SCHOOL SERIES AT SALT LAKE HIGH

Seniors and Juniors Play Final Game Which Results in a Tie—Battle a Hotly Contested One.

The hardest football battle of the Salt Lake high school class series was that between the seniors and juniors Wednesday afternoon on the school campus, and for fierce was the play the game ended with a tie score, 7 to 7.

For 10 minutes during the first half it was slip and slack between the rivals and then Harris recovered the ball for the seniors and they began smashing the line of the enemy until the ball was on the 5-yard line and Francis was rushed over. The seniors lost their chance for goal by touching the ball to the ground too soon. During the half each side scored a safety.

In the second half both teams fought like demons. A long run by Parker and a forward pass from Wilson to Romney carried the ball to the seniors' 2-yard line and after two attempts it was carried over by Gould. For the first time this season Romney failed to kick goal and the score was tied. The seniors are the champions owing to the fact that the freshmen defeated the juniors. The teams lined up as follows:

|---|---|---|
| Parker, Doran | L.E. | Romney |
| Francis | L.T. | Hardwell |
| Walker | L.G. | Clay |
| Hydahl | C. | Moran |
| Palmer | R.G. | Jennings |
| Scranton | R.T. | Spencer |
| Harris, McCune | R.E. | Yuse, Denny |
| Harris | Q.B. | Wilson |
| Edwards | L.H. | Gould |
| Thomas | R.H. | Parker |
| Roach | F.B. | Wallace and Trewick |

Referee—McNiece. Umpire—Atkins. Time of halves—20 and 15 minutes. Time out for juniors—2 minutes. Touchdowns—Seniors, Francis, Juniors, Gould. Final score—7 to 7 in favor of the Seniors for class championship.

GRANITE HIGH WILL MEET BUTTE TEAM

Arrangements have finally been made for a football game at Butte between the Granite high school team and the Butte high seniors, to take place on Thanksgiving day. On Nov. 22 the Granite squad, 18 strong, will leave for the Montana city prepared to do battle on the gridiron with the heavy Butte team. Coach Moss, Manager Kerr and Benny Harkey will accompany the team. The latter will act as umpire of the game.

CLASS BASKETBALL AT UTAH VARSITY

Interest in basketball is daily increasing at the University of Utah and every effort will be made this season to land the intercollegiate championship. Coaches are hard at work picking the men to compose the teams and the work of arranging the schedule is also under way and will be completed after the final football game on Thanksgiving day. The interclass series are sure to be interesting and hotly contested, and they will begin in a short time.

So far Capt. Horsefall has the following players to work with:

Brandley of the B. Y. C. basketball team of last year, Richardson of the university team of last year, Holmstead of the Lehi high school basketball team, Hans Paul, Romney of the Salt Lake high school team, Knowlton of the university team of last year, and Hall, Weaps and Erickson of the university team of last year.

BLUE BLOOD TO OPEN CLASSIC KENNEL

New York, Nov. 18.—After visiting Chicago, for which they start today, Count and Countess de Beaufort of London will return here and open a dog kennel for the purpose of breeding a new variety of mastiff, which has attracted considerable attention among dog fanciers, and which the count had imported from England. He desires to make this mastiff a common breed in this country.

CUNNINGHAM, PRINCETON'S GREAT BOOT ARTIST.

In years to come when the football experts are discussing the merits of the different star kickers the name of Cunningham, Princeton's clever half-back and sensational toe artist, will always be mentioned. When the value of the field goal was reduced from four to three points last winter many were inclined to believe that this move would discourage goal kicking. Such is not the case, however, and the man with the educated toe is as much feared now as he ever was. Several times this season Cunningham's booting has been instrumental in helping the tigers to win over their opponents. In the game against Fordham university it was heady work on the part of the clever toe of Cunningham that saved the tigers from being placed to a tireless tie. With but a few minutes left to play in the second half of the game, Princeton recovered the ball on a fumble. Cunningham was called upon to drive the oval over the cross-bar for the three points that meant saving his team from the ignominy of a tie with a supposedly weaker team, and he was equal to the task. Even, and he was equal to the task. In the game with Yale the slogan was, "Watch Cunningham and his educated leg!"

CHICAGO 'VARSITY AGAINST FOOTBALL

Board Brands Gridiron Game as Needlessly and Prohibitively Dangerous—Important Changes Proposed.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Football is in for another overhauling. Members of the University of Chicago board of physical culture and athletics at a special meeting yesterday branded the gridiron game as needlessly and prohibitively dangerous, and started action aiming at important changes in the playing rules to guard against accidents.

