PIONEER WOMAN GOES TO HER REST

Mrs. M. Isabella Horn Succumbs To the Infirmities of Old Age

IN HER EIGHTY-SEVENTH YEAR.

Passed Peacefully Away at the Residence of Her Daughter in This City—Biographical.

The shadow of death which has been lurking about the bedside of Mrs. Mary Isabella Horne since last June, closed in upon her last night, when she sank peacefully to rest at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. D. W. James, on Third street. Death occurred about 7 o'clock and was due to the infirmities of old age, the deceased being in her 86th year.

Mrs. Horne has for many years been a prominent Church worker in this city, and was greatly beloved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Gentle in character, yet firm in her conviction of the truth, she won friends among all with whom she was associated, and many there are who will regret deeply the news of her taking off.

The deceased was the mother of a large family and is survived by eight children, as follows: Henry J. Horne, Mesa, Ariz.; Joseph H. Horne, Richfield, Utah; Richard S. Horne, Wilford, Salt Lake county, Utah; Mrs. Leonora H. Spencer, Paris, Ida.; Mrs. Cornelia H. Clayton, Provo, Utah; Mrs. Minnie H. James, Mrs. Martha H. Tingey and Mrs. Clare H. James of this city. She also leaves over 100 grandchildren, over 50 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. The time and place of funeral will be announced later.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

Mary Isabella Horne was the daughter of Stephen and Mary Ann Hales, and was born Nov. 30, 1818, in Rainham, county of Kent, England. With her father's family she moved to Canada in 1832, and on May 8, 1836, she was married to Joseph Horne, by whom she had 15 children, eight of whom are now living. About the time of her marriage Mrs. Horne heard the Gospel preached by Apostle Parley P. Pratt and in July, 1836, was baptized a member of the Church. Subsequently she with her husband, gathered with the Saints in Far West, Mo., and with the body of the Church passed through the persecutions in Nauvoo and Illinois. In 1847 she crossed the plains in Apostle John Taylor's company, and located in Salt Lake City, where she remained until 1858, when, with her family, she moved to Parowan, Iron county. She lived there but a short time when she returned to Salt Lake, which has been her home ever since.

Mrs. Horne received her blessings in the Nauvoo Temple. She has always been an energetic worker in the Relief Society, and for a number of years was president of the society in the old Salt Lake stake. In 1853 she served as a counselor to Phoebe Woodruff, president of the Fourteenth ward society; and later she became president thereof, which position she held for 14 years. At the organization of the general board she was appointed treasurer, in which capacity she labored until 1901. She was a member of the Deseret hospital committee for 12 years, and was counselor to Zina D. H. Young, president of the Utah Silk association. She likewise presided over the Retrenchment association, held in the Fourteenth ward, a position to which she was called by President Brigham Young. In every calling she labored faithfully and well, and won the love and respect of all her associates. Her daughter, Mrs. Martha H. Tingey, is general president of the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement associations.

ENGLAND CONCLUDES NEW TREATY WITH JAPAN

London, Aug. 25.—The Associated Press has good reason for stating that a new Anglo-Japanese treaty of alliance may have been signed. The foreign office declines to give official confirmation or denial, but the Associated Press understands that the treaty was signed some days ago. There is no reason why it should not be signed prior to the conclusions of the Portsmouth conference, as the action of that conference will not affect its terms.

The new treaty is broader in scope in some respects than the former treaty, notably where it recognizes the protectorate by the Japanese over Korea and on other points which it was not necessary to include in the old treaty. In immediate respects the new treaty contains limitations as compared with the old treaty. For instance, the latter contained a clause to the effect that "in case of a combination of powers against Great Britain, Japan would be obliged to assist her ally, while the clause in the new treaty only requires the assistance of Japan so far as British colonies in the far east and the Pacific are concerned."

The Associated Press understands that the terms of the new treaty were fully agreed upon before parliament adjourned but it was also agreed that the official announcement of its signature and of its full terms should be deferred until after the conclusion of the Portsmouth, N. H., conference.

Salmon Packing Season Over.

Astoria, Or., Aug. 25.—Noon today marked the end of the Columbia river salmon fishing season of 1905. The season has been characterized by a small but steady run and while in one or two instances spurts which promised to tax the canneries to their utmost were discovered, they were short lived and not at any time were the canneries blocked. The pack is about the same as last year and an estimated aggregate figured on the basis of full cases is 350,500 cases.

