PIONEER WOMAN CALLED HOME

Mrs. Julia Ives Pack, One of the Early Day Settlers of Utah and A Lifelong Resident of Salt Lake, Dies at the Home of Her Son in Kamas—Funeral on Thursday.

Mrs. Julia Ives Pack, relict of John Pack, one of the original Pioneer band and herself a member of the first company which arrived here in 1848, died at 6 o'clock this morning at the home of her son, Merritt N. Pack of Kamas, at the ripe age of 56 years. The deceased had been ailing but a short time and her death was quite unexpected and will come as a shock to her many friends in Salt Lake where she resided from her arrival in the valley until three years ago, when she moved to Kamas to spend her remaining years with her children.

Mrs. Pack was a veteran in Church circles and went through all the early day persecutions with that fortitude and devotion to principle which characterized the Saints generally at that time. She was a lifelong member of the Seventeenth ward, where she took an active part in the work of the Relief society, being first counselor to President Bathsheba W. Smith for many years. In many other respects she exhibited a faithfulness to duty which marked her as a true and faithful Latter-day Saint. For years she kept the Mansion House at Nauvoo, and during the persecutions in Missouri her husband was seized by a mob who took him off ostensibly for the purpose of killing him, telling his wife at the time to bid him good-bye for she would never see him again. However, their plans failed and Mr. Pack was permitted to return home unhurt. He died in this city April 4, 1885. Mrs. Pack leaves six sons, two daughters and a host of grand and great grandchildren to mourn her demise.

The remains will be brought to this city and interred in the city cemetery beside her husband and children when they have passed away. The funeral service will be held from the Seventeenth ward meetinghouse Thursday, June 25, at 2 p. m. Friends are invited to attend.

PIE FOR BREAKFAST.

None of the Portland house supplies pie for breakfast unless a special order is given, and even then I think there might be a strike in the kitchen before the goods were delivered. The only hotel in the city that I know of that runs on this truly liberal plan is the Robinson House, in the town of Bucksport, the home of the speaker of the present Maine house; though the Hotel Brunswick, in Bangor, has also so recently called to account by Sheriff Gilman of Penobscot county, whose strong hold is baked beans, and who grew jealous of the popularity of the palm room of this famous establishment. Once when I went into the Robinson house for dinner, in the course of a drive to follow up a party of politicians then touring the eastern counties, Clara, the table girl, said:

"Yes, sir, we have breakfast ready, including pie, steak, custard pie, potatoes, apple pie, coffee, squash pie, fritters, pumpkin pie, graham rolls, lemon pie and new milk."

"No," said Clara, "we usually have mince, prune, cream and jelly, but this is the slack season, and we have got when an something, you see," Portland, Me., Advertiser.

BOY WAS PROUD.

One of the members of the colored brotherhood:

"The lieutenant-colonel and major of the Ohio regiment had each a 'contraband' negro as servant. 'Jim' belonged to the major. One day the lieutenant-colonel, bearing a disturbance in the rear of his tent, went out and found the two engaged in the amiable occupation of throwing kitchen utensils, each against the head of the other. The lieutenant-colonel demanded an explanation of the row. 'Jim' replied in justification, as follows:

"Dat boy Harbe am de ungrateful-est nigger I ever saw. I fetched him up ter de major, an' introduced him ter de major, an' got him er good place wid der major, an' now he's puttin' on more de nigger de nigger's wats de matter, sah!"—Washington Star.
