IMPERIAL BANQUET.

Six Score and Six Hundred Guests Entertained in Hamburg.

WILLIAM DEEPLY TOUCHED.

Royal Eloquence—Assurances of Peace —Russian Comment—Flags at Half Mast.

HAMBURG, June 19.—Shortly before 4 the Imperial banquet to the great hall of the Rathaus was begun. This hall has been specially decorated for the occasion, and presented a most brilliant aspect. It was splendidly lighted by electricity and the walls were adorned hidden with historic paintings, tapestries and flags of all nations, while the pillars were freely used to effect the richness of the mural decorations.

The emperor, wearing the Garde du Corps uniform and Order of the Black Eagle, entered the hall, accompanied by Burgomaster Lehmann, in his gorgeous robes of office.

There was a loud fanfare of trumpets as the emperor walked to the head of the imperial table, bowing right and left as he took his seat.

The number of guests at his majesty's table was sixty-three, and the total number of guests, including the members of the diplomatic corps, who dined in a separate room, was 656.

During the banquet the emperor was in a splendid spirit and led in an animated conversation full of gaiety and good humor.

Burgomaster Lehmann, in proposing toasts, went upon the canal as the work of the emperor and the empire. He concluded:

"We desire to thank the originators of this magnificent work, and to thank the emperor and empire, and we desire for all the Reich's thanks on record. We trust that our hundred guests will be bearers in their first passage through the canal, and in the joyful fetes at Kiel. We also wish that the emperor, whose sleepless care has made this work, may for there able to participate in renewed health.

Herr Burgomaster Lehman turned round the emperor's health, and proceeded to read a telegram from the empress, the emperor bowing his assent.

The reading of the empress's message was greeted with repeated cheers. The emperor then replied:

"Burgomaster Burgomaster—I am deeply touched at the words I have just heard, and am deeply touched, also at the reception which Hamburg has extended to me, the like of such I have seldom experienced. The wave of feeling which was tendered me was no artificial production, but of common sort. Like a hurricane, the joyous cry is resounded in years.

"I well know that I may not presume to appropriate that ascitation to my own person alone. It is rather therein the outward sign of the pulse-beat of the whole German people, which is proud of seeing the newly unified German empire represented by its citizens and illustrious guests. Accept for this my most hearty thanks, and let this be interpreted as my thanks to the people of Hamburg.

"Such moments as we experience bring carry our memories backward, and in particular, awaken memories in a grateful guise. We must turn our thoughts in mingled gratitude and sorrow to the great emperor who has passed away, and to his most gracious son, under whom the work to which you have just alluded was realized. Yet, present to all of us, in the rejoicing which attendes that last visit, are of my grandfather of blessed memory.

"We are uniting two seas, and to the sea our thoughts are directing—to the sea, the symbol of the infinite. The sea is no mere divide—they connect. The unending seas are being made by this work a new step for the blessing and peace of the nation.

"The two-armed might which is stretched in Kiel harbor should, at the same time, serve as a symbol of peace, and of the co-operation of all European civilized peoples to the advancement of Europe's mission of civilization.

"We have cast a glance upon the eternal sea. Let us now direct our looks to the sea of the people's hearts. At address uplift themselves to us here today with a questioning look. They need and desire peace. In peace alone can the world's commerce expand. In peace alone can it thrive, and peace we shall and will uphold.

"In this peace may the trade of Hamburg, too, prosper and flourish. The protection of the imperial eagle shall ever follow to withhamever it may pursue its way over the world.

"Let us now raise our glasses to the weal of our worthy hamletown of Hamburg. Another—and yet a third."

RUSSIAN PRESS COMMENTS.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—The leading newspapers contain comments upon the fetes of Kiel.

The Journal de St. Petersburg, for instance, says the opening of the Baltic and North Sea canal is an epoch-making event, not only in Germany, but from a commercial point of view, for all the nations bordering in traffic.

The Novosti remarks that the sympathies by all the powers of the invitation to the fetes testified to the esteem felt for the German empire and its sovereign.

The Novoe Vremya expresses the opinion that the canal is a pacific enterprise of economic importance from an international point of view.

The Bourse Gazette opposes the idea that the canal is built for aggressive purposes.

SIGNS OF MOURNING.

PARIS, June 19.—The Kiel correspondent of the Gaulois says: The Berlin warships are desirous of outdoing in the mourning of the French visitors, in view of the occasion of the third anniversary of the death of President Carnot (June 24th) and will leave Kiel in company with the French ships with flags at half-mast. The Gaulois correspondent adds that the Duke of Edinburgh, the British Admiral, and the British fleet has given rise to much uneasiness in Holstein.

