LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, SEPT. 23.

The Insane Asylum.—From the Enquirer, we learn the result of the meeting held in Provo last Saturday evening, by the Board of Directors of the Territorial Insane Asylum. President R. T. Burton occupied the chair. All the directors were present excepting Governor Murray and Col. J. R. Winder. The members had first visited the site chosen for the proposed edifice before convening at the Court House. The report of the committee on the purchase of a site was presented and adopted. It showed that title to about thirty-three acres of land had been secured, leaving about seven acres yet to secure, title to which would be transferred as soon as the present owner's title was perfected. The thirty-three acres had been purchased at a cost of $1,801.10. The report also stated that the sum of $2,000 had been appropriated by Utah County to the purposes of the Asylum; also $500 by Provo City, which amounts were now made subject to the order of the Board. On motion the sum of $2,000 and $500 were gratefully accepted by the Board on behalf of the Territory, and the Secretary was instructed to draw the said amounts for the purposes indicated. The report of the committee on plans and specifications was then accepted, and Dr. J. M. Benedict, who was present, stated that the plan drafted by the architect, Mr. John H. Burton, and adopted by the Board, was known as the improved Linear form and highly recommended by such eminent medical authorities as Drs. Gray and Kirkwood. The plan is after that of the State Asylum of Michigan, at Kalamazoo, and consists of a central or main building and two wings. These wings are made of two longitudinal and two transverse sections each. The building will be fire-proof, as far as the materials at hand will allow of it being made so. It having been provided by the last Legislature for the building of only a portion of such a structure, in view of meeting the present requirements, and $25,000 only being available by appropriation, the Board decided on proceeding with the work of constructing the first longitudinal and transverse sections lying south of the proposed central building. This portion of the building itself will be three stories high, above the waterable, and 155 feet long including the west wing of the transverse section, running east from west, it will be 108 feet long. The foundation and basement are to be constructed of red sandstone from Spanish Fork quarries, or of ordinary building rock if suitable arrangements for the former cannot be made. The superstructure will be of red brick.

The Asylum, completed, is designed to accommodate 200 patients.

A building committee, consisting of Messrs. W. N. Dusenberry, W. R. Smith and J. R. Winder, was appointed, with instructions to advertise for bids for such labor and material as were requisite to put in the basement before the coming winter, and accomplish as much more as their facilities and the season of the year would warrant. The engineer was instructed to make the necessary surveys in view of establishing a system of sewerage, to ascertain the amount of water supply to be derived from Oak Springs, and offer recommendations thereon to the board.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, SEPT. 24.

Sheep Shearing Match.—At the coming Fair, arrangements have been made with Mr. Wm. H. Haigh, of Taylorsville, to have on the Fair Grounds, 20 head of premium wethers, which are to be deprived of their fleeces by expert shearers.

Priesthood Meeting.—The regular quarterly meeting of the Priesthood of this Stake will be held on Saturday, October 1st, 1881, at 11 a.m., in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall.

The presiding officers of the Wards and quorums and of the various societies and associations of the Stake will please prepare and forward any reports or other business designated for this meeting, at their earliest convenience.

By request of the Presidency of the Stake.

WM. W. TAYLOR,
Stake Clerk.

Fair Matters.—All parties having business to transact with the secretary and treasurer of the D. A. & M. Society will find Mr. A. M. Musser at the Territorial Auditor's Office, first door east of the Deseret National Bank, from now till after the business matters of the approaching fair are wound up.

The Utah Eastern, in order to lend its aid to the fair, offers the same rates as have been extended by all the other roads to those intending to exhibit articles in the fair. Half-fare will be given on all points on its line; manufactured goods and earth products will be shipped free, and live stock will be charged full rates to the fair, but returned afterwards free.

The following communication is self-explanatory:

SALT LAKE CITY,
Sept. 22d, '81.

