AFTER THE BATTLE.

The Two Pugilists Promptly, But Only "Technically" Arrested.

THE FIGHTERS BECOME FRIENDS.

Kimbell Regrets His Bitterness Against Corbett and Takes His Defeat Like a Man.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 25.—After the close of the fight, just as Corbett's carriage was ready to drive off, a county sheriff got on top with the driver and the startling announcement was made that the American champion was under arrest. Mitchell did not escape. Sheriff Broward walked over to the Englishman's carriage just before it was ready to start and Mitchell was notified that he must again face the law. The two men were only technically under arrest. They submitted without resistance and friends immediately came to their assistance and produced security for their release.

Mitchell, after being taken to the Duvall house by Sheriff Broward, which he was given a bath and a night gown, was taken to the courthouse. With him were Billy Thompson and Colonel Cockrell. The party went to the sheriff's private office and a messenger was sent for Judge Call, before whom bailess corpus proceedings will be brought in behalf of both pugilists.

Mitchell looked none the worse for his hard punishing. The Englishman came down in the sheriff's office to await the arrival of Judge Call. The arrest was caused by Attorney General Lamar, on the charge of fighting by previous appointment.

The fighters were in the courtroom together this evening, and through the efforts of Joe Vendig, the long continued animosity of the two men toward each other was buried. Though they had not exchanged the usual handshakes in the ring, either before or after the battle, they cordially shook hands in the court room.

Mitchell made a little speech, in which he acknowledged having utered many bitter sayings against Corbett, but said he regretted them and was glad to had been whipped by a man worthy in every way to wear the championship honors. There was general applause in the room over the reconciliation. It is not thought here that the court proceedings will be more than formal.

Corbett and Mitchell were placed under $5,000 bonds and the remainder of the party under $2,000 to appear tomorrow in the criminal court before Judge Phillips. The case brought on vanished at the county was dismissed.

PETER JACKSON SAYS.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 25.—Peter Jackson, when asked his opinion on the big fight, replied: "I don't want to say be much about the battle, but let me say emphatically that Charles Mitchell has proven himself to be one of the most contagious men that ever entered the ring. After teony, nobody can say Mitchell is a coward. Why, he was game a man as ever stepped into the ring. I have to fight Corbett next June and I sincerely hope I will beat him. He was the better man today. It was not a question of rounds, but simply a case of the better man winning."

JOHN L. HAS NOT MADE UP HIS MIND.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 25.—John L. Sullivan said tonight that he expected Corbett to win, but he did not think Mitchell would be whipped in less than ten rounds. It was a case of a good little man against a good big man, and the big man always wins in such a case. When asked if he intended to challenge the winner, Sullivan said he had not yet made up his mind. As Corbett already had a match on with Jackson, he would wait until that was over before deciding about a challenge to Corbett.

FRANK SLAVIN TOO.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Frank Slavin interviewed about the result of the Corbett-mitchell fight, said, although he anticipated the result, he was sorry Mitchell was beaten. Slavin said the national sporting club was ready to back him to fight Sullivan for $10,000. Slavin said he thought Mitchell would have been able to hold out twenty rounds, but supposed Mitchell's victorious got the upper hand and led him at the mercy of his cool opponent. "If Sullivan declines to fight me," said Slavin, "I shall challenge Corbett on my own account for the championship of the world."

IN CONGRESS.

The Reciprocity Clause of the McKinley Law Repealed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Only one amendment to the tariff bill of any importance was adopted by the House today, that repealing the reciprocity clause of the McKinley law.

At the evening session speeches were made by Hicks (Rep.) of Pennsylvania, Hutcheson (Dem.) of Texas, Cobb (Dem.) of Alabama, Mcdougall (Dem.) of Kentucky and Hines (Dem.) of Pennsylvania.

Bailey, Democratic Congressman from Pennsylvania, has resigned his seat, to take effect February 17th. Criticism of his course on the tariff bill is said to be the cause.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

At the Democratic caucus 164 members were present. Fifteen of Illinois, introduced a resolution, which was adopted, provided that the internal revenue bill and the income tax bill be added as amendments to the Wilson bill. The time for debate of the tariff bill was extended three days, the final vote to be taken next Thursday.

A substitute offered by Wilson, for elimination of the income tax to the end of bill, was defeated 88 to 92. The Fellows resolution was agreed to by 51 to 11. Cockran announced that he would not be bound by the action of the caucus.

At a meeting of the New Jersey Democratic delegation it was agreed to vote against the tariff bill if the income tax is included. The New York members estimate there will be 30 Democratic votes against the bill with the income tax added.

South American Affairs.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Herald special from Managua says: President Vasquez has been driven into Tegucigalpa, General Ortiz having occupied the last of the mountain passes. Four hundred of Vasquez's soldiers went into Nicaraguan camp last night. Several prominent Honduran military men have sent word that they will join General Bonilla. Costa Rica has recognized Bonilla. General Gutierrez has surrendered his entire force and Urrutia's troops have disbanded. Vasquez is negotiating for his personal safety. The Nicaraguan troops will remain in Honduras until Bonilla is firmly established in power. Bonilla has telegraphed thanks to Zelaya.

THE BOND QUESTION.

Secretary Carlisle Appears Before the House Judiciary Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The House judiciary committee being considered the question of the new bond issue, as involved in Bailey's resolution, that the secretary of the treasury has no authority to apply the proceeds of bonds for any purpose except resumption. Secretary Carlisle was present and spoke. He held that the law conferred upon him authority to issue the bonds. A deficit of $65,000,000 would exist at the end of the fiscal year unless Congress gave relief to the treasury.