The Chicago officials went on record as opposed to the game in its present form and instructed Coach A. A. Stagg to so notify the conference representatives. Coach Stagg will raise the question at the "Big Eight" meeting tomorrow afternoon. This move is the first of the sort taken by a western college and is admittedly the outgrowth of popular protest against the heavy annual toll of deaths and injuries on the gridiron.

"The conference, of course, can make no changes on its own authority," said Coach Stagg. "The actual changing will be up to the rules committee of the United States Intercollegiate association, and I think it is probable that that body will act in a decisive way."

COAST BALL GAME.

San Francisco, Nov. 17.—The Philadelphia Athletics defeated the All-Nationals today, 5 to 4.

| Score: | R. | H. | E. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Athletics | 5 | 7 | 1 |
| Nationals | 4 | 7 | 3 |

Batteries—Bender and Thomas; Gray and Bliss.

WOMAN BALL PLAYER DIES A PAUPER

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 18.—Miss Daisy Hoover, said to have been the best professional second baseman among women baseball players in the United States, will be buried in the potters' field here today. She died in destitute circumstances at the city hospital last Thursday. For years Miss Hoover was connected with the Boston Bloomer girls. Last year she played through the east with the star bloom girls.

PRESIDENT MURPHY ASKS FOR ADVICE

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Desiring to improve the game of baseball, President Murphy of the Chicago National league club, yesterday invited correspondence with enthusiasts, who see some phase in the sport that can undergo betterment.

According to President Murphy there may be a number of departments wherein improvement can be accomplished, and he is eager to give the folks not officially identified with the rule-making opportunities to remodel regulations that now appear outgrown.

"That's the reason I am going to advocate a school in correspondence for the uplift of baseball," said Mr. Murphy. "There are scores of angles that might stand overhauling, and I am heartily in favor of a longer session for the National league owners. Instead of assembling at New York next month for a three-days' meeting, why not extend the session, giving six or seven days to the consideration of all these appeals from the enthusiasts? Requests containing real merit will be taken to the league meeting. Now it is up to the people to send on their correspondence."

FIVE TEAMS ARE IN BASKETBALL LEAGUE

A basketball league composed of the Salt Lake, Granite and Brigham City high schools, the Weber academy, the school for the Deaf and Blind, was organized Wednesday evening and a schedule of games adopted. The officers are Benny Harker of the Weber academy, president, and Andrew Neilson of Brigham City, secretary and treasurer.

The following games were decided upon:

Jan. 7.—Brigham City vs. Weber academy, at Ogden; Deaf and Blind vs. Salt Lake high, at Salt Lake.

Jan. 14.—Salt Lake high vs. Brigham, at Brigham; Granite vs. Deaf and Blind, at Ogden.

Jan. 21.—Granite vs. Salt Lake high, at Salt Lake; Weber academy vs. Deaf and Blind, at Ogden.

Jan. 28.—Granite vs. Weber, at Ogden; Brigham vs. Deaf and Blind, at Brigham.

Feb. 4.—Weber vs. Salt Lake high, at Ogden; Brigham vs. Granite, at Salt Lake.

Following the schedule the teams will play each other in the same order on Feb. 11, 18, 25 and March 4 and 7.

SUDDEN DEATH OF W. H. GLEASON

Word was received here Wednesday evening that William H. Gleason, one of the best known racing men of the west, is dead at El Paso, Tex. Death followed an attack of grippe and an operation for mastoid abscess of the ear. Announcement of his death came as a great surprise to his friends and acquaintances here as it was not known he had been ill.

W. H. Gleason came here last spring and backed the Utah Jockey club in the meeting at the fair grounds. He also had some stock in the Buena Vista track but sold it to Capt. Hackett. Gleason owned considerable property throughout the west and for some time lived at Alamogordo, N. M. It is said he was worth over a quarter of a million of dollars. He is survived by a widow. The body is to be shipped to Chicago for burial.

RACE FOR AMERICA'S CUP COMES IN 1911

New York, Nov. 17.—Sir Thomas Lipton will challenge for a race for the America's cup to be sailed in 1911. Sir Thomas made this statement just before sailing for Europe today on the steamer Lusitania.

