DISTRICT COURT, ETC.

Three Divorce Suits Before Judge Bartch This Morning.

A LONG LIST OF SHORT ORDERS.

One Criminal Charge Withdrawn—Will Murderer Enoch Davis—Miscellaneous Paragraphs.

Judge Bartch ground away at a number of cases in his division of the Third district court for an hour and a half this morning, the entire list appearing below. Nothing of any special importance came up, but three divorces were under notice. During the absence of Chief Justice Merritt his Honor will continue to run the district court alone.

FROM WALES TO AMERICA.

Jenkyn Thomas Jr., a native of Wales—as the name indicates—now residing in Salt Lake county, was admitted to citizenship. John Farrington and D. C. Dunnar were his sponsors.

GENERAL ORDERS.

In the case of Francis Frisch vs J. Strom et al., a stay of execution was granted by consent, till the final determination of the motion for a new trial.

Hannah S. Bowlby vs Thos Pullen et al. Title case was dismissed without prejudice.

W. S. McCornick vs M. L. Vivian. (Attachment suit.) Also dismissed without prejudice.

In the case of Matilda M. M. Busby vs Isaac Hudson—concerning which a good deal has been lately heard—leave was given to amend complaint by striking out the name of John M. Cannon, one of the attorneys, wherever it may appear.

George H. McCrae vs Alice M. Patterson et al. Decree of foreclosure and attorney's fee at 10 per cent allowed.

L. A. Scott Isbell vs George C. Willmore et al. Referred to Judge Merritt. It is a motion to retax costs and for settlement of statement.

Phœnix B. Hamilton vs Lu C. Kennedy et al. Default and decree in foreclosure; $150 attorney's fee allowed.

W. S. McCormick vs Mary A. Vivian et al. Default and decree of foreclosure; attorney's fee of $150 allowed.

In the divorce suit of Clara Hutchinson vs William Hutchinson the order to show cause was set for hearing on August 14th.

DIVORCE NO. 1.

Nellie Harmon vs Clarence Harmon. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney W. H. Dickson, the defendant allowed the case to go by default.

The parties intermarried on January 8th, 1890, at Omaha, Neb., and the allegation was that the defendant for a very long period, though an able-bodied man, has failed and refused to provide the wife with the common necessaries of life. For more than three years past Mrs. Harmon has been a resident of this county, and she is wholly dependent upon her own labor for a livelihood.

The court granted the decree as prayed.

THE GOODLUCKS CASE.

The divorce suit of Johanna Goodluck vs N. J. Goodluck was next on call for the hearing of testimony. The plaintiff's attorney was J. R. Moyle. The substance of the complaint in the case was given in the News upon the filing of the suit on June 29th. The ground was desertion and failure to provide, a Title case went by default.

The parties intermarried at Copenhagen, Denmark, in February, 1888, and there is one child now living, Joan A., aged about seven years. For more than a year past the defendant has not contributed anything towards his wife's support, and plaintiff stated that she is in indigent circumstances and has been in delicate health for two years past. For nearly eighteen years she has had a small store, from the receipts of which she has continually saved large sums of money, all of which, she says, her husband had induced her to turn over to him under various pretexts and promises. From her earnings, she further stated, she gave him $700 at one time, to erect a house; that in January, 1893, she had deposited with the Utah Title & Insurance company about $600 in her own name, which the defendant by false representations procured from the bank without her consent, and used it in his own business. While plaintiff was seriously ill on one occasion he and his agents and attorneys so "threatened" her to join him in a mortgage on their home that she was finally induced to yield, but under the pretext that her husband would secure a more desirable residence. He had since, however, refused to provide her with a home, leaving her to pay interest on the mortgage of $25 per month.

Attorney Moyle informed the court that Mr. Grossbaum was the president of the Scandinavian Mercantile company in this city. That concern, nearly all the stock of which was owned by him, had recently assigned.

After hearing the evidence of the plaintiff and a Mrs. Haines, Judge Bartch granted the decree, allowed $50 per month alimony and $100 attorney's fee.

WILL COME UP AGAIN.

The divorce suit of Amanda Anderson vs Andrew P. Anderson was called on, but nothing was done in the matter, the case being continued to give plaintiff's attorney an opportunity to produce authorities.

PROSECUTION WITHDRAWN.

A young German named H. Carr was arrested last evening on a charge of obtaining the sum of $15 by false pretenses, the complaining witness being Charles P. Brown. Fred Simon went the defendant's bond, which was fixed at $100, and the case was set for hearing. This morning, however, the charge was withdrawn, having been amicably settled between the parties.

It seems that Carr recently came from Gateway, represented to Mr. Brown, whose acquaintance he had made, that he belonged to the German army, was here on a furlough and would receive a remittance from home, as compensation from the army authorities, in a few days. On this pretense, which was claimed to be false, he obtained from Brown the amount above named.

WILL ANSWER MONDAY.