John R. Winder, Esq., President
D. A. & M. Society:

Dear Sir—Z. C. M. I. Shoe Factory has so many advantages over other boot and shoe manufactories in this Territory, in machinery and other facilities, that, we are informed, the lesser manufacturers feel diffident about entering their productions at the forthcoming fair in competition with the goods made by us. [Our factory took nearly all the premiums offered for boots and shoes at the last fair.] We, therefore, with a view to incite more extensive competition and display than heretofore in this line, decide to enter our goods as competing for premiums this season, but request the privilege of space simply for displaying the large variety we are now manufacturing.

Yours truly,
W. H. ROWE,
Supt. of Factory.

The Cannon Naturalization Case.—The case of the United States ex rel Allen G. Campbell, plaintiff, vs. George Q. Cannon, defendant, instituted in the Third District Court June 8th, 1881, and involving the citizenship of Hon. George Q. Cannon, came up to day, on the demurrer of the defendant to the complaint. The complaint, after a series of allegations, prays for relief as follows:

That the Court adjudge and decree that the defendant George Q. Cannon is not a citizen of the United States and never was naturalized according to law.

That the certificate of pretended naturalization now held by the defendant dated Dec. 7, 1854, be adjudged fraudulent and void and annulled.

That said George Q. Cannon be enjoined and commanded to desist and refrain from demanding, accepting or receiving from the Treasury of the United States, through its disbursing officer, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States, or from any other person, the salary and compensation pertaining to the office of Delegate to the 47th Congress for the Territory of Utah, pending this action, and upon hearing perpetually.

For such other and further relief as the justice of the cause may require, and for costs of this action.

Subsequent to the filing of the complaint, the defendant, by his attorneys, filed a demurrer to the same embodying the following points:

That the Court has no jurisdiction of the subject of this action.

That the plaintiff has no legal capacity to sue the cause of action mentioned in said writ, but the action should be brought in the name of the real party interested, viz.: Allen G. Campbell.

That there is a misjoinder of parties plaintiff in this, that the complaint attempts to unite a cause of action in which the United States alone as a Republic in its own behalf is interested, and one in which Allen G. Campbell is alone interested.

That several causes of action have been improperly joined, to wit: A cause of action for annulling a certificate of naturalization, with a cause of action for enjoining defendant from exercising the functions of office of Delegate to Congress and receiving pay therefor.

That the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

The hearing on the demurrer, mainly on the question involved in the last section, commenced about half-past ten this morning, when Arthur Brown, Esq., counsel for the defendant, made a very able argument of an hour and a half's duration. He was followed by Judge J. G. Sutherland, for the plaintiff, who spoke till recess and continued at 2 p.m., and closed about half-past 2 o'clock. Judge McBride, his associate, followed, and was speaking when our reporter left the Court Room. Mr. Brown intended to reply at the close of Mr. McBride's remarks.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, SEPT. 27.

Taken Under Advisement.—The case of the United States ex rel, vs. George Q. Cannon, argued on the defendant's demurrer to the complaint, was submitted and taken under advisement this morning. On Saturday afternoon, after Judge McBride had concluded his argument, Mr. Brown, for the defense, desired to reply, but owing to the lateness of the hour, the Court adjourned until this morning. Mr. Brown then replied to the arguments of the counsel for the plaintiff, and the case was then submitted as above stated.

Struck by a Falling Shed.—An accident occurred about 11:30 a.m. to-day, at Gould's coal sheds, on the Utah Central Depot grounds, by which a young man named Henry Player, was injured. He was one of the coal haulers in the employment of Mr. Gould, and was getting his load from the shed, which contained several hundred tons of coal, when both sides of the building fell outwards, and down came the roof upon the young man. He was released as soon as possible and removed to the railroad company's office and Dr. Benedict was summoned to attend him. No bones had been broken, and it is probable the patient will be around again in a couple of weeks. He was struck by the timbers across the thighs, and his body was more or less scratched, but none of the injuries are serious. His age is about 18 or 19 years.

