TO END THE ASIATIC WAR.

President Cleveland Willing to Act as A Mediator.

No Amount Less Than $100,000,000 Likely to be Considered by Japan as a Peace Offering.

TOKIO, Nov. 11. — United States Minister Dun has communicated to the ministry the substance of an important cipher cable proposition received from Secretary Gresham at Washington. It suggests that if Japan will join in requesting the President of the United States to act as a mediator in ending the war he will exert all his good offices in that capacity. A similar proposition has been sent to China.

The cable was received by Minister Dun on Friday, and was presented at a special meeting of the ministry. An answer has not yet been sent. The proposition presents a grave question to the ministry. They are loyal to one end of the popular sentiment to continue the war against China. On the other hand European powers are threatening to intervene. As between these conflicting influences the ministry find great difficulty in reaching a decision on the American proposition, but the prospect is that it will be accepted.

It is learned that four days ago China made a proposition to the United States to intervene.

JAPAN'S ACTUAL EXPENSES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—It is not likely Japan will accept the mediation unless $100,000,000 is offered. This will about represent what Japan has actually spent on the war. This is roughly figured as follows: Japan had a reserve fund of $25,000,000 on hand when the war began. This has been spent. There she negotiated a war loan of 50,000,000 yen, a yen being about equal to our dollar. This makes $75,000,000 actually used in the war. Besides this Japanese citizens have contributed large sums, and the government has incurred other large obligations.

LEAVING PORT ARTHUR.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The correspondent of the Times at Chee Foo, under date of yesterday, telegraphs as follows: Tatsi Kung, with several military leaders abandoned Port Arthur on November 8th. This indicates an intention to surrender.

There was no simple defending force both at Talienwan and Port Arthur, but no general direction of affairs. Chaos prevailed everywhere.

The French and American admirals are here. A panic prevails at New Chang. Military deserters and refugees are fighting for passages on sailing steamers.

Lee Asks for Money.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—A letter has been received from Rome by Mgr. Satolli, to be forwarded to him to the archbishops. Heretofore the Peter pence collected each year in every diocese was sent directly by the bishops to Rome. Now these collections must be transmitted to the delegate. Moreover, any individual who wishes to make his own alms a more liberal contribution than he would ordinarily put in the diocese on collection, may do so by addressing it directly to the pope through the delegate.

SOCIALISTS AND ANARCHISTS.

Meetings in Memory of the Haymarket Demonstrators.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 11.—West Twelfth street Turner Hall was crowded this afternoon with Socialists, who had gathered to attend the commemoration exercises of the anniversary of the hanging of the anarchists.

The meeting was called to order by Barnard Berlin. He said:

"We are not here to commemorate the tragedy which occurred several years ago today, but to express our views and also to express our sympathy for the departed."

Julius Vahlteich spoke in German. He said that the time would come when the hanging of the anarchists would be revenged.

"They were not hanged," he said, "because they dared to express their opinions, but because they were enemies to capitalists."

MOWBRAY RETURNS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Charles William Mowbray, the English anarchist-socialist, who came to this country last summer and landed under an assumed name without the knowledge of the commissioner of immigration, returned here secretly from Kingston on Saturday. With him is his son. Mowbray and his son came to the storage in the Campania. They assumed the name of Guerry. They sensationally answered the questions of the inspection inspection, and were permitted to come to the city. The Bunchey detectives were not after Mowbray and his son when they left England. The young Mowbray, it seems, enlisted in the army only to spread the doctrines of anarchistic-socialism.

MUST SPEAK TOO.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Twelve hundred people were present at Waldheim cemetery today to celebrate the deaths of the six anarchists executed for participating in the Haymarket riot. Herr Most's presence had the effect of keeping away the socialists.

Among other things Most said:

"We meet at the foot of this monument to hold high the banner in whose shadow those who rest here fought, and to which they remained true unto death, and in unloosing the red flag at this grave we proclaim to all the world the gospel of poverty and misery which 'our five' understood so well, and for which they had to die. We must here—and encumbered hosts of workingmen of all countries are with us in spirit—declare that we will remain solidary with the murdered men—that we feel bound to continue the work we saw by them begun, to go forward with success, until victory is obtained.

