DFSERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1906.

One of the prettiest events of the week was the anniversary luncheon of the Reviewers' club on Monday. The affair took place at the home of Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood, the club president, and the guests sat at a long table which was decorated in the club colors, yellow and green, the centerplece being a tall vase of jonguils placed on lace spread over yellow satin, and all about the table were ferns, while green candles with yellow shades and place cards done in the same colors aided in the effctive setting. There were no toasts, but an informal program was given at the table, consisting of a talk by Mrs. C. D. Moore, followed by a reading, and personal recollections of Fioreace by Mrs. Bianchard, while Mrs. C. B. Leigh gave a reading from "Pascarel," and Mrs. J. C. McClain a humorous tak on "The Work of the Critic."

Mrs. Walter Jennings and Miss CelM Sharp extertained the "Auld Lang Syne" club on Wednesday night, a de-lightful musical program being en-foyed, and a chafing dish supper fol-lowing.

On Wednesday Mrs. W. P. O'Meara gave a delightful card party in honor of her aunt, Mrs. P. J. McCornick of San Francisco and Miss Byrd McClain, Fink carnations and ferns byrd McClaud. Fink carnations and ferns were the dec-orations, and the score cards were hand painted fancy heads. Prizes were won by Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton and Mrs. Charles Hoag, and the hostess was as-sisted by Miss Frances O'Meara and Miss Prival Murshy Miss Ethel Murphy.

An extremely pretty luncheon was that given by Mrs. J. C. Cosgriff in honor of Miss Eugenia Miller of Cali-fornia and Miss May Kervin. The table was decorated in violets, the cen-terpiece being a heart of violets with plumosa drawn from this to the four corners, while bunches of violets were the favors, and hand-painted violets the design on the place cards. After-ward an impromptu musical program was enjoyed. Miss Miller singing and Mrs. Edward McGurrin giving selec-tions on the harp. Covers were laid for 19 guests.

Mrs. Percival O. Perkins was hostess at a delightful tea yesterday in honor of her guest. Miss Helen Petre of the Savage Grand Opera company, the rooms being prettily decorated, and a number of friends assisting.

Last night a large hop was given at the post in honor of the artillery, which leaves shortly for Fort Russell.

Mrs. Samuel D. Sturgis was hostess at a tea on Thursday at the fort, previous to her departure to Fort Russell. The to her departure to Fort Russell. The rooms were bright with pink carnations and smilax, and the hostess was assist-ed by a number of intimate friends, among them Mrs. George Jamerson, Mrs. Union Worthington, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. George Jay Gibson, Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay, Mrs. Frank Judge, Mrs. Roscoe Channing, Mrs. Seton Lindsay, Miss Laura Sherman. One of the pretty luncheons of the week was that given by Mrs. M. H. Kervin at the Emery-Holmes, her dec-orations being violets and 14 guests beorations being violets and 14 guests being present.

. . . On Wednesday Messrs. Hemphill and Alta club, given in honor of Miss Ma-bel Baum of Denver and Miss Clairs Soule of California, the party being chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mc-Mahon strain were hosts at a din era company, the others being Mr. and Mrs. C. Stanley Price, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Greene, Miss Mary Olive Gray, Mrs. Kate Bridewell Anderson, and John

Mrs. Howard H. Lawson was hostess at a pretty affair yesterday in honor of Mrs. Royden Beebee and her attendants at the wedding.

One of the delightful events of the week was the party given last night at the University by the Delta Sigma "Frat," the museum building being handsomely decorated with college, class and "Frat" colors, and all de-tails successfully carried out.

An plaborate dinner was given by Mr. George A. Snow on Monday night at the Alta club in honor of visiting friends from Chicago, the gold room being used, and the table artistically decorated with flowers, about 20 guests enjoying the adapt decorated the affair.

