, has taken pains to see that his wife was well provided for. Mrs. Cohen left Salt Lake in 1895, and has not been heard from since until Tuesday, when she came to the Templeton and registered as Mrs. J. H. Powers, New York.

There is no hope for Mrs. Cohen's recovery from this latest outbreak, and her husband is using every means to secure comfort and good treatment for his unfortunate wife.
