EVENING NEWS.

Friday, . . December 13, 1878.

BY TELEGRAPH.

WESTERN.

An Indian to be Executed.

SAN FRANCISCO, 12.—A Walla Walla Washington dispatch says: The trial of Indians charged with the murder of Coggings, near Pendleton, Oregon, in the late war, has been concluded in the latter place. One was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged on January 17th. The other two were discharged.

China and Japan News.

Arrived, the steamer City of Pekin, Hong Kong, via Yokohama.

Hong Kong, November 17th; Shanghai, 15th.—The Chinese minister, Chung, to Russia, sails early next month with a suit of 16 persons. Tseng, envoy to France and England, takes seven attaches.

A citizen of Hong Kong, named Bellios, has ordered a bronze statue of Lord Beaconsfield from England, for the erection in the colony, at a cost of £1,000.

Chinese inhabitants of Hong Kong have sent an address to the Queen of England, expressing admiration for and confidence in Gov. Hennessy. The English opposition to the governor is somewhat checked by the announcement of the successful financial administration this year, which surpasses all previous experience in the colony.

Insurrections continue on the Island of Hanan and province of Kwangsi, the former argarian, the latter military. Thus far the rebels are successful, but their speedy suppression is confidently expected.

There is considerable excitement over a quarrel of English missionaries at Mandalay, Upper Burmah. Investigation by Hong Kong lawyers fixes the blame on the missionaries who provoked a disturbance resulting in riot and the destruction of mission property. The dispute was referred to the British foreign office.

Li Hung Chang, a powerful northern viceroy, favors the immediate establishment of a Chinese mint.

There are fresh government exertions throughout the empire for suppression of opium smoking. The officials are seconded by no European authorities except Governor Hennessy, of Hong Kong, who endeavors to prevent opium smuggling from the colony of the mainland.

Frederick Koffman, registrar of the court of Hong Kong, was convicted of embezzling nearly $100,000 and sentenced to seven years penal servitude.

Yokohama, Nov. 23.—The persistance of speculators in cornering Mexican dollars so as to injuriously affect Japanese credit has caused the announcement by government in a foreign newspaper, the Tokio Times, of the true amount of paper money in circulation. Formerly, this unfairly represented several hundreds of millions. It is now shown to be about 150,000,000 only, including all treasury notes and national bank notes, of which latter only 24,000,000 were issued. Domestic credit is unimpaired, and there is no purpose of asking foreign loans or seeking external aid of any description, notwithstanding hints and declarations in the English press and by bankers.

The report has gained credence, though not officially authenticated, that Parker, British minister, is to be removed next year, and be succeeded by C. F. Adams, now secretary of the British Legion, Paris. The violent conduct of Parker, often shown in physical demonstrations, having been communicated by the Japanese, the necessity for a change is recognized by the British foreign office. The industry and energy of Parker in the British interest is everywhere recognized, but his adherence to the old brute force system of diplomacy is not suited to the present exigencies of intercourse. His high temper has betrayed him into personal violence from which even members of government have not escaped. One minister was actually beaten by him on a memorable occasion. The removal will tend to produce a better feeling not only toward English but aliens generally.

Many interesting discoveries are announced by the American naturalist, Morse, now in the Japanese government service, and commissioned to make scientific investigations throughout the empire.

A British and Italian ship was recently wrecked on the Island of Quelpart, South Corea. Contrary to expectation the natives, of whom little was previously known, showed great humanity and exerted themselves for the safety and restoration of all survivors. Hitherto they were supposed to be savages; it is now known they are gentle and fairly civilized.

Reports are circulated of impending war between Japan and Corea in consequence of the latter obstructing commercial intercourse. These reports are false. The dispute is merely a small question of etiquette, and not likely to attain magnitude.

The census last September gives the population of Tokio at 1,036,071; houses in Tokio, 138,901.

Funeral of a Lamanite.

KANOSH, Millard County, Dec. 10th, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

Sally Kanosh died at 10 o'clock a.m., yesterday, December 9th, at the house recently put up at the Indian Farm, and was buried today in the temple clothes presented to her by the late President Brigham Young. The body was taken charge of by the ever-ready, in works of charity, Adelia Kimball, and her efficient helps of the Relief Society. Quite a number of brethren turned out with teams to conduct the funeral and convey the Indian to our burying ground, where she was interred. Addresses were delivered by Brothers Christensen, Abraham and Reay. A solemn and peaceful influence prevailed. The faithful old chief, Kanosh, was deeply moved at the respect shown to his dead wife, and expressed his confidence in the good effect it would produce upon his people, as contrasting a kind and Christian burial with the rude manner of disposing of the Indian dead. Sally, for several days, was aware of the near approach of death, and instructed Kanosh as to the disposal of her clothes, etc.

Beneath that tawney skin was a faith, intelligence and virtue that would do honor to millions with a paler face.

GEORGE CRAGE.

Mining Election—The Boom, etc.

MALAD CITY, Idaho, December 9th, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

We Maladites are enjoying beautiful weather at this time, especially considering that Christmas is so near and Santa Claus expected by our juveniles.

Our last election passed off quietly, the democratic party in the majority by a fair deal, but the "ring" claim a majority by voting Indians, mules, etc., at Ross' Fork and some other places, but as we have determined to contest, it is more than probable they may come out at the little end of the horn. However, the Hon. George Ainslie and Judge Crawford are surely elected, the one for delegate and the other for district attorney, both good and loyal democrats.

On Saturday evening our Amateur Dramatic Association performed at the "Mormon School-house," the piece chosen being the "Idiot Witness." The characters were well sustained, considering the little practice they had. The "Idiot," by J. Evans, was a success.

The singing, under the able leadership of Prof. E. Stephens of Willard City, U. T., was the great feature of the evening, being interspersed with some choice comic and sentimental songs.

The performance was, as every one hoped it would be, a pecuniary success, being for the benefit of one of our most worthy citizens—R. G. Evans, who had the misfortune, some time ago to lose his leg.

Our meetings are well attended, and the instructions given by our worthy Bishop Dunford, and associates are good and sound. Our Sunday school is also doing well, and the Juvenile Instructor is one of the great mediums to which we are indebted for its success.

Our co-op. store, is doing a land office business under the able management of F. E. Jones, assisted by R. T. Owens and Prest. T. W. Thomas.

Respectfully, MOSES.

DON'T DESPAIR OF RELIEF, for this benign specific may cure you, even through professional obstacle.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

Dr. D. D. Wright, of Cincinnati, sends us the subjoined professional indorsement: "I have prescribed Hall's Balsam in a large number of cases and always with success." He adds that "in one case a patient with every symptom of confirmed consumption, who proceed to his home to die, soon after commencing to take the Balsam."

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., writes: "Some years ago I was to all appearance in the last stage of consumption and got so low attendants gave me no hope of my life for hours. Mr. Kuhn further states that "after taking nine bottles of HALL'S BALSAM he is now in perfect health, having used no other medicine."

The above brief extracts are taken from a MASS OF EVIDENCE which has been accumulating during a period of TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, proving an efficacy of HALL'S BALSAM in all cases where the breathing organs are affected, and deserving the estimation in which the remedy is held by the public and medical profession. Sold by all Druggists.

Price $1.00 per bottle.