Boycott Paralyzes Flour Trade.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 25.—Advices received today by the Hammond Milling company of this city from its agent in Hongkong state that the Chinese boycott of American goods has completely paralyzed the flour trade between Pacific coast ports and China. No sales have been made since July 15 and all orders for September shipment have been cancelled.

The company's agent writes that the bread makers in the bake shops of Canton and Hongkong refuse to handle American flour and the small dealers dare not purchase it for this reason. The trade with the straits settlements and Indo China is also threatened by reason of the fact that the flour supply for these countries is controlled wholly by Chinese merchants.

Collins Extradition Proceedings.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 25.—The extradition proceedings against George D. Collins, the San Francisco lawyer committed for extradition a week ago, have been remanded in the appeal case before Justice Duff until Tuesday. W. J. Taylor, K. C. for Collins, is continuing his argument contending the affidavit upon perjury was assigned was one not required by the Canadian law and therefore could not be perjury. It was intended to continue tonight arguing as to the law of California in that respect, but as prosecution and defense were unable to agree to a set of facts upon which to base the argument it was found necessary to wait until the notes were extended so that the evidence of experts, Asst. Dist. Atty. Whiting and the accused can be placed before the judge.

MALARIA

UNDERMINES THE HEALTH

When the germs of malaria enter the blood the entire health is affected, and if the blood is not purified of these germs and microbes, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Liver Splotches, Chills and Fever, Boils, Aches and Pains, and a great variety of troubles manifest themselves, and soon the entire system is undermined, leaving the sufferer a prey to a most miserable, weak and nervous condition.

913 W. Market St., Louisville, Ky.

For several years I suffered with Chills and Fever, caused by Malaria in my system, and each summer for several years I would have a relapse. Finally my physician prescribed S. S. S. I took a few bottles; this was about six years ago. It entirely cured me, and I have never been troubled since. I am sure no other medicine could have given me so complete and immediate relief, and I cannot speak too highly of S. S. S. My partner in business is now taking S. S. S. for an eruption of the skin, and a general run-down condition of the system, and although he has taken but one bottle, already commences to feel better.

I. SHAPOFF.

S. S. S. counteracts and drives all the poison from the blood and builds up the system by its fine purifying qualities and tonic effects. It strengthens every part, increases the appetite, helps the stomach and digestion, and by supplying the body with rich, pure blood, cures Malaria and all its disagreeable ailments. Unlike most blood medicines S. S. S. is purely vegetable. It does not contain a particle of mineral of any kind to disagreeably affect the stomach, digestion and bowels, but by cleansing and strengthening the blood, puts every part of the body in healthy condition. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired without charge.

EQUITABLE WANTS AN INVESTIGATION

It is Frankly Admitted That the Company Has Been Guilty of Some Improper Acts

DIRECTORS MAKE ADMISSIONS

Charge That Excessive Salaries Were Paid Not Directly Answered—Did Pay Exorbitant Fees.

New York, Aug. 25.—The Equitable Life Assurance society today joined with the state of New York in asking for a full investigation in court of its directors and officers and their alleged wrong-doings in managing the moneys of the society. The document which announced this determination was the answer of the 19 Equitable directors to the charges against them by the state.

Admission is made that the Equitable had been guilty of improper acts. Among these answers they admit the $250,000 loan to the Depew Improvement company. They admit the $685,000 loan of the Mercantile Trust company, but waive responsibility in this loan so far as the board of directors is concerned and indicate Messrs. Alexander, Jordan and Deming as the persons having the most intimate knowledge of these transactions.

The charge that excessive salaries were paid to officers of the society is not directly answered, but admission is made that under guise of salaries excessive fees were given to certain officials who were also directors in other companies. In defense the answer states that these premises were not known to the whole board of directors.

Outlining their belief as to the best policy to pursue in fixing the blame for the scandals, the directors say first that the blame for alleged cases of misconduct will be found to rest on individual officers and not upon the directors as a body. Having made this explanation the answer then admits in a general way the wrongdoing charged.

The first charge specifically answered is that premises on Broadway were let at inadequate rentals to the Mercantile Safe Deposit company. This is admitted, but it is denied that at the time this lease was made James H. Hyde, Jr., J. W. Alexander, Gage E. Tarbell, V. P. Snyder, Thomas D. Jordan, Charles E. Alexander, H. R. Winthrop, A. W. Kroch and William H. McIntyre were stockholders and directors in the Mercantile company.