Sir Thomas has been here for several weeks to learn the attitude of the members of the New York Yacht club on the question of modification of the rules governing the America's cup. What assurance, if any, he received is not known. Before sailing Sir Thomas said:

"I will challenge for a race in 1911. I am sure the New York Yacht club will give the question full consideration. I believe they are just as anxious as anybody for a race. I would have challenged for a race next summer had it been possible to get a boat ready in time.

"If the New York yachtsmen insist upon a challenge under the present rules governing international cup races I would stand no chance to win and that would not be sport. I shall issue my challenge with the largest type of boat to conform, if possible, with their ideas."

Members of the New York Yacht club said today that until Sir Thomas's challenge had been formally laid before them no definite statement could be made regarding its acceptance. Leading members of the club held the opinion that the old racing rules should govern contests for the America's cup.

NOTED RIDER HERE.

Tommy Butler, for many years one of the most noted bicycle riders of the country, passed through Salt Lake Wednesday on his way to Denver from Los Angeles. In 1898 Butler defeated Champion Eddie Bald and later trimmed many of the old-time cracks at the cycling game. Butler quit the racing game for the circus and starred in an act called "Leaping the Gap."

TOMMY HUESTON, POOL CHAMPION, WHO IS NOW AFTER DE ORO'S TITLE.

Now that Tommy Hueston has regained his title as pool champion the St. Louisan is after another honor on which he relinquished his hold some time ago, that of three cushion billiard champion. He recently hurled a challenge at De Oro, the present holder of the title, and it is more than likely that the pair will meet after De Oro finishes his games with Eams in Denver. The recent match between Hueston and John Kling for the title was one of the best ever seen in Kansas City, Mo. Hueston is unquestionably one of the best cue artists the game has ever produced. He has defeated such men as De Oro, Keogh, Clearwater, Sherman, Weston and all the cracks who have held the pool championship. He also bears the distinction of having held both the pool and three cushion billiard championship at the same time. He lost both titles within two months, and now after winning back the pool championship he has hurled a challenge at Alfred De Oro, the present holder of the three cushion billiard title. Hueston is a spectacular player and makes the long hard shots which always please the gallery. He had defeated Kling twice before the latter held the pool honors. The first time they met was about eight years ago, and Hueston was just breaking into the spotlight. He won this match. About a year and a half ago, while he had the title, Kling challenged, and Tommy successfully defended. He was at the top of his game at that time and couldn't miss. He outclassed Kling in this match. Kling at that time was playing baseball and was in no such condition as he was in the recent match. This match was for 800 balls and was played in blocks of 200 each night.

Jeff is the Leading "Lady" In Sam Berger's New "Play"

(By R. L. Goldberg.)

New York—Sam Berger has not unfolded the plot of his little play—like drinks, all plays are usually termed little—to any of his close friends. But knowing Sam's rare theatrical ability, as we do, we will take a chance at presenting the plot as we saw it last night through the leaves of a hop plant.

The cast of characters include The Child (played by heavyweight title); Lucille, the Queen of the Slaughter House (played by Jeff); Clysmic, the Hindu fortune teller (played by Berger); and Soot, the villain (Johnson). The cast also includes trainers, rubbers, taxicab drivers, newspapermen, dumbbells, wine agents, crowds, barbers, hotels, artists, promoters, stakeholders, butchers, theatrical managers and money.

FIRST ACT.

While the curtain rises on the first act Lucille (Jeff) is discovered drinking a gallon of Carlsbad spring water out of an old brown hat. She looks worried. She has just returned from the stockyards where she killed a few dozen bulls for exercise. Ah, she speaks:

"Woe is me! It is four long years since I had a real excitement. My life has been a blank since the child disappeared. Look a stranger is coming."

Enter Clysmic (Berger), mumbling a weird Hindu chant that sounds something like this:

"Collars, cuffs, neckties, underwear, Market street, 'Frisco, this way, please." (Walks up, slips Lucille the hypnotic glim and murmurs): "Oh, thou, with the terrible wallop, why tarriest by the wayside when the populace is clamoring for your return. Slip me your flop. I will disclose the future." (Clysmic reads from the mitt):

"You are about to appoint me your manager. We will both go forth and recover your precious child. We will disperse the cloud that hangs over your royal house."

They clinch and swear to stick together forever. They disappear in the direction of the mint. (Curtain.)

SECOND ACT.

The second act discloses a coal yard with Soot (Johnson) just arising from a coal dust bath. He has the kidnaped child stowed away in his vest pocket. He is shooting craps with his manager for scuttles of coal.

"Come, Little Joe, baby needs shoes!" shouts Soot, with his characteristic German accent.