Sheriff McQueen late last night arrested George A. Kock and M. G. Lower on a charge of larceny. The complainants are Colonel Henry Page and Attorney George Westervelt. The case will be heard on Monday next at 2 p.m. in Commissioner Norrell's court.

NO PROBATE COURT TODAY.

There was not a single case for hearing in the Probate court today, as Judge Rolapp took a few hours off and the office of Clerk Mary Ann Allen all the lighter.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The weekly meeting of the County court will be held on Monday next.

Two of the lady clerks in the office of Clerk Dunbar of the Third District court, Misses Sprague and Weis, are away for a short but well-earned holiday.

Judge Bartch expects to have a minimal vacation upon the return of Chief Justice Merritt from his summer outing. His Honor does not think of taking more than two or three days "off," despite the hard work he has been doing incessantly during the present year, appertaining to the supreme and district courts.

Judge Miner is down from Ogden today and this morning was among the spectators in Judge Bartch's branch of the Third district court.

WIFE SUBMERGED DAVIS.

Mr. Ad. Anderson, the well-known photographer of Provo, is in the city today. It was he who "took" the photograph of Enoch Davis, the Vernal wife murderer, within a few minutes of the passing of the death sentence by Judge Smith. Mr. Anderson has brought with him a number of copies of Davis's picture. It is highly finished and a splendid likeness of the man, and the photographer has already received a large number of orders from persons interested in the case. In the event of the sentence being carried into effect, it is Mr. Anderson's intention to try and secure a second photograph of the murderer, immediately before his execution.

Educational News Notes.

Prof. W. H. Chamberlin, of the Lehi-Gray Saints' College, has been spending a few weeks with his family at Wasatch. Prof. Nelson and family are still there.

The trustees of the Salt Lake Academy have decided to discontinue that school. It is learned that action has been taken by the trustees to establish a school in the place of the academy, in the same building.

Mrs. Williams, janitress of the Hyrum school, has succeeded in getting a very creditable lawn started in front of that building.

Prof. Whiting is here about from home on a honeying trip to Sevier county.

Quite a number of the city teachers are spending a few weeks at Brighton's. Prof. Cummings expects to spend a short time at Wasatch this month.

Prof. Stewart leaves on Monday for Brigham City, where he will conduct the Box Elder county official institute. Prof. Whiting has also been engaged as a lecturer.

Dr. B. A. Hinsdale yesterday closed his two weeks' engagement with the management of the Provo summer school.

Proprietor of an Idaho Paper.

The information reached Salt Lake today that Howard W. Cherry, a former Salt Lake boy and son of Judge Cherry, of this city, has become the proprietor of the Fremont county (Idaho) News. The paper is a weekly publication and Democratic to tone.

Gold and Silver for 1893.

The official report of the director of the mint to Secretary Carlisle, for 1893, is now out, and gives some interesting figures on the gold and silver production of the country. The total product of gold in the United States for 1893 is $35,323,000, as against $33,018,681 in 1892, and better than any year since 1884. The gain of $2,304,319 over the previous year is $2,304,319. California leads the list of gold producers with a credit of $12,000,000, which is $50,000 more than 1892. Colorado comes next with $7,825,000, as compared with $8,300,000 the preceding year. This is a gain of $2,225,000 over 1892—by far the largest increase shown by any state. The increases then go on to the following extent: Montana $99,311, North Dakota $99,400, Oregon $98,570, and Utah $19,420—thus placing the Territory sixth on the list of those who have accomplished most gold production during the past year. Nevada comes next with an increase of $11,200, then Alaska, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee, with a combined excess over 1892 of $97,000. Among the places where there is a decrease in the gold mines are Nevada with the loss of $312,000, Utah $74,101, New Mexico $66,000 and Michigan. New Mexico and North Carolina, where rare but big nuggets increase in $68,700.

In 1892, silver in the United States reached the highest point of production ever known, the total figuring up to 64,000,000 fine ounces. In 1893 there was a decrease of 5,000,000 ounces, the total product being 59,000,000 ounces. Nine states and territories show a decrease and nine an increase. The aggregate decrease is 1,800,000 ounces, and the largest 2,400,000 ounces. The heaviest decrease is in Montana, which reported 2,152,400 ounces less than in 1892. Nevada fell back 600,000, Colorado 192,000, New Mexico 115,000, and Utah 104,000 ounces.

Natural History Society.

At the close of the University summer school the members of the classes in zoology and botany decided to organize a Natural History Society, as it was felt that more time was needed to consider the matter than could then be given; a committee was appointed to take the matter under consideration and to report plans for a permanent organization during the time of the Territorial exposition. The object of the society will be to carefully study and report on the Natural History of Utah. The committee appointed consists of C. A. Whiting, J. L. Talmage, W. H. Chamberlin, Lewis A. Strong, H. S. Mendenhall, William Stratford, Nora Dennison. All persons interested in this movement will please communicate with this committee.

REPUBLICANS AT THE LAKE.

Big Attendance from the North and South.—Speeches and Music.