Minch contained sympols and finits of their coming fortune. Presiding were Mrs. W. L. Laughlin, the Misses Hazel Mullet, Edith Sparey, Zella Scofield, Trixle Mearns, Lola Rouse, Nora Sheck-el, Albra Sparey, Teresa Meloy, Cilo Woolley, Blanche and Maud Newcomb, Roscoe Erceden was host at a lunch-con on Monday at the Commercial club, given in bonor of Miss Sara Reid Park and Lieut. Beebee. The table was laid in the green room and decorated with pink and white carnations, while the place cards contained toasts for each guest. Present to meet the guest of honor were Miss Mabel Baum, Miss Fred and Lewis Lecuyer, Bernice and Henry Richardson, Will Laughlin, Clare Rivers and Wilbur Price. Mrs. Rena Smoot was hostess at an DINNER GOWN IN MAGPIE COMBINATION.

A charming adaptation of the tight-fitting boned bodice is seen in this Marie Antoinette dinner gown of black chiffon heavily dotted with white embroldered silk spots. The chiffon is shirred into the underarm seam and draped snugly to the center front and back, a high girdle simulated by the three strands of black velvet ribbon, which fasten both back and front with tiny rosettes of Val, lace. The fichu arrangement is brought about by the use of broad insertions of repousse lace ban ded either side by the velvet ribbon, little rosettes of the Val. lace and velvet ribbon set at intervals around the ccremony being performed in the Tem-ple and a wedding supper being served in the evening to their friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jaimes P. Freeze of Murray, and the groom a son of the late Daniel H. Wells.

. . .

Wells. One of the prettiest weddings of the week was that of Miss Laura L. Eld-red on Wednesday; the ceremony be-ing performed during the day in the Temple, and a reception following in the evening at the home of the groom's parents. The bride wore a dainty gown of Japanese silk mull trimmed in rose point lace and carried roses. The rooms were beautifully decorated in carnations and ferns, and a delicious supper was served during the evening. Many beautiful presents were received. About 50 guests enjoyed the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Free have many friends who wish them happiness. They will be at home to their friends after Feb. 10 at their new home on Seventh East street.

street.

OMINGAND S

Mrs. J. Tarvin Harris left this week for Pasadena to Join Col. and Mrs. Holmes and the Misses Holmes. The party expect to tour southern Call-fornia with their automobiles for several weeks.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Miss Mose Kirkpatrick left for New York this week where they will be joined by the Misses Ruth and Mary Kirkpatrick, who have been visiting with friends in Lexington, Ky.

Miss Edith Griffiths has returned from Grand Junction and is the guest of Mrs. Edgert Roberts.

Mrs. George A, Lowe and Mrs. Grant Hampton will leave Feb. 10 for Long Beach.

Mrs. William Burke of American Falls is in the city, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Roscoe Channing, Mrs. Griest of Los Angeles, a sister of Dean James B. Eddie, is the guest of Mrs. Eddie for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McCrystal have gone to Los Angeles.

Mrs, Monroe Wilkinson, accompanied by her small son, left for Mammoth yesterday. Mrs. Wilkinson has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. B. Shoebridge, during her stay in the city.

Mrs. T. R. Ellerbeck, Miss Clare El-lerbeck and W. L. Ellerbeck left for southern California Thursday, where they will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Doyle have gone Mr. and to the coast.

Col, and Mrs. Benjamin C. Lockwood will return from Detroit the first of the week.

Simon Bamberger has gone to New York, where he will remain for a short time, and will accompany Mrs. Bamberger and Miss Helen home.

Miss Helen Wenger is back from a stay of some two ents in Ogden. stay of some two weeks with her par-

Miss Aileen McClean left Wednesday or the east, where she will visit with relatives and friends for a couple of months.

Miss Marie Luce left this week for San Francisco, where she will visit with friends for a month.

Mrs. William P. O'Meara has as her suests Mrs. P. J. McCormick of San Francisco and Miss Byrd McLain.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Hills left for southern California this week, where they will spend some time.