Attempted Bank Robbery.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 19.—An attempt was made this afternoon to rob the Exchange National bank, but it failed, as Sheriff Bowers had been informed of the plot several days ago, and officers were watching for the would-be robbers.

At 4 p. m. Fred George and "Red" Hutchins entered the bank. George pulled a revolver and called on Cashier Heinz to throw up his hands. He dropped behind the counter. George and Hutchins were quickly seized by Sheriff Bowers and Deputy Sheriff Hemlick, who had followed them into the bank. E. M. Kennedy, a livery stable man, who was in court at the bank door, and Robert O. McPherson, who was in charge of a team with which the robbers intended to escape, were also wounded. The prisoners are residents of the Springs. It is said Hutchins is the man who gave information of the plot to the police.

For Circulating Bogus Coin.

OMAHA, June 19.—A. F. Nichols, cashier of the People's State Bank at Litchfield, Neb., was today indicted by the federal grand jury for circulating counterfeit money. The bank failed recently. It is claimed the street will produce some startling disclosures later over the methods in force at the bank with which he was identified.

Nichols seemingly worked alone. The officers believe now that he virtualized many people while he was cashier by giving out the spurious coin, and are anxious to know where he got his supply if he did not have a small mint of his own.

Convicted of Criminal Libel.

TUCSON, Arizona, June 19.—C. Donlat, editor of the Phoenix Gazette, was this evening found guilty of criminal libel, the jury being out twenty minutes. The plaintiffs are Governor Hughes, C. M. Bruce, secretary of Arizona, Francis J. Heney, territorial attorney, and the Territory and United States Marshal W. J. Meade. The libelous article appeared in the Gazette two years ago. Donlat will be sentenced tomorrow. The suit was based upon an editorial which severely scorched the plaintiffs.

Alleged Lynchers Identified.

OMAHA, June 19.—A special to the Bee from Butte, Neb., says: Mrs. Barrett Scott was on the witness stand today. She faced the alleged lynchers of her husband with flashing eyes and, in a most dramatic manner, identified George Mulligan as one of the men who made her husband prisoner.

The general drift of the questions put by the attorney for the defense developed the fact that he would endeavor to bring out that other parties committed the murder. The defense expects to prove beyond doubt that the lynching ordinarily ascribed to the Vigilante bunch, in Rock county, and that the discovery of the body in the Niobrara river was a part of the general plan laid by the guilty parties.

The court room was crowded to suffocation this afternoon. A number of ladies were present.

A Record Breaker.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 20.—The Iowa stallion, Joe Patchen, last evening paced a half mile in 2:08 over the kite track, making the fastest time of this or any other year to date for a stallion, and the track was not fast in first class condition.

Mrs. Pinell Released.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—Mrs. D. F. Pinell, wife or widow of the man who is thought to have been murdered by H. H. Holmes, in the conspiracy to secure $10,000 from the Fidelity Mutual Life association, was today released from prison, where she had been confined as a witness since the first disclosures. She left for her father's home in Illinois, and will devote her time to searching for her three missing children, who were at first supposed to have been murdered by Holmes, who is now in prison here awaiting sentence for conspiracy to defraud. It has been learned that the children were in Detroit in October, 1894, but have all trace of them is lost. Holmes has told District Attorney Graham that the children were abroad with Minnie Williams, his one-time sweetheart.

The Nicaragua Commissioners.

NEW YORK, June 20.—A special to the Herald from Ohio says: The local newspapers say the Nicaragua canal commissioners will probably come here to inspect the Panama canal before entering home, stating that their report will be of value to the Isthmian and may seal the fate of either or both canals.

It Catchets Will Apologize.

NEW YORK, June 20.—A report has been circulated in this city to the effect that Manager Fleming of the National Sporting club has stated that if Corbett and Manager Brady will apologize for the alleged disrespectful manner in which they have spoken and written of the club, a purse of $5,000 will be offered for a contest between Corbett and Jackson. In an interview William Brady thus discussed the situation:

"Apologize what for? Jim Corbett gave his opinion of the men there as he found them. He has that right, I believe, in this country. Englishmen who come here express themselves freely about us at home, but when they come back here they have got the nerve to stand by their statements. Corbett is an American and is not ashamed of it."

Where Fitz Will Train.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Bob Fitzsimmons, it is reported, has decided to train for his fight with Corbett at Long Island, and the house known as the Lewis Cottage, at West Brighton, has been engaged for his training quarters.

A Quiet Wedding.