Further Talk of Issue of Bonds.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—There are strong indications that the new issue of bonds will be announced during the coming week. For some time past the agitation has been growing upon the Democrats that an issue of another $50,000,000 would seem necessary, and so his return from Buzzard's Bay he expressed to the members of his cabinet his belief that the issue could not be longer delayed, and that the sooner it was made the better. He saw the treasury people constantly giving a loss, with no immediate prospect of any favorable change. Already the gold reserve has reached a point of $44,000,000 below the point reached previously in the last issue, with the probabilities strongly in favor of still further and larger withdrawals for export as soon as the usual spring movement set in.

Forest Fires Stopped.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 11.—The forest fires in Arkansas and Tennessee south of Memphis have about spent their fury. The flames have turned to the banks of the Mississippi river and stopped.

The damage reported today was small, being confined to the destruction of a few acres around plantations on the Arkansas side of the river. There are no signs of rain and apprehensions are that fires will break out in other regions. Twelve miles south of Memphis the Frisco track is so dry that it is with difficulty maintained over that it has caused get a train to cost more for losses would be heavy. The smoke is disappearing from the city and river traffic is unimpeded.

Sentence Intermpted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—An accident with unfortunate results occurred in connection with sentencing prisoners in connection with an outlawed railroad service this afternoon. An Italian named Cotogno, the central principle of whom is the belief that the Anarchists have a case of the first for prison at Jersey, has been convicted by Rev. Mr. Allen, who has held several services, culminating today in a public baptism of converts in the waters of the bay.

The accompaniment of the ceremony attracted an immense crowd to North Beach. Several hundred people were in the Jackie sites, wharves, and 100 more standing on a broad stairway leading down to the water. The warm-water tighers of the old structure gave way to the model of Moscow baptism, precipitating the people from twelve to twenty feet, according to their location.

Fortunately the tide was out, so instead of falling into the water the spectators tumbled into the slimy mud. No one was killed, but as the people were piled five deep there were many serious injuries and several broken limbs. The patrol wagon, ambulance and three loads of injured taken to the receiving hospital. The services closed in cessation of the service, and the invitation continued to assist Mr. Allen in immersing converts.

STRUCK ON A REEF.

The Crown of England Wrecked Off Chiapas.

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Nov. 11.—The first mate and five sailors from the steamer Crown of England landed here this morning in a dense fog. They brought the sad news of the wreck of their steamer, which occurred at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The boat was under command of Captain Hamilton, and left San Diego to collect for Nicaragua, B. C., at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. The fog at the time was so dense the pilot advised Captain Hamilton not to go. The fog continued all day and night. Without warning the boat struck on the reef in two fathoms of water.

The mate and five sailors then started for the main land in a boat, leaving the remainder of the crew on the island. The boat was running at half speed at the time she struck.

WHAT WILSON SAYS.

Hard Times the Cause of the Republican Victory.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—In a letter to the Press, from Washington, Hon. William L. Wilson gives his views of the cause of Democratic defeat. He writes:

"Hard times is an enemy before which no political party in America has ever been able to make a successful stand when in power.

"This is, and perhaps always will be, a week party in popular government. When labor is out of employment, when farm products are low, when our financial system is disorganized, the wisest administration of government and the most wholesome laws do not avail to save a party from temporary and disastrous overthrow.

"If they have suffered the lesson it is because the party did not carry out with sufficient promptness and thoroughness her work they committed to it. The long and indefensible delay in the Senate, the sinister suspicion that gathered around certain schedules and duties as they are issued now, kindled a disappointment and disgust among the rank and file of the party that led to apathy and even mutiny a hostility in the recent elections."