While they are busy with their amusement, Lucille and Clysmic drop through a transom and grab the child. Before they can make their getaway Soot disguises himself as an eraser and rubs out the child. All is confusion as the curtain goes down.

In the next act Clysmic, made up as an artist, redraws the child and hands it back to Lucille. But the wily Soot, "not to be outdone by this clever ruse," changes himself into a bottle of ink and blots out everything.

THE FINALE.

A large number of fight promoters rush upon the stage waving bills of all denominations. The noise brings all of the principals back to life.

Berger is now working on the last act. He expects to put in the finale, in which Jeff gains possession of the child and Johnson is put on the shelf, before the 4th of next July.

BATTLING NELSON VS. FREDDIE WELSH

World's Champion and English Crack To Sign Articles to Fight for The Championship.

New York, Nov. 18.—Battling Nelson and Freddie Welsh, the latter lightweight champion of England, will probably sign articles soon for a fight for the lightweight championship of the world. After decisively whipping Johnny Summers in London, Welsh firmly established his right to a fight with Nelson, whom he has been challenging for about two years. Nelson is now quoted as saying that he will take Welsh on and that as soon as the Englishman arrives here next month, a match can be arranged.

Nelson adds that he will insist on the fight going at least 45 rounds, which means that California will probably get the match. Welsh, who will sail from England about Dec. 16, is quoted as saying that as soon as he arrives, he will post a $1,000 forfeit to bind the match with Nelson and will agree to any fair terms.

FITZ IN AUSTRALIA.

New York, Nov. 17.—Bob Fitzsimmons has finally arrived in Australia, the place he once called home. Bob sailed with the idea of getting a fight with the much-abused Bill Squires, and maybe with Tommy Burns, but Bob's friends know, and he must know himself, that his fighting days are over. In bygone days there was no better, but time and other things have slowly but surely undermined the old boy's fighting faculties. The Cornishman needs the money. Although in his day Bob cleaned up a big pile, his bank roll dwindled away, just as the bank rolls of other fighters melted into nothing. When Bob departed a tear glistened in his eye as he made the damaging admission that he was going to Australia to fight because he knew both Americans and Britons would never pay to see him again in the ring. If Bob can ever reinstate himself with nature in a degree sufficient to hop the ropes it will be the eighth wonder of the world.

STRONGEST TEAMS MAY BE MATCHED

New York, Nov. 18.—Among football enthusiasts there is considerable talk of an effort to match the winner of the Minnesota-Michigan game on Saturday against the winner of the Yale-Harvard game, it being conceded that the winners of these two games will be the strongest teams in the east and west.

It is considered doubtful, however, if such a match game can be arranged, as it is believed that the faculties will oppose it. The players have been sounded on the matter and are in favor, but the athletic directors declare that the heads of the institutions will not permit a game after the close of the regular season.

GRIEF KILLED HAMBURG BELLE

John E. Madden Declares Defeat by Uhlan Caused Death of World's Famous Trotter.

Grief over her defeat by Uhlan in their second match race last summer is declared by John E. Madden to have been indirectly responsible for the death of Hamburg Belle, the great trotting queen of the American harness world.

The mare, which was purchased by H. M. Hanna of Cleveland after her defeat by Uhlan in their first race of the three planned, was taken to Readville. It was there that Uhlan won and the mare never faced again. She was taken to Thomasville, Ga., where she died a few days ago of pneumonia. Her illness came after a long indisposition, which Madden, her former owner, says was caused by her losing the heart-breaking race at Readville. The great daughter of Axworthy had a mark of 2:07¼ and was looked upon as the equal of the world's record holder, Lou Dillon, with a mark of 1:58¾, made Oct. 24, 1903, at Memphis, Tenn.

Hamburg Belle was unquestionably the queen of the trotting world. When she was matched with Uhlan, the unbeaten black stallion, last August, she was picked as a sure winner by a majority of horsemen. In the first trial the mare was forced to establish the low mark of 2:04¾ in order to win.

Hamburg Belle, registered as Sally Simmons II, made three world's records at the North Randall track. Her first heat was trotted in 2:01¼, the fastest mile ever trotted in a race, and two seconds faster than the previous record held by Cresceus. The second heat was trotted in 2:02¾, the fastest second heat trotted in a race, and the race itself was the fastest two heats.

It was at the conclusion of this race that H. M. Hanna of Cleveland purchased her from John E. Madden for $6,000.