Mr. J. C. Lazier and Miss Lazier of Denver has left for the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Rooklidge ning with Miss-Mariai Beesley and con-ducted an interesting session with read-ings and art work.

The Sixth Ward Sewing club me Thursday evening at the home of Mis Annie Baily, and enjoyed a pleasant and profitable evening.

A happy home wedding was solem-nized Wednesday evening at the hom of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Clyde of the Third ward, when Miss Lucy Irwin of Sait Lake and Mr. Arthur Clyde of this city were united in marriage. Judg-J. E. Booth officiating. Relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom were present and passed a delightful evening. A sumptuous supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde will reside in Provo. in Provo. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Eph Homer entertained a large number of friends in their beau-tiful new home on West Center street Wednesday evening. Cards, music and games were enjoyed and a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Reed Smoot visited relatives in Salt Lake Thursday.

Mrs. O. W. Hyde was the hostess at a dinner with a few int. ante friends as guests, Friday.

The seventeenth birthday anniversary of Miss Hattle Vincent was the occa-sion of a happy gathering of Miss Vin-cent's friends at the home of her par-ents, 74, and Mrs. C. S. Vincent, Thursday evaning. The evening passed in joyons merriment with music, songs, and games, and the discussion of dainty refreshments. refreshments.

Eugene Hardy was given a pleasant surprise party by a number of friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy, Wednesday evening.

A large number of the friends of Miss Ethel Cooper gave a happy surprise party in her honor Wednesday night.

Among the Prove people who attend-ed the opera in Salt Lake this week were Mrs. B. R. Smoot and Mrs. E. D Partridge, Thursday, and Mrs. C. A Glazler and Mrs. Ida S. Dusenberry Friday Friday

. . .

Master Douglas Buckler gave a very enjoyable party today to a number of his young friends, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Buckler.

Lerved.

Miss Erma Snow gave a charming ness bring Show gave a charman party Wednesday attended by a large number of her friends at the home of her parents. Bishop and Mrs. Moroni Snow. The occasion was the fourteenth birthday anniversary of the hostess.

Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry has gone to Denver to visit friends.

Miss Hazel Taylor was a Salt Lake visitor this week.

Mrs. J. C. Armstrong entertained a large number of her lady friends Tues-day and Wednesday at euchrs, and prizes, consisting of elegant potted plants were cut for at each table. After cards each afternoon dainty refresh-ments were served. The home decora-tions consisted of various kinds of flow-ers and evergreens. The Orphean circle gave another of its charming dancing socials at the First ward social hall Friday evening.

The ball given by the Women's Re-publican club Monday evening, in the Mozart pavilion was attended by a large number of guests, and was one of the most enjoyable social events of the season Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Peery left for California Thursday to spend the re-mainder of the winter pleasuring. the season,

. . . walter G. Webb one of Ogden's most popular young business men, and trav-eling salesman for the Ogden Furni-ture and Carpet cocpany, was married Thursday to Miss Minnle Kotter at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A, Kotter at Elsinore, Utah. The bride is a charming and highly es-teemed young lady, Mr. and Mrs. Webb will return to Ogden after a wedding The Woodmen gave an enjoyable so-ciable Monday night, cards, games, music, songs and readings and a boun-teous repast were enjoyed by the mem-bers of the order and a large number of friends.

Mrs. George A. Startup entertained Wednesday evening, the birthday an-niversary of Mr. Startup. A large number of friends gathered at the hos-pitable home and passed an evening of genuine sociability with music, songs and games. A sumptuous supper was

The Odd Fellows gave one of their

LOGAN.

The Weber club parlors were the scene of a brilliant social event Thurs-day afternoon when Mrs. R. S. Joyce and her daughter, Miss Frances Joyce, and her daughter, Miss Frances Joyce, presided at a banquet and card party, which was attended by over 50 guests. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. F. M. Driggs and Mrs. Lewis. After cards a very elegant banquet was served. The decorations were most beautiful, vio-lets being the principal flowers and they were stream around the table and prome were strewn around the table and rooms in profusion. In the center of the table was stood a large bowl filled with the oretty flowers, and hanging from the chandeller were streamers of smilax and violets, and many large pains were placed around the room.