Efforts to "Fix" a Jury.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 11.—There have been further sensational developments with regard to the efforts to fix a jury in the trial of W. E. Richardson and H. N. Smith, charged with the outrage lynching near Bolivar, and Cameron Prosecuting Attorney Patterson will ask the court to discharge 1,000 men that have been secured after a week's labor at examination of 600 talesmen.

The attorney-general will present to the court an affidavit that nearly all of the 600 persons summoned for jury service have been selected from among the known friends of the accused, and one juryman, it was shown by affidavit, asserted that he would not convict a white man for killing a negro.

The attorney-general will also move the court to relieve Sheriff McCarver from duty during the progress of this case. This is because of the manner in which the sheriff has summoned the jurymen and in the manner in which he has treated the prisoners. The whiskey has turned that men their intoxication into Smith and Richardson have been taken by the sheriff to the Kerrville neighborhood on more than one occasion.

Robert McCarver, son of the sheriff, is prosecuting witness in the case, and continues to communicate constantly with the accused, who, while in jail, have been allowed extraordinary liberties.

FEASTED ON CAT.

It Was Delicious as Long as the Guests Remained in Ignorance.

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 11.—Several days ago the members of Mansfield Chess club gave a "council take to a number of friends. They all pronounced the dish superior to any they had tasted before. They might have remained in ignorance of the fact of the case had George Jones, a Broadfield, Ohio, citizen, of whom they had purchased the "potum, remained quiet. A neighbor asked Jones what he had become of his big Angora cat. Jones laughingly remarked that a Chinese conjuror had requested him to hand them a "potum. He was unsuccessful in his hunt and butchered his old tom cat, dressed it and sent it to Sharon.

The club members have investigated the case and found Jones's statement to be true, and have begun legal proceedings against the Mallow vendor.

IS JOHN DEAD?

The Question Agitating a Portion of the People of Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 12.—"Is John Bogan dead?" is a question that is agitating a considerable portion of this community.

Miss Bogan was employed in the public schools of this city for many years, and finally became a principal. She was a member of the county board of education and recognized as one of the most efficient teachers of the department. Miss Bogan in poor health, however, and so obtained a long leave of absence, and on the evening of August 15, 1893, departed for Paris, France, necessary to have a surgical operation performed. A few weeks later a cablegram was received in Paris, stating that Miss Bogan had expired from the effects of a hemorrhage in a Paris hotel. It is now asserted that Miss Bogan is not dead, but living in Contra Costa, where she is married to John Clark, an employee of one of the flour a dozen of ten years' standing.

SPAIN PAYS THE COSTS.

Signal of Outrage—Committed on a Baptist in Pontevedra.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The Rev. D. C. C. Cooper, official secretary of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, has received word from the home office of the board in Boston, that the treasurer has received $17,500 from the United States government, being the indemnity paid by Spain as compensation for an outrage perpetrated against an American citizen and American property in one of the groups of Mico ocean islands, in the Southern Pacific to-land.

It was many years ago that the American board established a mission among the natives of Ponape, a savage race. A church was built and schools were put up and maintained and the mission work was carried on with much success for a long time. Subsequently Spanish missionaries arrived on the island and strife soon followed. Threats were made to kill the American missionaries and their family and for a long time they lived in fear of their lives. The situation became so perilous that the Rev. E. T. Doane and his associates were compelled to flee from their homes to the darkness of the night by boats or small boats. The parsonage entered in the flight proved fatal to Mr. Doane, and Miss Fletcher, one of his associate, became crazed by reason of her terrible experiences and has been since then an inmate of an insane asylum in Massachusetts. After the departure of the refugees, the school, church and all the buildings of the mission were destroyed by fire. As first Spain denied any responsibility in the matter, but was at last forced to admit it, as the payment of the indemnity shows. No attempt has been made to re-open the American mission.

Bonney Was Arrested.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 12.—Matt Hayes, one of the most daring and successful horse men and confidence operators on the Pacific coast, has been arrested in this city. Hayes is wanted in Louisville, Colo., where a term in the penitentiary awaits him. Hayes has been tracked by officers all over the coast for several months. He will be held until an officer with requisition papers arrives.
