CHILDREN'S JUBILEE DAY.

Important Notice to Sunday Schools for That Occasion.

The Sunday School Union board have pushed the general committee of the Semi-Centennial Jubilee five thousand children for the occasion of children's day, on Thursday, July 22nd. One thousand are coming from Davis and Utah States, leaving four thousand for Salt Lake Stake. We therefore respectfully solicit the prompt and faithful cooperation of every superintendent in this Stake to the following:

1st—Carefully examine the program as published in this issue for children's day.

2nd—Give every child the privilege of taking part on that memorable occasion, being one of the leading incidents of their lives.

3rd—Send in your report on Monday morning next to Elder John M. Whitaker, general secretary, 501 Constitution building, with all faith.

4th—Your prompt obedience to the above will assure the confidence we repose in you, as superintendents and teachers in the Stake of Zion.

Your fellow-laborers,

GEORGE Q. CANNON,
CHARLES CORDON,
KARL G. MAESER,
General Superintendency of Sunday Schools.

THOMAS C. GRIGGS,
RICHARD R. HOBBS,
WILLARD C. BURTON,
Stake Superintendency of Sunday Schools.
