EDITORIAL NOTES.
 A sweeping Order from the Commissioners which we publish, cuts both ways and shuts out many persons from voting who are not now in polygamy.
 The Northern Pacific Company has 6,000 men and 1,600 horses employed in construction work west of the Missouri.
 The question of arming the German coast works is being discussed since the bombardment of Alexandria. The heaviest Krupp guns will be used at the most important points.
 "Impitator," in another column, furnishes some facts and figures in reference to the representation of the different classes in Utah by the registrars of election which carry their own lesson with them.
 Ireland, with an area of several thousand square miles larger than Ireland, and having a population of seven and a half millions, is threatened with famine. In the middle of the eighteenth century, hunger destroyed eighteen thousand of the population, which was then about one-third, and half of the sheep, in one year.
 The bishop of Lincoln (Church of England) authorizes the statement that the report that he has violently denounced the temperance pledge as a deadly, blasphemous evil is "merely another revival of a mixture of lies and garbled truth." Something like the mass of stuff that anti-Mormons mix up and quote as the utterances of "Mormon" Apostles. But it depends a good deal up in whose ox is gored, doesn't it, Bishop Lincoln?
 Excuses for Sunday desecration were expounded by a Syrian convert to Christianity, who was urged by his employer to work on Sunday, but he declined. "But," said the master, "does not your Bible say that, if a man has an ox or an ass that falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, he may pull him out?" "Yes," answered the convert; "but if the ass has a habit of falling into the same pit on every Sabbath day, then the man should either fill up the pit or sell the ass." An unforeseen consequence of cutting the Suez Canal has been the intrusion of sharks in large numbers into the Mediterranean Sea, with terrible resulting havoc among the smaller edible fish. Formerly a shark was almost a curiosity in the Mediterranean, and there was no choice or better stocked fishing ground in the world. The fishermen of the Province coast supplied the cities of France with the best plebeian food, and in never-failing abundance; but they now have difficulty in furnishing half the quantity that they then obtained with ease.
 The London Miller has been investigating the condition of the English wheat crop. Its replies, summarized, indicate that in 10 localities the yield will be above the average, in 109 an average, and in 55 below an average. The proportion of territory covered by the results is not stated, however. The Miller's advice from Russia is that a good average harvest will be secured. Germany has been discouraged by bad weather, and Holland and Belgium are buyers at present rates for consumption.
 Harvesting weather throughout France is said by the Paris Bourse of August 7 to have been favorable to that date. Late storms had resulted in no damage. The southern and eastern regions, which contribute about 40,000,000 hectolitres of grain, will probably yield more than an average crop of excellent quality.
 The western and northern regions, which average 60,000,000 hectolitres, have suffered some from the rain, but with fair weather during the month may be relied on for the quantity mentioned. In quality it will not rank so high.
 Orange peel as an article of commerce has received extended notice in the Commercial Bulletin. In Europe it is related that orange rinds are gathered and sold to manufacturers of marmalade. New York, it is said, is doing a steadily increasing import business in orange peel, home scavengers not having succeeded in gathering sufficient refuse rinds from our own gutters and elsewhere to meet the demand.
 The gathering in that city last for the purpose of making marmalade, but is made the base of medical preparations, tonics and orange bitter.
 If dairy people want good butter they must keep the milk in cool, clean, sweet vessels and free from taint and unpleasant odors. The London Milk Journal cites instances where milk that has stood a short time in the presence of persons sick with typhoid fever, or been handled by parties before fully recovered from the smallpox, spread their disease as effectively as if the persons themselves had been present.
 Sometimes, measles and other contagious diseases have been spread in the same way. The peculiar smell of a cellar is indelibly impressed upon all the butter made from the milk standing in it. A few puffs from a pipe or cigar will scent all the milk in the room, and a smoking lamp will soon do the same. A pall of milk standing ten minutes where it will take the scent of a strong smelling stable, or any other offensive odor, will imbibe a taint that will never leave it.

SOUDAN-ULEMA-EL JEHAD.