The engagement of Miss Lillian An-readings served.

MATERIAL OF TWO OF MISS ALICE'S GOWNS.

Of the many new gowns which Miss Alice Roosevelt will have in her trousseau there are two designs of the material of which are reproduced here. The small check is one of the modish light silks. Its background is a dull brick red with a small white check. Over the entire ground of the slik is a shimmer of gray. This gives a shaded effect,

In the figured design Miss Roosevelt has chosen one of her dinner gowns. It is a soft white silk profusely ornamented with small three-leaved violets of a "ragged robin" shade. The flowers, are scattered very thickly and are drawn in two shades of blue, a light and a darker coloring. On each of the petals a dash of still darker blue and between the flowers are blue dots. Across the background there is a stripe of canary satin about an inch wide the Weber stake was announced this | trip and will make their home at 2602 week. The marriage will take place Widnesday, Feb. 21, in the Salt Lake Temple. The prospective bride and Lieut. Beebee Lieut. Beebee and his charming bride groom are among Ogden's most popular young people.

. . .

. . .

Walter G. Webb one of Ogden's most spent this week at the Hermitage in Ogden canyon while on their honey-moon. The lieutenant is stationed at Fort Douglas.

Miss Nettle Caldwell, chief operator for the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, spent this week in Salt Lake with friends.

. . .

Mrs. John Cort, wife of the North-western Theatrical association's manager, was the guest of Mrs. R. Alex-ander Grant this week,

Mrs. Frank Grout has invitations out for a reception to be given next Thurs-day at the Virginia hotel.

Mrs. R. Alexander Grant entertains a large number of guests next Wed-nesday afternoon at the Pacific hotel.

bride is a charming and highly es-teemed young lady. Mr. and Mrs. Webb will return to Ogden after a wedding

Miss Mina Houston went to Ameri-Miss Mina Houston went to Ameri-can Fork to visit relatives today. A happy sociable was given at the home of Miss Nelle Burles Thursday evening. A large number of the young lady's friends were the guests, and spent a delightful evening with music, songs and games. Refreshments were tervad

The rooms were effectively decorated in yellow and white, carnations and jonguils being the flowers. Mrs. S. L. Butler assisted the bostess.

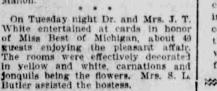

Mrs. Wallace Bransford entertained her card club on Tuesday at bridge and afterward at luncheon at the Emery Holmes.

Mrs. Ira Hudson Lewis gave a card party yesterday, the affair being infor-mal but delightful.

few friends of Mr. and Mrs. John J Riley took possession of their home Thursday evening, completely surpris-ing them. The evening was pleasantly spent at cards, music and songs. Refreshments were also enjoyed.

One of the most promising social af-fairs of February will be the junior promenade to be given by the '97 class of the U. of U.

About 40 guests enjoyed the dancing about to gueste enloyed the dancing party given by Mrs. Samuel Newhouse on Thursday night in honor of Miss Leila Stingley and Miss Helen Moore. The rooms were handsomely decorated and a delightful time spent.

informal dinner on Thursday, the table being decorated in American Beauty roses, and covers being laid for six.

> Mrs, Robert Jessup and the Misses Jessup were hostesses at an afternoon affair on Thursday. an informa

Lieut, and Mrs. Beebe were guests of honor at a delightful evening party at the post on Thursday night given by Capt. and Mrs. Peery.

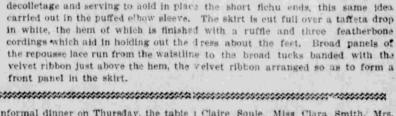

On Wednesday Lleut. Rifenberik entertained in honor of Lieut, and Mrs. Beebee, the function being a dinner given at the Alta club, followed by a theater party. The table was effective-ly decorated and the other guests were Mrs. C. H. McMahon, Miss Mrs. C. H. McMahon, Miss Mabel Baum, Miss Clara Smith, Miss Claire Soule of Los An geles, Lleut. Galleher, Robert Park and Hugh Park.