The indications are that the excursion of the Washington's Republican club to Saltair today will be a large one. Certainly it is most enthusiastic.

During the forenoon gentlemanly delegations came to town from Utah and Weber counties and the noon and 2 o'clock trains to the beach carried several hundred people each.

A telephone message was received from Saltair at four o'clock, stating that there were nearly two thousand people at the Lake at that hour and that the later trains were expected to bring good loads in, so that the success of the affair was fully assured. The splendid program of elegant speeches and fine music was listened to with rapt attention and at frequent intervals was interrupted with resounding applause.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

A Couple of Accidents—Hogs on the Rampage—Sugar Beet Facts.

According to the Lehi Banner the sugar factory chimney, Mr. Valentine commenced testing the ventilation of the cones on Monday last. He is said to be very much delighted over the test. The per cent of carbonate is much better than it was last year at this season. He says in some districts the beets are two weeks earlier than last year.

While driving some cattle about two miles south of Chester, says the Moroni Pioneer Pyramid, William Allred was quite severely injured. He was riding a young horse, which fell down, throwing him. It seems he came up on top, striking the side on right side, seriously affecting the boy's liver. He was reported a case here on the road producing partial concussion of the brain.

A little seven-year-old girl of Mrs. Baumgreen was standing on the fence picking berries, writes the Mount Pleasant Pyramid, when she stepped and fell breaking her left arm just above the elbow joint, also dislocating lower articulations of the radius and ulna. This is a very serious accident to the young lady.

It is reported that there are about 150 hogs running in Six Mile canyon above the town of Sterling, says the Manti Messenger. It was seen they were to cross the stream within seven miles of the town the said to would be arrested for befouling the water. But 400 hogs do no damage to the stream, and do not befoul the water according to sterling officers of the peace. The Messenger infers that possibly it is lower cavity fever, especially among the anti-exemption of Sterling.

Land Office.

Filings in the land land office on 3rd date of August 11 were as follows:

John A. Merrill, homestead entry of the west half of the southeast quarter, and the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 31, and the southwest quarter of section 32, township 1 south, range 1 west.

Robert C. Chambers, final proof of the Obsidian lode mining claim, 5,179 acres, in the Blue Lodge mining district, Weber county.

George Dixon, coal claim declaratory for the south half of the northwest quarter, the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter, and the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 18, township 3 north, range 3 east, in Sanpete county.

WATCH THE CLUB ROOMS.

It is Said They Will be Allowed to Sell Liquor on Sundays.

A well known citizen stated today that most of the saloons would be closed tomorrow (Sunday), but that club rooms, both private and otherwise, would be open to all comers.

A reporter, acting on the statement, made inquiries from a number of club room hangers and was somewhat astonished to hear them all say in substance: "Why a club room is entirely different from a saloon. We see nothing wrong in dispensing liquor three every day in the week. Come up to-morrow and bring your friends—we'll see that you are well taken care of. We don't expect to be bothered to do much business on Sundays, and we are far above the saloons and disturb no one."

It is understood that the Liquor Dealers' association has issued the club rooms in the black list, and that they will carry the matter before their next meeting. Spotters will be around tomorrow to watch the proceedings.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, August 11, 1894.

Some Serious Charges.

H. W. King, superintendent and manager of the Fyrogen Fire Building and Loan association, has had some very serious charges preferred against him by the stockholders and directors of the association. About a year ago complaints began to come to the directors that all was not right in the business and it finally resulted in a board appointing a committee to examine the business of the association and report to it if possible, in what condition they were. The first thing the committee reported against King was the refusal to show the committee to examine the pass books, he claiming that the report contained matters which, if made public, would cause a stampede. The committee also reported that Mr. King had given notes to Scott to the amount of $[illegible] per month and had not a dollar in the association, was that he had stolen the money in a like manner with the rest of $[illegible]. It is further said that he had borrowed money in the name of [illegible] on stock which he never owned, and that he further paid a debt to Scott with bond of good his which belonged to the association. In turn he gave his note to the association for the same amount. These as well as other similar charges are made against him by the investigating committee. Third report of the investigating committee called out over $4,000 in order to make a settlement in the matter. A compromise was allowed by the board of $2,000 and an understanding was reached that when pass books came in, any of money or bonds would have to be given up. Credits were then found to be given to twenty persons who never received credit from the association, and which amounts were never turned in. After a great many explanations, the object being to secure the amount of the court commissioner's bond, King $1,000, but to this King does not cling to fully, and he has recently left the city for parts as yet unknown, so it is stated in Ogden. It is supposed that he has left in order to avoid arrest.

Sales.

A special meeting of the school board has been called for the purpose of considering the petition presented by the school children, in which they ask for the removal of teacher to be replaced in the school.

There was a big turnout of the A. O. U. excursion to the springs yesterday.

The A. B. C. are making big preparations for the coming election.

The Weber Stake Sunday schools will go to Saltair on Sunday next.

Jim Cashmere was run in last night on the charge of petit larceny brought against him.
