BIRTHS.

Mrs. Wm. J. Eddington presented her husband with twin babes, boy and girl, on the 26th. The sad part of it is the little girl only lived about two hours. Mother and the other babe seem to be doing well.

The wife of James Eddington presented her husband with a son August 24th.

On the 23rd a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart; all doing well.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Little Eddie Hansen, son of Aaron Hansen of Milton, while wrestling on Sunday fractured the elbow joint and dislocated both bones. Dr. Osgood attended his injuries.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. Geo. Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her; and she writes, this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of its power to cure all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

BEAR LAKE COUNTY NEWS.

Sad Death of George Miles—Called Away in the Bloom of Youth.

Impressive and Touching Funeral Services—Interesting Stake Conference—Mrs. David Roberts Dead.

Special Correspondence.

Paris, Idaho, August 28.—The most sorrowing scenes attending any funeral held in Paris were witnessed here yesterday at the obsequies of George Miles, the seventeen-year-old son of Prof. John H. Miles. The circumstances attending his sudden death are very sad. On Friday afternoon, in company with his brother Arthur, and two sons of Joseph Wixom, of Liberty, he went hunting ducks on the Paris bottoms, near the Church ranch. They left home about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, happy and light-hearted, and reaching their place of rendezvous they camped for the night, with fond anticipations of the morrow. At break of day, the boys were astir, and it was decided to leave George cook breakfast, while his brother Arthur, two years younger, and the Wixom boys, went along the slough to see what they could kill. They separated, and George started his fire going, put on some water, and made all preparations for cooking the morning meal. He then strolled to the slough, and saw a brace of fine ducks on the water. Quietly and quickly he went to camp for his gun, and shot them both. The slough was quite deep, so he bridled a horse and rode in to secure the results of his markmanship, leaving his hat and gun on the bank. Soon after the boys returned, and not finding George at camp, searched for him. They found the horse, with the bridle on, covered with water and mud, and at once had their suspicions aroused. Walking hastily to the slough they found his hat and gun, but no signs of the boy. That he was drowned, there was no question. Arthur jumped on the horse and flew like the wind back to the home, seven miles away, where but a few hours ago they had all left with happy hearts. "Where's father?" asked the boy. Brother Miles was in the canyon getting wood. Up went the boy. On reaching the place where his father was, he told him in a few words all that had happened. Help was soon secured, and about two hours after the boy had drowned, his body was recovered. He was an excellent swimmer, and in what manner he met his death after riding in the slough to get the ducks will never be known. The body was brought to Paris, and taken to the home of Grandma M. A. Shepherd. Yesterday the services were held in the Second ward meeting house. The singing was most beautiful and appropriate. "God moves in a mysterious way," "Wanted on the other side," "Sweet rest in heaven," and "Home, sweet home," being the selections rendered. Bishop Robert Price made a few opening and comforting remarks, after which Apostle John Henry Smith preached an eloquent sermon on the resurrection, full of consolation to the grief-stricken parents. President Wm. Budge then made a few closing remarks, full of sympathy for the sorrowing family.

George was seventeen years old last March, and was a very intelligent boy, and a great favorite with his fellows. He was good to his parents, and but the Sunday before he died was in his class at the Sabbath school answering the questions asked the class by one of the Stake officers.

STAKE CONFERENCE.

Last Saturday and Sunday, quarterly conference was held in the Tabernacle here. Apostle John Henry Smith was present and spoke at the four meetings. The subject of tithing was spoken upon exclusively Sunday morning. The tenor of the other discourses delivered by the Apostle was upon the duties of the ward teachers and the need of greater preparation on the part of our missionaries. At the Sunday night meeting, under the auspices of the Stake Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. A., Apostle Smith spoke upon "Business Integrity" and the necessity of men making their word as good as their bond.

DEATH OF MRS. DAVID ROBERTS.

Mrs. David Roberts, of Bloomington, died most suddenly at Kemmerer, Wyo., on Sunday. Her body was brought home for burial yesterday. She leaves a husband and three small children.
