FRED J. KIESEL BACK FROM BOISE

Fisher Harris Also Returns From The Irrigation Congress.

PLEASED WITH WORK DONE.

Enthusiastic Over Great Showing Made By Utah Fruit Growers—Spoke in High Terms of Prest. Judd.

Fred J. Kiesel and Fisher Harris are back from Boise, in high spirits over the winning of the sweepstakes cup by Utah for the finest fruit exhibit. They speak in the highest terms of the unflagging energy and activity of President Thomas Judd of the state board of horticulture, and of the other members of the board and their assistants in carrying out and realizing the anticipations of Utah fruit growers at the irrigation congress.

Mr. Judd having brought a man from Los Angeles to oversee the grain exhibit. It was one of the best arranged affairs of the kind ever in the west.

Messrs. Kiesel and Harris were especially complimentary to the exhibit, which held 20,000 people for over an hour in giving a concert. Vice President Fairbanks was to make a speech a block and a half from where the band was giving a concert, and at the time for beginning his remarks.