Following the performance of 'Faust' last night Mrs. La Forgee and Miss Blanch Newcomb was hostess at one of the most enjoyable affairs of and Bennett of the Savage Grand Op-

AT

OGDEN, UTAH.

2338 Washington Ave.

Claire Soule, Miss Clara Smith, Mrs. M. A. Breeden, Mrs. C. H. McMahon, Mrs. H. R. Perry of Fort Douglay Lieut, R. P. Rifenberick, Lieut, P. C. Calleber, Babar, B. Missi, M. M. S. M. S.

Galleher, Robert Park and Hugh Park. Miss Louise Wey entertained informally at her home on Monday, the amusement being "500," and about 24 friends being present. Prizes were won by Mrs. C. C. Crismon, Mrs. Thomas Wise and Mrs. David DeBouzek.

Among the delightful luncheons of the week was that given yesterday by Miss Mary Olive Gray in honor of Miss Gert-rude Rennyson of the Savage Grand Opera company. The table was laid in the green room, and decorated with pink carnations, ferns and smilax, the centernice being a hurs star formed centerpiece being a huge star formed of the flowers and greens. Eight guests were bidden to meet Miss Rennyson. . . .

Mrs. C. I. Douglas entertained infor-mally at her home yesterday afternoon.

The event of the week was the wed-ding of Miss Sara Reid Park and Lieut ding of Miss Sara Reid Park and Lieat. Royden Beebe which took place at St. Paul's church on Tuesday night with Rev. C. E. Perkins officiating. The church was bright with flags, guidons and military devices, while flowers and vines festooning altar and chandelier, gave a pretty bower effect to the whole. The brids and her attendants were ra-diant in datary gowies of while and diant in dainty gowns of white and green, the bride's being of white satin with triumnings of Irish point lace, and the maids in colors, while the greom, his best man and four ushers were in ill military costumes, which, with the autiful tollets of the rest of the brida party aided in the brilliant effect. Soft strains of music from the Fort orches-tra lent charm to the service and the affair in every way was delightful, the church ceremony being followed by a church ceramony being followed by a wedding supper at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fark, for the bridal party, and one or two intimate friends, among them Mr. and Mrs. MoMahon and Miss Emily Clowes. Lieut and Mrs. Beebe went at once to their home at the Post, where they will be at home at No. 16.

Another quist wedding of Tuesday and that of Miss Maud McEvoy and Albert Thomas, the ceremony heins performed at the home of the bride by Bishop Charles Margetts, only the in timate friends and relatives being pres ent. Afterward an informal reception was held, the rooms being prettily de-corated and refreshments being served, Mr, and Mrs. Margetts will be at home after Feb. 15 at 259 north Second West street. . . .

Miss Maude Freeze and Mr. Gershom Wells were married on Thursday, the The Pallas club met Thursday eve-have taken the Wood home and will shortly be at home at 659 east Third South street. . . .

popular sociables Tuesday evening, at-tended by members and a number of invited guests. The evening was spent Mrs. C. P. Mason and her daughters expect to leave to join Mr. Mason in Los Angeles, where he has gone into In unrestrained merriment. A fine im-promptu program of songs, readings and music was given, and cards and rebusiness and where they will make their freshments were enjoyed.

Mrs. D. C. Jackling left for the coast Thursday evening.

A large number of the friends of Mrs. Joseph Nelson of the Sixth ward, gave a surprise party in her honor Friday evening. A most enjoyable evening was passed with music, songs, reads Mrs. W. V. Lyons left on Sunday for the coast, to be away several weeks. and games. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bray and Miss Bray left Thursday for southern Call-Mrs. D. J. VIncent entertained a number of friends Tuesday afternoon at a charming sociable. . . .

fornia.

and.

