LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Governor's offices are being put in shape for the reception of the legislature next week.

The funeral of Elder Hyrum Nielson, whose demise occurred Tuesday morning, at Salt Lake, was held from the Eighth ward meeting house this afternoon, the service commencing at 2 o'clock.

The officers and teachers of the Fifth ward Sunday school gave a pleasant surprise to Elder Thomas Brimley, one of their number, last evening, prior to his departure for Lompa, where he will in future reside.

The Salt Lake Shool of Law began its winter session this week with a fair representation present. "It opens with high promise," says Prof. Whitely, "and with gratifying evidence of its growth."

Secretary of State Hammond and aides are busy getting the rooms in which the Legislature meets ready. A large amount of labor is being performed but everything will be in readiness for the State's lawmakers by Saturday morning.

The last warrant of $1,000 has been drawn from State Auditor Richards, out of the appropriation of $5,000 for the expenses of the Utah exhibit and the commission at the Transmississippi exposition. President L. W. Shurtliff of the commission handled the money.

Captain Charles H. Noble, sixteenth U. S. infantry, who played a conspicuous part in the battle of San Juan Hill, has received from the war department another month's leave of absence. Captain Noble used to be stationed at Fort Douglas. At his home, at Boise barracks, he contracted a very severe attack of yellow fever.

Last evening in the Nineteenth ward an entertainment was given by the Mutual Improvement association of the ward. The program in the main was made up of local musical talent, after which there was dancing. A pretty feature was a tambourine drill by little girls of the Primary association.

The committee appointed by the State board of education to make suggestions to the Legislature pertaining to school law, had another interesting meeting this forenoon in Dr. Park's office. Only matters in general were discussed. As the members are all so busy just now it will be some time before anything definite is decided upon.

A meeting of the directors of the Salt Lake Valley Loan and Trust company was held late yesterday afternoon, at which the following officers were chosen: Simon Bamberger, president; Robert Harkness, vice president; W. S. McCornick, treasurer. The annual reports of the officers were presented and referred to a committee which commenced a consideration of them today.

An old Indian woman, with a little papoose on her back, has made a deal of merriment at many homes during the last few days. Instead of saying, "Merry Christmas and happy New Year," she invariably cries out with a cheery voice, "Christmas Mary, I hupe know you!" The old aboriginal is bubbling over with humor, and most of her exclamations cannot be understood by her more civilized white sisters.

The 1898 report of the State law library has been submitted by Governor Wells to Librarian L. P. Palmer. During the last year 691 volumes were added to the library making 8,219 in all. At a cost of $1,840.20, 464 books were purchased as follows: State reports, 309; text books, 47; National Reporter System, 31; digests, 12; English reports, 4; Nineteenth century digests, 2; reports of court decisions from other states were exchanged for Utah law publications.

The Nebraska State Historical society is now turning its attention to the early history of Nebraska and Missouri, in which the early Mormon Pioneers took a part. A long letter has been received at the office of Secretary Franklin D. Richards, asking for detailed information concerning the early Mormon settlements in Missouri Valley and concerning the trail taken in the exodus across Nebraska. A Milton Mormon is looking up the desired information.

All of the candidates, who have been taking a two days' examination before the State board of medical examiners, have received certificates of license to practice medicine and surgery in Utah. Those who successfully passed the examination are: C. E. Pearson, of Huntington; Charles N. Rice, Ferron; Emil H. Barrell, Marysvale; Joseph E. Allen, Edwards, T. H. Monahan. The State board of medical examiners is made up of Drs. J. M. Dart, Bryant Stringham, John T. White, Jos. S. Wright, S. L. Brick and O. C. Ormsby.

An exciting but not very severe accident occurred last evening at 5:20 at the cross-streets of State and Fourth South. An old man, driving a gray pleasure, while crossing the street was knocked down by a horse and buggy, and thrown to the ground, receiving some injury but not preventing him from walking. The unknown driver went on for some distance, and he and his horse quickly disappeared. After the buggy was taken to the police station it was learned that it belonged to George W. Crofton.

The directors of the Mutual Improvement League will have an important and busy business session at Geo. A. Smith, who has been chairman of the directors during the past year, says he is going to resign his position. But it is a question whether he will be accepted, for in one year he has worked so energetically, together with the other five directors, as to pay off $1,800 of the League's debt. There remains now only $200 more to be paid, and the amount Mr. Smith may be asked to assist in liquidating.