The new Mohammedan prophet seems to have been very successful in the Sudan, where he numbers a great many followers. Frequent reference is made to this region in the news that comes from the seat of war, and perhaps our readers do not all know where it is or much about it in any respect.
 Sudan is a vast extent of country lying between the equator on the south and the Desert of Sahara on the north, and stretching across Central Africa almost from sea to sea; it reaches from Senegal to Es-sene-gambia and covers an area of about one million square miles. That portion of the Sudan belonging to Egypt commences at a point north of where the Nile makes its first bend towards the west, extends south to the great lakes, and from Abyssinia westward to and including Darfur and the provinces of Bar el Gassal.
 The Egyptian Sudan was conquered piecemeal, and though immensely larger than Egypt was made to contribute to its finances by oppressive taxation, which was extended to everything owned or produced by the unfortunate inhabitants. And the system has been badly managed that corrupt officials have, in many instances, collected the taxes two or three times in the season during the same year.
 Agents have obtained contracts from the collectors by which they are still further imposed upon the laboring people and enriched themselves, but not at official expense.
 Many attempts were made to resist this oppression, but until Mohammed Ahmed, or El Mehdí, the Meeslah, made his appearance as the promised deliverer, no effort to throw off the Egyptian yoke was successful. This leader, however, combining the elements of a spiritual guide and a secular commander, has been able to overcome all who have been sent against him, and for the present at least the Sudan is practically lost to Egypt.
 In connection with Egyptian affairs the word Ulema is frequently used, and everybody is not acquainted with its meaning. We will therefore, while touching on matters relating to Egypt, give a brief explanation of this term. It is the name of a body of learned men in Turkey, whose duty is to apply the teachings of the Koran to law and questions of public policy. They give the official interpretation to that sacred book, and are authorities in both secular law and Mohammedan theology. The word Ulema is Arabic and is the plural of "Alim," a learned man. The Grand Mufti is the head of the body called Ulema, he is the Sheikh-ul-Islam; next in rank are the Kadis; next the Mol-las, who are the superior judges of the provinces; and then come the Cadis and common Muftis. The headquarters and official residence of the Ulema are at the Turkish capital.
 El Jehad is still another term that needs to be understood by those who follow the course of events in relation to Egypt and eastern complications. It signifies "a holy war" to be waged by Mohammedans against Christians or "infidels," as the latter are called by the disciples of the Arabian prophet. It was inaugurated by Mahomet to establish among his followers "a common religious feeling," and unite those tribes which had been divided by antagonistic interests and customs, and who had been engaged in fierce, though petty, strife. By stirring them up to meet a common foe he put an end to their internal divisions, and made them one in spirit and in action.
 Haroun Al Raschid, who flourished in the latter part of the eighth century, was the first of the Califas to revive the Jehad on a large scale.
 It was again prosecuted at the time of the crusades, when it was formally declared for the purpose of resisting the "Christian" movement to capture the Holy Land. Since that time El Jehad has not been resorted to except to a limited degree. The Sultan of Turkey threatened to raise the green flag in 1877, during the war with Russia, but the threat was not carried into execution.
 El Jehad will not be declared during the present disturbances unless the Sultan should be rejected as the spiritual head of the Mohammedans and his position be claimed by El Mehdí or some other pretender, in which event the Caliph of Arabia's cause by the new Caliph would probably be followed by the proclamation of El Jehad and a general union of fanatical Mohammedans would take place, to drive the "infidels" from the land of the Pharo-nians.
PRAYER FOR THE ENGLISH TROOPS IN EGYPT.
 The following circular has been addressed to the English clergy.
 Ready made prayers as well as ready made sermons are the fashion in the Established Church, whose dignitaries seem to think that duty can be properly approached only by forms and in language which they design and formulate.
 "The Archbishop of Canterbury desires to commend to the clergy of his diocese the use of the following prayer for the soldiers and sailors engaged in the war in Egypt:
 "O, Almighty God, whose power no creature is able to resist, keep Thy chosen ones, our soldiers and sailors who have now gone forth to war, that they being armed with Thy defence, may be preserved evermore from all perils to glorify Thee, who art the only giver of all victory.
 Through the merits of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen." We presume that while the European military appraisal to the Almighty for the success of their arms against the Moslem's under Arabi, the latter will at the same time offer their prayers to Allah for the destruction and overthrow of the Christians led by Wolsey. If both petitions are granted there will be a pretty lively scene of carnage in the hand of the Pharaohs.
REGISTRATION.
 ORDER OF THE COMMISSIONERS.
 WM. A. C. ERYAN, Registration Officer for the County of Juab, having submitted to this Commission

THE FOLLOWING QUESTION FOR OUR DECISION:

"If, in any case, a man has violated the laws of the United States, prohibiting bigamy or Polygamy, and is not at the time he may apply to be registered as a voter, actually living with two or more wives, should he, or should he not, be deemed a legal applicant for registration."
 The Commission after due consideration make the following order: That any person, male or female, who, in violation of the Act of Congress, approved July 1st, 1892, (sec.
 8552, Revised Statutes, United States), or who, in violation of Section 3 of the Act of Congress, approved March 22, 1882, entitled "An act to amend section 5352 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in reference to bigamy, and for other purposes," has entered into any of the relationships described in Section 3 of said last named Act, is not a legal voter, and cannot be registered.
 And the Secretary of this Commission is directed to communicate this order to Mr. Eryan; and all other Registration Officers will take due notice of this order.
 Note.—The following is section 3 of said Act:
 "That no polygamist, bigamist, or any person cohabiting with more than one woman, and no woman cohabiting with more than one man, shall be eligible to vote at any election held in any such Territory or other place over which the United States have exclusive jurisdiction, shall be entitled to vote at any election held in any such Territory or other place, or to be appointed to hold any office or place of public trust, honor or emolument in, under, or for any such Territory or place, or under the United States." in the State and was only recently