Hamburg Belle was foaled in 1902, bred by E. T. Bedford of Brooklyn, N. Y. Her dam was Sally Simmons, her sire Axworthy. Her first mark was at Mineola, N. Y., in 1907, when she trotted a mile in 2:12¾. At Hartford, Sept. 7, 1908, she trotted the three fastest heats in a race, the third in 2:04¾.

Hamburg Belle's remarkable 1909 season followed a period of lameness. John E. Madden managed her for Edward and Joseph Madden of Lexington, Ky., his sons, and Billy Andrews was her trainer and driver. Madden's management continuing after the purchase by Mr. Hanna.

ITALIAN WRESTLER PRAISES GOTCH

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Giovanni Raicevich, the Italian wrestler, now freely acknowledges that he is not in it with Frank Gotch, especially at the American game of catch-as-catch-can. The Italian says:

"My defeat at the hands of Mr. Gotch compels me to make a statement to the American people through the Post, which has treated me with the greatest consideration and fairness since I have been in this country. Especially to Italian residents I would address my remarks. I want to thank them all for their grand support when I needed it.

"When I decided to come to America to challenge Mr. Gotch and do what Hackenschmidt and Pierri's Turk had failed to do, I had but a faint idea of the American style of wrestling. I believed that a very strong man with real ability at the Graeco-Roman style of wrestling which permits of holds only above the belt, would be able to defeat the Americans, no matter how good they were.

"After the proof offered me in last night's match, I have changed my opinion in this regard, and I am not a bit afraid to say that not one of Europe's champions will be able to defeat Frank Gotch in the catch-as-catch can style."

"I am free to admit that Frank Gotch is the greatest living wrestler at this style, although I wish Zbysco and the rest of them well in their attempts to down him.

"Still, I believe that I am as good a wrestler at my own style—believe me, as you say here, that I am sorry I ever forsook it—as there is in the world, and if given a chance at it in this country will demonstrate to my countrymen and the vast army of Americans who follow athletics that I can beat any man living, nobody barred.

"That is why I am issuing this challenge, and hope the Post will help me get the match or matches.

"The only condition I would impose in making such a match or matches is that a man thoroughly acquainted with the Graeco-Roman rules would act as referee."

It is unfortunate for this really pleasant Italian that the Graeco-Roman style of wrestling is not popular in this country. To be frank about the matter, it lacks the action, so essential to the American, who insists upon action and plenty of it at all times.

But you have to give it to Raicevich for being a manly fellow. Also give it to him for knowing when he has enough.

CIRCUS STUNTS BY TEXAS AUTOS

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 17.—Driving his Buick racer at a terrific pace into the stretch today in the six-hour race, closing event of the four days' automobile meet, Robert Burman narrowly escaped death when his machine overturned. Burman was badly shaken up and bruised but not seriously injured. The car turned a complete somersault, just missing Burman when it fell to the ground.

Of the five cars that started in the race, four were wrecked or withdrawn. The Chalmers-Detroit car, driven by Ben Johnson, outclassed from the start, was awarded first prize after covering 258 miles in 4 hours and 32 minutes. Second and third prizes were divided between Clark and De Hymel.

The race started at 11 o'clock this morning. Barney Oldfield, in his Knox car, Tobin de Hymel, in a Stoddard-Dayton; George Clark, in a Jackson; Ben Johnson, in a Chalmers-Detroit "30" and Burman started. On the fifth lap a connecting rod broke and Oldfield dropped out. At 2:50 o'clock Burman overturned.

While the Stoddard-Dayton and Jackson cars were on their 257th lap, the front wheel of the Stoddard-Dayton machine wheeled off 100 yards into a field. Immediately behind it was George Clark, driving the Jackson.

Seeing that a collision with De Hymel was imminent, Clark pointed his car straight at the high embankment and shot over it. The Stoddard came to a stop 50 yards further on. Clark safely retained his seat in the Jackson as it leaped far over the bank and landed upright a dozen feet below the outer edge. He was not hurt.

COLLEGES ENTER THE AERO GAME

New York, Nov. 18.—A half dozen of the larger colleges have already organized aero clubs and there is a strong probability that a competitive intercollegiate meet will be held in the near future. The University of Notre Dame, Indiana, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Harvard and the University of Pennsylvania are among the leaders in the movement. The latter institution will have a balloon ascension on Thanksgiving day over Franklin field, just before the football game with Cornell. The Pennsylvania students will purchase an aeroplane in the spring and issue challenges to other colleges.