In answer to a question by Bailey, Carlisle maintained his right to use the proceeds of the bonds for other purposes than resumption, as he could expend the last dollar in the treasury, provided not otherwise appropriated.

He also had power to sell more bonds if the state of the treasury made it necessary to borrow money. In reply to a question by Ray of New York, a Republican, Carlisle said it would undoubtedly embarrass the treasury if the committee should declare that he had no right to use the bonds to pay current expenses.

It is believed that all the Republican members, and Bailey, Bentes and De Armond, Democrats, favor the Bailey resolution.

For the Reception of Bismarck.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—The general public will not be admitted to the Hanoverian Railroad station upon the arrival tomorrow of Bismarck. The governor of Berlin and commander of the garrison will be upon the platform with their respective staffs to welcome the ex-chancellor, and it is understood that Prince Henry of Prussia, Emperor William's brother, will be present to welcome the prince on behalf of the emperor.

Upon the arrival of Bismarck at the railroad station he will be escorted to the castle by a detachment of the Cuirassiers Guard at the castle. Immediately after the prince's arrival lunch will be served. Only the Imperial family and Bismarck will be present at the repast. The decorations of the route from the railroad station to the castle are actively progressing, and nearly every window which can be hired has been engaged at a fabulous price.

ATTEMPT AT MURDER.

A Spanish Anarchist Claims to be an Anarchist.

BARCELONA, Jan. 25.—A dynamite explosion took place today in the harbor works. The outrage is attributed to anarchists.

As the civil governor was entering his carriage at the entrance of the prefecture a workman fired a pistol at his head and wounded the governor in the face. The governor's secretary promptly seized the assassin, who loudly proclaimed himself an anarchist. He had an accomplice in the attempt at murder, but this man escaped. The bullet lodged in the upper part of the left jaw of the Governor. The assailant is named Marull. He repudiated any intention to commit murder, but it is generally believed the act was out of revenge for the part the governor took in the prosecution of Pallas and other anarchists. Marull admits that the day in wait a full hour for the governor the day previous.

Vaillant's Appeal Rejected.

Paris, Jan. 25.—The court of appeals has rejected Vaillant's appeal.

Thurston Calls on Gresham.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Minister Thurston called at the state department today and paid a short call to Secretary Gresham. This was his first visit since his return from Honolulu. His reception was the same as before his departure.

For a Naval Training School.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Perkins, from the Senate committee on naval affairs, today reported a bill to provide for the establishment of a naval training station on Mare Island, California, to cost $100,000.

Farewell Party at West Jordan.

William L. Bateman writes from West Jordan, Salt Lake county, that the members of that ward have just given a very pleasant socialle, benefit and farewell in honor of two of their members, Elders Israel N. Gardner and Alfred Sodeberg, who go on missions, the former to the Eastern states and the latter to Denmark. This is the fourth affair of the kind gotten up by the ward this fall and winter, and it was in no way inferior to the others in enjoyment and success. The ward house was packed—indeed, all could not get admittance, so part of the assemblage adjourned to the Relief Society house. There was a long program of songs, recitations, dialogues, and music by the brass band, and in conclusion the making up of a purse of $128 for the departing brethren. The worthy bishop was at the head of the affair.

Putting Away Bacon Hams.

The following plan is recommended by a Rural New Yorker correspondent as the very best for putting away hams for summer use on the farm. He says:

After the hams have been properly salted and smoked, put each in a common muslin sack—I make mine of flour sacks or cheap brown muslin and as nearly the shape of the ham as I can roughly block it out, but they are never perfect fits. Then stitch a tape loop made of a strip of cotton folded and stitched at one end. Have your sacks large enough at the open end so that after the ham is in you can fold the open edges over well and sew tightly. Now have ready a tubs or big bucket of baked lime that is creamy in thickness and warm enough to penetrate cotton easily. Put a wire hook in the loop on the sack and dip the latter up and down (with the ham in it of course) several times in the lime water until you are sure the pores of cloth are filled with the lime. Hang them up in the air till perfectly dry, then lay or hang away anywhere that is convenient.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.

A Case of St. Vitus Dance Cured, Demonstrating the Skill of the Physicians of the Zion Medical & Surgical Institute.

The $5 Rate for All Diseases Closes Feb. 1st.—Nervous and Chronic Diseases a Specialty.

George Stanton, Esq., a prominent business man of Payson City, Utah, in conversation with the writer, said: "My little son, Raymond, was a great sufferer when I consulted Drs. Shores & Shores of the Zion Medical and Surgical Institute, located 34 East 2nd South St., Salt Lake City. After an examination the doctors informed me his disease was cores (or St. Vitus dance) and I asked him the question, Can he be cured? The doctors answered me with an unqualified yes, and it gives me great pleasure to state that after two months' treatment by these eminent specialists in chorea and nervous diseases that he was entirely cured. He commenced to get better from the first. My little boy's case was certainly a bad one. He began to look bad, and was peevish and fretful, his temper was irritable, his sleep was disturbed by disagreeable dreams. He was very flighty and nervous, could not sit still. The muscles of the face would twitch, his gait was peculiar, being slow and shuffling. No matter where the hand was placed it could not be kept steady. So grave were all these symptoms that it seems almost a miracle that he was restored to perfect health in so short a time.

"I heartily recommend Drs Shores & Shores."

The above case is one of special interest to parents. Many children are subject to the same nervous symptoms, yet in a milder form. This should never be neglected. All such cases, if taken in the early stages, can be cured. Drs. Shores & Shores have proved this fact in the case of little Raymond Stanton.

REMEMBER,

All patients who apply for treatment during this month will be treated until cured for $5 a month, medicines furnished FREE.
