LOCAL BRIEFS.

Fast-day tomorrow.

Wednesday, August 9th, is Cambridge day at Saltair.

All who attend the prayer meeting in the Temple on Sunday should observe the fast.

About $130 was paid to the janitors and other employes by Clerk Monson of the school board today.

Twenty-nine marriage licenses were issued by Clerk Dunbar during the week. This is the biggest one on the office ice mark.

A case of scarlet fever broke out in the home of Timothy Antoine Quinn yesterday, the victim being his young daughter. There is a report to the effect that the dreaded disease had invaded the home of Congressman Roberts of Centerville.

The funeral services over the remains of Annie L. Wooley Spence will be held at the residence of E. M. Wooley, No. 32 east Seventh South temple, tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. The remains can be viewed from 1 until 2 p. m.

The "News" Washington correspondent writes in answer to a question that there are to be no rules requiring Monday drills on military grounds. It is left to the commanders of the regiments to decide whether the soldiers are allowed to play base ball or anything else on Sunday.

"Christian Science" is the subject that will be handled by Judge W. G. Ewing of Chicago tomorrow evening in the Salt Lake Theater. The services will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and the public is invited to attend. Mr. Ewing is an active member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship of the Christian Science church.

We trust the friends of the "News" are following the oft changing figures given at the head of this column, showing the increase in the circulation of the Semi-Weekly News. They are changed with every issue of that paper. Tuesday and Friday of each week is a very interesting period of the week for watching the growth of the paper.

Hatton William A. Bringhurst of Tooele, who was a member of the legislature of Beaver from the south this morning, brought with him news from Antelope Island in Utah Lake. He reported to his town this year. Tooele will have a big crop of fine this season, though in the meantime the crop is light, owing to the frost.

Secretary Sears of the State Fair received a letter of inquiry today from a man in Colorado who desires to lease space for the privilege of exhibiting embroidery machinery at the fair. For an exhibit of this character the lessee outside of the State fair has been given a similar privilege, but the policy was not to be followed this year. The space will be leased for this year until the fair begins, though the rate may be lowered, owing to the crop in light, owing to the frost.

Second Rockwood of Sugar House, eighth ward, and Miss Ida Stevens of Mill Creek, the second Rockwood of Mill Creek, who was nominated for justice of the peace, were quite busy at "knock-out" by J. Bentley. The last named was was a winner of the Salt Lake City and Mill Creek ward election with Thomas Thomas, who is nominated for clerk. Mr. Rockwood is a man of a decided "knock" and Judge Bentley is those who like it.

The "News" is pleased to state that the great Mormon life insurance company of New York has entered a contract for advertising in the columns of the daily and semi-weekly issues. The point of interest is that this company, which is the only one in the world, and which is the largest life insurance company in the world, has selected the Deseret News as the medium through which to reach the people of the Pacific coast. The company will be represented by the Chicago Tribune, the organ of the city and a prime mover, may well be both in the Pacific Congressional District and in the Pacific Congressional District.

A very pretty and attractive electric light display for the open of the Salt Palace has been devised by Architect Kenyon. It consists of two lines of electric lights, each angle with each other on the outer stairways.

Prof. Fairchild, who for some months past has been employed in the Deaf Mute institute, yesterday afternoon and tender to with interest. While a representative horse and carriage, accompanied by a gentleman and lady, was passing the Deaf Mute institute, the horse ran out of the shafts, throwing the occupants to the sidewalk. A time and the sidewalk will release the act board.

State Dairy and Food Inspector H. J. Ferrel is in Salt Lake for a few days. He is after the many grocers from that have a penchant for labeling the Cincinnati product "pure lard." In some quarters a convalescence of some years to be offered the public. Perhaps the Inspector will find a few Utah dealers who have been doing the same thing.
