First Snow of the Season.

PHILADELPHIA, 7.—A dispatch from Pottsville says the first snow of the season fell this a.m., and was quite severe. Snow also fell at Reading.

Big Fire.

NEW YORK, 7.—A Washington special says that Morton, Rose & Co., of London, have been appointed fiscal agents of the State department in Europe.

There was a fire this morning at 517, 519, and 521 West 19th street, occupied by Dillmott & Funk, piano case makers and others; loss $5,000.

Merit Rewarded—Private Session.

The Italian government has conferred the grand cross of the Order of Italy on the Italian consul general at this port, in consideration of his efforts to suppress the traffic in Italian children.

The senatorial committee on privileges and elections held a private session this afternoon.

Fear it is Lost.

The yacht Meta started on a race with the Vision, yesterday, and up to p. m. had not been heard of, and it is feared is lost with all on board.

Catholicism Denounced.

The theological section of the Evangelical Alliance at its session this morning discussed the Christian life, and listened to the reading of a paper on personal religion, from Dr. Fuller, of Baltimore, who took occasion to denounce, in terms of great severity, the Roman Catholic church.

The philosophical section of the Alliance met at St. Paul's church. Chas. Reid, M. P., presided. The Rev. Dr. J. Riggs, of Westminster, England, read a paper on the relation of modern literature to Christianity, taking what is called a purely European view of the matter.

Extraordinary Unity—Arrested.

At two p.m. the third section of the Evangelical Alliance met in Dr. Adams' church, Madison square, which was packed. The general topic was the pulpit of the day, and the speakers were Rev. Dr. Parker, of London, Rev. Mr. Beecher, and Dr. Kidder, of Madison, N. J. The children's meeting at three p.m. in the Church of the Disciples was addressed by Rev. Mr. Sheshadri. Dr. Adams announced that, yielding to the request of the Committee, Rev. Mr. Gottlieb, of the university of Bohn, had consented to read a second time his paper on the methods of counteracting modern infidelity. It is reported that on Sunday last, at the service of the Lord's Supper in one of the Presbyterian churches, the officiating clergy consisted of a Protestant Episcopalian, a Baptist, a Lutheran, and representatives of other denominations, the elements being partaken of by members of the various creeds and church organizations whose union forms the Alliance.

The fourth section of the Evangelical Conference met this morning to discuss the topic of Sunday schools. Charles Reed, M.P., presided, and paid a high tribute to the American Sunday and public school system. Rev. Nathaniel Wejss, of Paris, followed in the same vein, giving an account of Sunday school work in France. Rev. J. H. Vincent, of New York, had a Sunday school as a department of his church.

Mrs. Metzler, alias Media, arrested, charged with causing the death of Ida M. Vail, has made an affidavit that Dr. J. K. Commins, of New York city, was the person guilty of malpractice. A requisition will be made on Gov. Dix for his removal to Jersey city.

Isaac H. Bailey, receiver of the National Bank of the Commonwealth, makes a statement of the assets and liabilities of the bank, which shows the capital impaired 38½ per cent. The aggregate indebtedness of the directors to the bank, on the day of the failure, was over $500,000. Ellis, president of the bank, publishes a card, seeking to discredit Bailey's exhibit, and intimating that he is interested in making a bad showing.

Ex-city treasurer Sprague, of Brooklyn, has been arraigned today under four indictments, and his trial is set down for the 20th inst.

Lizzie King, alias Kate Stodard, was arraigned, but one of her counsel stated that they were not yet ready. No day was fixed for the trial, and she was remanded to prison.

Resigned.

Pierce, the defaulting cashier of the Merchants' National Bank, resigned to-day, and assigns his property for the benefit of the bank.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., 7. — Hon. John Law, formerly Congressman from the first Indiana district, died in this city at noon to-day, aged 77 years.

Destructive Fire.

LOUISVILLE, 7.—This morning the large bagging factory of Richardson, Henry & Co., the first factory of the kind started in the United States, caught fire from the friction of the picker, and was totally consumed; loss $75,000, insurance $42,000.

Bank Reports.

WASHINGTON, 7.—The reorganization of the National Metropolitan Bank is promised after the examiner shall have made a report.

The report of the receiver of the Washington City Savings Bank shows a surplus over obligations, estimating the securities at par, and the depositors will receive at least nine-tenths of their money.

Respect to the Late Chief Justice

There will be a meeting of the members of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States, in the court room at the Capitol, on Monday next, to adopt suitable resolutions in reference to the death of the late Chief Justice Chase.

KINGSTON, N. Y.—The weather has been very cold here to-day. The cars on the New York, Kingston and Syracuse railroad, coming from Delaware county, were covered with snow. A snow storm began here at 4 o'clock this morning and continued nearly all day. About eight inches fell.

BOSTON.—Memorial services were held to-day at St. Paul's church over the remains of Bishop Randall, of Colorado. The attendance was large, including the grand lodge of Free Masons, of which the deceased was Past Grand Master. Rev. Dr. Babcock read prayers and conducted brief services. Addresses were made by Rev. Drs. Ewing Vinton, Dr. Potter, of New York, and other prominent clergymen present. The remains were taken to Warren; R. I., for interment.

MATAMORAS, 7. — Telegraphic communication with the city of Mexico has been restored after an interruption of three weeks. Gen.