Mrs. E. B. Shoebridge will leave on the 10th of this month for Los An-reles to visit with her daughters, Mrs. A. Sheets and Mrs. W. H. O'Brien, fo: several weeks. Miss Florence Sutton of this city and Dr. C. W. Douglas of Los Angeles were married Saturday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emma Sutton, by Rev. S. H. Goodwin. Relatives and in-timate friends only of the happy couple were present. Dr. and Mrs. Douglas left in the afternoon for Los Angeles, where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Ferry and their children will leave shortly for California to spend a part of the spring.

The Modern Woodmen entertained a Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Kelsey and number of friends Thursday night. Cards and an interesting impromptu musical and literary program were enhildren will leave shortly for Portoyed. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Olive Gaylord left on Thursday for southern California, to be away two months

Mrs. Harry McInnes is back from a stay of a few weeks in Los Angeles.

Miss Minnie I. Bramer of Denver in the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. I. Good win, for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wood will be at home shortly at 274 east Second be at home sh South street. . . .

Mrs. Grant Smith will leave tomorrow for Los Angeles.

Miss Agatha Berkhoel has returned from a stay of six weeks in Chicago and New York.

Mrs. Emma Mooney left Thursday for an extended tour through Texas.

Dr. Chapin says, "Fresh cow's milk should be the basis of an infant's food." Mellin's Food is always to be used with fresh milk as a basis, -- that is why Mellin's Food gives such good results. Send for our free book of 'Mellin's Food Babies."

The ONLY Infants' Food receiving the GRAND PRIZE at St. Louis, 1904. Gold Medal, Highest Award, Portland, Ore. 1905.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

$2.75, $3.50, $4.45, $5.00 and up to $12.50

YOUR NEW SPRING SUIT! Have you thought of it, come Monday and see the new a rivals, portraying the latest spring styles. The modes are authoritative and embrace the natty short, chic Pony and Eton models, prices range from-

$12.50 to $45.00

Monday the Greatest Showing and Sale of The New White Goods! Ever Brought Here For Distribution.

Newest and Best for 1906, now here and women who are willing to take time by the forelock and lay in their supply now-can effect some remarkable savings. To induce early buying we have marked these goods at much less than they will be sold for later on. Buy while you can at these prices.

30 pieces IMPORTED WHITE DIMITIES finer and more sheer than the American Goods-all size checks and stripes-especially adapted for Infants' wear, Children's Aprons and Dresses-19c that'll sell later on at 25c to 30c on Sale Monday at 50 Boxes fine soft English Nainsook, full yard wide 2.48-12 yds. in a Box, regular price $3.60. Monday, LOGAN, UTAH 125 N. Main st.

MT. PLEASANT, UTAH Main st.

SALT LAKE CITY

UTAH

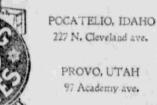

43 S. Main st.

IDAHO FALLS, IDAHO

Look for the Singer Sign when in need of a Sewing Machine or Supplies. Needles for all makes of Sewing Machines

IN UTAH and IDAHO

Sewing Machines Rented or Exchanged

tores

PROVO. The Nineteenth Century club met Fri-day with Mrs. W. B. Searle and en-joyed an interesting address on art and manual training by Prof. E. H. Eastmond of the Brigham Young university.

. . . The Sorosis met Wednesday with Mrs. Samuel A. King, The club was favore 1 with a visit from a representative of the Nineteenth Century club, Mrs. J. W. Aird, who presented an Interesting pa-per on "Shakespeare and Milton," after which a social session was held. De-licious refrashments were served.

licious refreshments were served.

The Priscilla club met Thursday eve-ning with Miss Virgle Chipman, and enjoyed a charming session, devoted to art matters and social topics. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Bonnie Brier club met Friday evening with Miss Zulu Houtz, in an enloyable social session.