JEWELS AND LACES.

"Oh, girl with the jewelled fingers,
Oh, girl with the lace sun!"

What are your hands and what are your laces worth to you if, from underrating the trying ordeals which fashionable society imposes on the delicate, enough to lost the physical strength and endurance of the total school, you break down, lose your health and become a physical wreck, or thousands do from such causes?

Under such circumstances you would willingly give all your jewels and all your laces to regain lost health. This you can do if you will but resort to the use of that great restorative known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Thousands of grateful women bless the day it was made known to them.

For all disorganments, irregularities and weaknesses peculiar to women, it is the only remedy sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. The guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

An invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system. For bottle warter generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon.

DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS

regulate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. One a dose. Sold by druggists. 25 cents a vial.

THE JEWISH PROBLEM.

A Sensible Letter from the Czarina to the Princess of Wales.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—Advices from St. Petersburg state that whole villages of Jews are being depopulated on the pretense that they are within the forbidden districts of the Russian Jew, and in some instances whole villages are not really within the forbidden limits. A Jewish father has been fined because his son did not appear for conscription, the son having died when an infant, many years before. The estates which the Jews are compelled to abandon are being obtained by land speculators for a mere song.

It is said that a letter from the Czarina to the Princess of Wales entirely serious, as a matter of prudence, and in the interest of humanity, English non-interference in Russia's policy towards the Jews.

BRITISH NOBILITY.

A Young Courier Knows Something About Them.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 7.—Herbert John Ames, aged 17, who was an inmate of Charles F. Hammond's notorious Cleveland Street House in London and who escaped with Hammond to this country, today made a statement concerning the place. Hammond is under sentence for two years in the penitentiary for grand larceny, and the boy was therefore afraid to tell the story because of Hammond's threats of personal violence. He now tells it voluntarily.

Ames was secretary for Hammond and says he wrote many letters had year to many noblemen, demanding cash money. He says about twenty men visited the Cleveland Street house regularly. Many of them were introduced by false names and the names of some were never known.

Among the frequenters he knew were the Earl of Euston, Lord Arthur Somerset, Robert Gervys, the Queen's officer at Windsor barracks, Dr. Maitland of Harvard, Perry Stalled, a London capitalist, Hugh Wadlin, a banker, and Captain Barber of the army.

THE BEHRING SEA.

Interest Manifested in Canada About the Discussion.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 7.—Considerable interest is manifested here in the latest phase of the Behring Sea discussion, caused by the publication of Blaine's reply to Lord Salisbury. Blaine seems to have hit upon one or two new points, and with a view to ascertaining their relative strength, Sir John Thompson, minister of justice, was asked for his opinion upon them. Sir John said that in the case of the Cayton pearl fisheries, the jurisdiction exercised by England was simply to prohibit injurious operations of those fisheries by British subjects, and there has been no attempt to exclude foreigners from the pearl fisheries, or any other operations.

that King Charles of Roumania has decided to abdicate in a short time in favor of his nephew, Prince Ferdinand of Roumania. The bride, it is reported, is engaged to Princess Mary of Edinburgh, eldest daughter of the Duke of Edinburgh, second son of Queen Victoria.

On Trial for Heresy.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 7.—The trial of Rev. Howard B. Mangsary, rector of the Episcopal church of Canton, on a charge of heresy, opened here this morning. The charge that Mangsary expressed heretical views on the birth and resurrection of Christ, was read. Mangsary pleaded not guilty.

Dr. Dabo offered in evidence a book written by Mangsary, entitled, "Evolution of Man and Christianity," certain passages of which are not considered doctrinal. Mangsary's counsel and Dr. Dabo made a long argument. Mangsary followed with a plea in his own behalf.

John Burns Speaks in Behalf of the Strikers.

GLASGOW, Jan. 7.—John Burns, the labor agitator, addressed a public meeting at Perth today. He accused the leading Scotch papers of misleading the public in regard to the railroad strike. He said, despite the glowing accounts published, the railroad companies were in a bad way, and if the men would remain firm they would soon have the shareholders as well as the public on their side. He also said he intended to bring about such a deadlock of traffic on the railroads that he would compel the companies to surrender.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Metropolis, Ill., Jan. 7.—In Pope County, Charles Rose, a young farmer, yesterday shot and fatally wounded Miss Mollie Welsh and killed himself. He was madly infatuated with her, and her parents had forbidden him to visit her.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Banker Kean was today held to the grand jury in bonds of $5000 on the criminal charge brought against him by depositor Rogers, charging him with receiving deposits when he knew he was insolvent. Rogers' attorney secured Kean in a successful manner. Bail was promptly furnished.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Two masked men entered the saloon of James Murphy, in the stockyards district, early this morning, and fortune Murphy until he obtained the safe combination, secured $1000 and escaped. Murphy recently fell heir to a large sum of money, which the robbers evidently hoped to find in the safe.

A Wonder Worker.

Mr. Frank Hoffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He commenced to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting.