NEW YORK, June 20.—A quiet wedding took place last night at the church of the Transfiguration on east Twenty-ninth street, when David V. Morris, son of the late John A. Morris, of West Chester, was married to Alice Vanderoit Shepard, daughter of the late Elliott F. Shepard, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Geo. Houghton, assisted by the Rev. Dr. C. Dewey Bridgeman. Owing to the recent death of his father, the bride's family and a few friends and relatives were present.

Colombia's Rebellion

NEW YORK, June 20.—A special to the Herald from Bogota, Columbia, says:

Government circles are most alarmed at the spread of the revolutionists. The rebel forces are increasing rapidly and the government is having difficulty in meeting its obligations.

The president is continually surrounded by guards.

The greater part of the country was detached by the former revolution and is not producing anything. It is claimed that the rains on coffee prevent its cultivation.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Wreck of a Train on the Missouri-Kansas and Texas Road.

HOUSTON, Tex., June 20.—The northbound flyer of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas was wrecked in the yards ten miles north of here last night. The wreck occurred at a branch of White Oak bayou, which is usually dry, but had been swollen by heavy rains. Engineer Henry Garrett, who within twenty yards of the bridge, saw it sag and applied the air brakes which partially relieved the momentum. The engine stack close to the track, while the tender, baggage car, smoker and two coaches left the track and turned over. Conductor Johnson walked back to Houston, a distance of about eight miles, and a relief train was dispatched to the scene with surgeons.

The wreck presented a horrible sight and how anybody escaped instant death is a miracle.

The injured were brought to Houston and placed in the hospital. It is feared some are injured internally. The cracks are blocked and it will be several hours before it is cleared. There were 52 passengers on the train and considering that two of the coaches were reduced to kindling wood, their escape from death is miraculous. Two other coaches were turned upside down.

POSTAL CONGRESS.

To be Held in Washington in May, 1897—Subject of the Gathering.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Edward Holmes, at Hemlock, Ontario, chief of the universal postal union, who has been in conference with Postmaster General Wilson for several days, completed arrangements for holding the postal congress in Washington beginning the first Wednesday in May, 1897.

The congress will be in session seven weeks, and there will be about 150 delegates present, representing every civilized nation on the globe. The universal postal union is now in its twelfth year, and in the last five years, and the will be the third universal congress, the others having been held in Vienna and Paris. They are held every five years. The delegates to this congress will have authority from the nations they represent to sign agreements binding their respective governments to adopt the recommendations of this congress as to a betterment of the world's postal facilities.

The chief object of the congress will be to adjust mail regulations the world over on a universal basis, to increase the rates uniformly on postage, and adopt uniform money exchange and registry regulations. This government has agreed to provide the ordinary conveniences for the congress, such as a meeting place and offices for the officers. Besides providing excursions to Indian Head, Arlington, Annapolis and Gettysburg and other entertainment, this government will probably undertake to give the delegates an excursion by special train from Washington to San Francisco by way of New Orleans, returning by way of Portland, St. Paul and Chicago. Director Hunt speaks only his native tongue and the services of an interpreter were required on all his conferences with Postmaster General Wilson and Assistant Postmaster General Neilson. He has expressed himself as very agreeably surprised at the wonderful postal facilities of this country, which easily surpasses all the world in this service.

Irregularities at Highlands.

DENVER, June 20.—A committee recently appointed to investigate the books of the town of Highlands, Denver's largest suburb, reported to the city council last evening. The report charged that certain books were burned that they might not be examined by the committee. Various irregularities of a sensational nature are said to have been discovered. The city attorney was directed to institute proceedings against all parties involved.

A Seattle Fire.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 20.—A fire this morning destroyed $200,000 worth of property of the Consolidated Street Railway company.

Tired of Her Husband.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—Lieut. Milton F. Davis, now stationed at the Presidio, has brought suit to obtain a divorce from his wife, Miss Hattie Hater, the actress. The wedding took place at Portland. Was a great event in local society, but after living with her husband three months Miss Hater deserted him to return to the stage.

PALPITATION OF THE HEART.

Shortness of Breath, Swelling of Legs and Feet.

"For about four years I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, and swelling of the legs and feet. At times I could faint. I was treated by the best physicians in Savannah, Ga., with no relief. I then tried your Dr. Miles' remedies, without benefit. Finally I tried also his Nerve and Liver Pills. My health improved so much from the first bottle of the Heart Cure that I continued taking them and I am now in better health than for many years. Since my recovery I have gained fifty pounds in weight. I hope this statement may be of value to some poor sufferer."

E. E. SUTTON, Ware Shoals, Ga.