Destruction of Liquor.—On Sunday night, some time after 11 o'clock, the liquor saloon of Messrs. Auer & Murphy was entered from the rear, by some unknown party or parties, and property destroyed to the estimated amount of $3,500. A number of kegs containing wines and liquors were tapped and suffered to empty their contents upon the floor, and in addition to this, a large and costly mirror was broken, also other articles of glassware. The proprietors offer a reward of $500 for the capture and conviction of the parties who committed the outrage. No money was taken away, showing that the act was one of pure spite against the owners of the place. No one can justify deeds of this character, and while we cannot help thinking that some of the liquor dealers of Salt Lake, upheld by the District Court, by their recent aggressive attitude toward the great cause of temperance, have done considerable to invite such attacks from those who consider themselves driven to such methods for redress, we cannot but deprecate acts of lawlessness such as the one described. We also regret that a condition of things exist, that will incite the perpetration of such misdeeds.

Memorial Services.—In addition to the funeral services held in the Tabernacle yesterday, in honor of the late President Garfield, impressive services were held with a similar object, at St. Mark's Cathedral and the Presbyterian Church. The former was attended by the Knights Templar, who proceeded thither to the music of a brass band. The services commenced at 12 M. and consisted of the following: Singing, by the choir; prayer, by the Rev. Mr. Armstrong; benediction by the Rev. Mr. Miller.

The services at the Presbyterian Church were attended by the Knights of Pythias and the G.A.R., who were preceded to the place of assembly by Croxall's silver band. The exercises were as follows: Singing, choir; reading from the Psalms, Prof. Benner; prayer, Rev. Mr. Rudisill; oration, Rev. Mr. McNiece; address, Major Bradley; address, Rev. Mr. Hilton. These were appropriately interspersed with singing, and were of an interesting character.

At Bountiful, Davis County, business was suspended and memorial services were held in the Tabernacle. They were conducted by the Bishop of the Ward, Chester Call, who, in his opening remarks, extended an invitation to all present, regardless of creed or party, who wished to take part in the services, to take a seat upon the stand.

An appropriate address was delivered by the Bishop, who was followed by Wm. Thurgood, A. L. Buckland, Esq., Justice J. J. Willey, W. W. Willey and others. The singing, which was excellent, was conducted by the choir leader, Edward Thomas.

TERRIBLE AND FATAL ACCIDENT.

COALVILLE, Sep. 19, 1881.

Editor Deseret News:

Bishop Chester Staley, of the Upton Ward, met with a sudden and terrible death yesterday morning, the circumstances of which were as follows: He had been stopping with three of his youngest children for some time past at his saw-mill in the mountains, 13 miles southeast of Upton, he having buried his wife about six months ago.

Yesterday morning he started to bring his children down to the settlement on a load of lumber. At the top of a very steep hill, three miles this side of the mill, he had the two boys and little girl eight years old, get off, and in driving down the hill his foot slipped off the brake, causing him to fall between the load and the wheel mules. The lead animals swinging around, caused the wagon to upset and roll down the hill, entangling him with the animals and harness. The eldest boy, a lad of 14, put the younger one on his back and sent him back to the mill for assistance, while he cut the harness to pieces and extricated his father, who was quite dead, and apparently had been instantly killed.

The little boy sat holding his father's head on his lap when assistance arrived from the mill. Brother Staley was a most excellent man, and his sad and sudden death will cause great sorrow and deep sympathy in the Upton Ward, and with all who knew him.

Very respectfully,
W. W. CLUFF.

The blood at times becomes loaded with impurities and moves sluggishly in the veins. This condition of the vital fluid cannot last long without serious results. An alternative is needed to purify the blood and impart energy to the system, and there is none better than Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

In a New Sphere.

A notable feature at the police Court, before Judge Pyper yesterday, was the trial of a case for debt, S. W. Darke, Esq., attorney for plaintiff and Mr. Brown, of Booth & Brown, Provo, attorney for defendant. Mr. D. showed himself to be considerable of a lawyer, his knowledge of law points and the contents of the statute book surprising his friends. He succeeded in having a demurrer of defendants to complaint overruled, amended his complaint and kept his end up in a discussion of law points for over two hours, like an old hand at the business. Considerable praise was showered on him by his friends at the close of the case—which he won—as this was what might be termed his maiden case in the courts.