CAMBRIAN SUIT SETTLED.

Litigation Over an Disputed Prize Compromised by the Parties.

Tuneie Gets $75 and Lehi $50 and a Gold Medal—Preston Retains the Second Prize.

The differences that for some time past have been existing between Evan Arthur, leader of the Tuneie county chorus, and the Cambrian association, have been settled and everything amicably adjusted to the satisfaction of the parties concerned. It will be remembered Arthur's chorus was awarded this city last Oct. A protest was filed into city last October. A protest filed by the Lehi chorus, which got second prize, and it was claimed that the Tuneie people had violated one of the rules governing the contests. The Cambrian association directors later formed themselves into a board of inquiry and sustained the objection raised by Lehi. First, prize, $75 and a gold medal was awarded Fred. E. Beesley, conductor of the Lehi choir and second prize, $50 and a ribbon, to Prof. L. D. Edwards, director of the Preston chorus. Arthur, not knowing where he came in, after the board's decision, sought the aid of the courts. A short statement has been made among the attorneys that the case was set down for trial. The Cambrian association anxious for peace and not willing to have the matter unnecessarily and fearful lest the Beesleyites cause should receive a setback through litigation proceedings, immediately set about to effect a compromise. Captain D. L. Davis was appointed by President Arthur L. Thomas to represent the Cambrians. That gentleman met with the other parties yesterday and to his credit it must be said a settlement was agreed upon.

According to the agreement Mr. Arthur is to receive the sum of $75, out of which he will pay his attorney, Prof. Beesley gets $50 and the gold medal, while Prof. Edwards is to be allowed to retain the $50 and ribbon. Treasurer Nephi L. Morris gave his check for the same issued today and Secretary Harry Evans obtained the signatures of the contestants to a document which expresses satisfaction and relieves the association from all further obligation. "Another instance," said Treasurer Morris today, "of common sense and gentlemanly conduct holding sway."

AN ESTIMABLE WOMAN.

Mrs. Priscilla Staines Endured Hardships for Her Religion.

Priscilla Mogridge Staines who died in this city yesterday, was the wife of William C. Staines, an early Mormon emigrant to Nauvoo, and was a native of Wilcote, Wiltshire, England, March 11, 1822. Her father's name was John Mogridge and her mother's maiden name Mary Cook. She was brought up in the Episcopalian faith from her earliest childhood, her parents being both members of the Episcopal church, but when a young woman she heard Mormonism and embraced it.

The deceased endured much for the Gospel's sake and went through the hardships and privations of early times, and never fell to murmur, as great was her faith in the Gospel and so strong and emphatic was that that would take care of, and ultimately reward those who suffered for righteousness sake. She was one of the noble women of Utah, and left the land of her birth to go to Nauvoo December 27, 1841. Journeying to America hard trials were her portion, but she bore up bravely under the burden and overcame all obstacles with patience and fortitude.

Of her baptism into the Church she herself wrote: "On the evening of a bitterly cold day in midwinter I waited four miles in the house of a local Elder for baptism. Anything at his house we waited until midnight, in order that the neighbors might not disturb us, and then repaired to a stream of water a quarter of a mile away. Here we found the water, as we anticipated, frozen over, and the Elder had to chop a hole in the ice large enough for the purpose of baptism. It was a scene and an occasion I shall never forget. Memory today brings back the emotions and joy of that moment. Now not God and His angels, and the few witnesses who stood on the bank with us, heard my covenant, but to the solemnity of that midnight hour it seemed as though all nature was listening, and the recording angels writing our words in the book of the Lord. Is it strange that such a scene occurring in the life of a Latter-day Saint, should make an everlasting impression upon the mind and heart?"

The funeral services over the remains of this estimable woman will be held in the Fourteenth ward assembly rooms on Friday, the 6th inst., commencing at 11 a. m. Friends are invited. The remains will be open to view from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. at the residence of Mrs. Joseph M. Watson, West Temple near North Temple street.

GIFT FOR THE CHILDREN.

Many kindly Christmas offerings were made by persons of benevolent dispositions to individuals and institutions. As a giving was not, however, confined alone to persons of affluent means as some not by the following report will show, it has been thought proper to place it before the editor of President Lorenzo Snow.

"We are pleased to acknowledge the receipt of $25 donated by the Primary association of the Fifth ward, Salt Lake Stake to the Temple as a Christmas offering. God bless their efforts in this good work. LORENZO SNOW."