With certain reservations, admission is then made that the capital stock of the Missouri Safe Deposit company was required by the Equitable, which paid $250 per share for shares of a par value of $100. The reservations in favor of the Equitable in connection with this charge include a claim that these allegations are true in respect to certain of the Equitable officials, but that the alleged purchases were never known to the whole board of directors.

The directors admit that the officials who permitted wasteful improvident and improper advances of money to agents may have been guilty of grave errors of judgment, but assert that they have no information sufficient to form a belief that these officers were knowingly guilty of such improper acts.

The consolidation of the Western National bank of New York City with the United States National bank, by which losses resulted to the Equitable and a profit to some of its directors, is also admitted. But the directors say that the responsibility for those losses must be divided among those who directly participated in, had, or by reason of their official duties and position, should have had, knowledge of the transactions."

The table of alleged improper salaries to Equitable officers, which was embodied in the state's charges, is declared to be a true statement of the figures. A direct admission is that made that these sums were paid without sufficient vouchers or audit, but the directors say their opinion is reserved as to whether such sums were large and in all cases unwarranted.

Admissions of greater latitude are made on the subject of pensions, and to the charges that money under the guise of fees were received by directors and stockholders, who were also officers of the Equitable and other corporations. After admission that these moneys were received as charged, the reply states:

"Any of these defendants were ignorant of said transactions, which were not of a character necessarily known to the whole board of directors." Further on the reply states: 'Some officers said pensions were found to be justifiable, and some others improper."

Taking up the $685,000 loan of the Mercantile Trust company, an admission of its existence is made, but the directors deny that they improperly permitted this transaction.

Finally admission of the payment of this $685,000 to the Mercantile Trust company on July 1 last is made, but it is said that this occurred only after the trust company had asserted a claim against the Equitable and after this claim had been resisted and disallowed by the present managing officers of the Equitable.

The $250,000 loan to the Depew Improvement Co. is next admitted with a proviso which states that this admission is restricted to "those of the individual defendants who were or ought to have been cognizant of these transactions."

The directors then announce that the examination of the facts in connection with the Depew Improvement company is now presented with a view to recovering by legal action or by adjustment of the court any sums that may be found due to the Equitable, whether the persons now possessing this money are officers of the Equitable or the Depew Improvement company.

The charges of the existence of excessive deposits in the National Bank of Commerce of New York and at least 19 other banks are admitted, but this admission is restricted to those directors and officers who actually had charge of or knowledge of those transactions.

Precisely the same restricted admission is made concerning the officers of the American Deposit & Loan company, a corporation which is admitted to have been organized for lending money to policy-holders upon policies held in the Equitable and used to the profit of directors and others in the Equitable.

The $10,000,000 surplus held by the Equitable society is the final item considered by the directors and in substance their reply on this charge is that they do not know precisely what their rights are regarding the surplus and that they are willing to leave this matter to the courts to decide.

In conclusion the answer says:

"Wherefore, this defendant joins in the prayer of the plaintiff of this action and thereon submits its rights and interests in the matters in question to the judgment of the court."

Wallace McFarlane appears as attorney for the Equitable, with Austen G. Fox as associate counsel.

WORE HIS WIG.

Judge of British Columbian Court Violated the Statute

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 25.—A strange conflict has occurred in connection with the trial of the American fishing schooner North today, ordered to be confiscated by Justice Martin in the admiralty court for fishing within British Columbia waters. At the last session of the legislature an enactment was made prohibiting the wearing of wigs in any British Columbia court. Today Martin and counsel before him wore wigs as aforetime, the judge contending the enactment did not apply to the admiralty court which has federal jurisdiction. Legislators, however, contend the enactment affects any court which sits in British Columbia and say the judge and counsel are liable to indictment for infringing the enactment prohibiting the use of wigs in British Columbia courts.

THE GOOD OLD WAY

A severe cold or attack of la grippe is like a fire, the sooner you combat it the better your chances are to overpower it. But few mothers in this age are willing to do the necessary work required to give a good old-fashioned reliable treatment such as would be administered by their grandmothers, backed by Boehee's German Syrup, which was always liberally used in connection with the home treatment of colds and is still in greater household favor than any known remedy. But even without the application of the old-fashioned aids German Syrup will cure a severe cold in quick time. It will cure colds in children or grown people. It relieves the congested organs, allays the irritation, and effectively stops the cough. Any child will take it. It is invaluable in a household of children. Trial size bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by all druggists.
