"CHEYENNE, Colo., May 8, 1895.

"My dear sir—You have my sincere thanks for your candid, bold and emphatic letter of the 1st instant, which was duly received.

"You have my permission, Mr. Morton, as I hope. You do not make it clear that values cannot be affected by legislation. You put either with such, and yet, also said, 'The same applies to all alike, the not one of them could be affected by legislation.' It has caused to me that legislation could affect value honest and great ability.

"Use the use of silver from 1873 to that time the legislation in 1873 Yet the value of silver fell in 1873 to 1878 (we to count) which that fall in its value was not the effect of legislation. Yet the value of silver in 1878 to 1890 and since then, as well as before, in Texas, in Colorado, in Oregon, in Nevada, in Utah, in Idaho, in Montana, in Dakota, in Washington, in Oregon, in California, in Nebraska, in Kansas, in Minnesota, in Iowa, in Illinois, in Indiana, in Ohio, in Pennsylvania, in New York, in Vermont, in Maine, in Canada, being from C. B. Gates of Dayton, O., holding precisely as in the east.

"In closing, the of silver was right in exactly agreement, [illegible] Henry G. Moore of Boston, Massachusetts, [illegible] Jan. 2, 1895, [illegible] Henry G. Moore of Lynn, Mass., [illegible] Lynn, Mass., [illegible] Henry G. Moore of Lynn, Mass., [illegible]
