NEWS OF THE WEST.

His Brains Dashed out by a Span of Mules.

INSURANCE COMPANIES MUST PAY.

Saved by a Lead Pencil—Mayors Resign—Sensing's Murderer Still at Large.

Fred Marion, a German prospector of Wickenburg, Ariz., hanged himself last week.

Mayor Roseum of Prescott, Arizona, resigned on Monday because he was tired of the office.

The murderer of James Sensing, Union Pacific depot policeman at Pocatello, is still at large.

Farmers in the vicinity of Hesseltine, Wash., are planting spinach with concentrated lye.

There are more than three planted strawberries in Bridgeport, Wash., than there have been for several years past.

Fall wheat along the Bunrock in Whatcom county, Wash., was considerably damaged by the recent cold snap.

The first important cattle shipment of the year from Arizona to the East went from Flagstaff to Chicago last week and consisted of eighteen carloads.

A Southern California train was struck by a heavy gale of wind at Alessandro, Cal., Tuesday and the sheet-iron roof of one of the passenger coaches was dashed clean to bits.

Mayor Black, of Seattle, Washington, elected to office a month ago, has resigned because his health would not stand the strain. He was put under by workers after office.

Charles Hen-Smith of Chino, Cal., was on Monday sentenced to serve his sixty in jail for committing the offense of damaging a postal card, which he has been warned against time and again.

Boise, Idaho, Math C. C. Kemp has received his commission with his New York Lodge and will come to Salt Lake in a few days. Mr. Kemp has since submitted the newspaper section work and will try the Utah field.

Professor Blake, mineralogist of the University of Arizona, has conferred to the Santa Rita an immense deposit of gypsum, of sufficient in tons, sufficient for the manufacture of years of cash. The amount is practically unlimited.

Davis E. Morgan, a mining man from Cincinnati, met a terrible death at Stanton, Arizona, Sunday. He started to climb a span of mules with a rope around his neck, when the mules took fright, ran away and dashed Morgan's brains out against the rocks.

Omaha Stockmen, April 7.—A herdful 3,500 head of Wyoming cattle be for sale, we will be sold by a soldier of F. A. Scott, Salt Lake, Utah. This herd is claimed to be the best herd of steers in Wyoming. Thoroughbred Hereford sires have been used for the past twelve years, and out of the calves branded last year, 95 per cent were white-faced. The owners are greatly selling the entire herd to one party if possible.

J. S. Ramey, a Los Angeles, Cal., teaming contractor, was assaulted Monday night by an unknown person, who made a desperate attempt to assassinate him. Ramey, who was going home, noticed the man following him, but paid little attention until the fellow approached and flourished a knife. The first thing was a powerful oath, and the blade glanced on a pencil in Ramey's pocket over his heart, cutting the clothing and scratching the flesh.

Insurance companies that try to evade payment of the full responsibility they assume have gotten their lesson in the decision of the United States court of appeals, rendered on Monday in San Francisco. The Connecticut Life Insurance company resisted payment of a $10,000 policy on Louis B. McWhirter, who was murdered at Fresno. The company alleged suicide, because the insurance of McWhirter never were apprehended. The court awarded judgment for the full amount against the insurance company, and the court of appeals sustained the award.

Do you remember the adage that "Prevention is better than cure?" This is just the time of the year to exercise a little care to prevent sickness. Go get some Simmons Liver Regulator, liquid or powder, and take it to rid your body of any poison and tone up the system. It will save much suffering and bills. "It is a safe and sure medicine, and a great preventive of sickness."—Rev. Jas. Hallas, Fairfield, Pa.
