NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Young Farmer Killed by a Falling Tree.

ARIZONA SALOON DYNAMITED.

[illegible]

The Cornville, O., Times says the election in Congress of T. N. Hines was due to the vote of his black laborers.

Lawrence, Wyoming, Representative Jones, Oca Harley today received twenty-five of the Indian ponies he purchased from in Utah.

A thief has distinguished himself in Sacramento, Cal., by stealing a twenty-five foot extension ladder from one hill, from the back yard of a resident.

The other day the 11 months' old child of Hilda Aldrig, who lives in the northwestern portion of San Bernardino, Cal., fell into a tub of water and was drowned.

One of the novelties at Fomona's, Cal., centers here in the Fomona Wheelman Special Sold to be sold on the installment, a picture in which will be shown to be the celebrity.

Charles Wyatt of Centralia, Wash., aged 16 years, while on a hunting expedition shot the barrel of a 22-caliber rifle. It went off, and the ball glanced Wyatt's head, killing him instantly.

Mr. Hale Wilson, a Salvation Army lassie of Redlands, Cal., received word last Monday that an uncle died left to her 20,000 in money, in addition to a fortune in Pennsylvania, which entitled Hilsey to pay her bill and still be rich.

The Seattle, Wash., Telegraph, the independent paper, which ceased to exist for a week, has for the present published an element of the inability of the compositors to set the paper because the paper was written by a number of local reporters and publishers.

Sister Bloom was drowned in the Cowlitz River, near Vancouver, Wash., the other day. The good man paying with the Sunday school a picnic. Sister Bloom had ventured to bathe in the Lewis and Clark Exhibition and a Mysterious arm shot out and she was drowned.

Jesse Lawson, a young boy, aged about 18 years, who was employed in a cooper's shop in Henry Ann's mill, about six miles west of Cambridge, Ohio, was accidentally killed the other day by a blow received upon his head. It was found that the blow was accidental.

A Bible class was started Sunday evening at the Sunday school in Bear Creek, Cal., and the attendance was so large that the next evening was set to prayer, and the men of the first Bible class to be held in the school were present.

Hood River, Oregon, is to have a justice from Portland, a Mount Law and a national bank.

Fine Wonders, the writer who was a resident of Cheyenne, Wyo., in the town to the south, and who left for Lance and Lemon and Lemon and Wilson, left for New York, and it will be here with St. Vincent's Orphan, and it will be here the girls which to Ohio to All Hallows Convent, to be educated.

Jackson Clarke of Oakland, Wash., who an was and lately, started at Moon Cove, Cal., Saturday, met with a general smashup that evening which cost some one his life. While passing the 8 o'clock train from Oakland the car jumped the track and the car was thrown from the track (illegible) the car was thrown from which (illegible).

The body of George Wilkinson, who lost his life in the wreck of the Oakland, Cal., car the last morning on a Tuesday, was found yesterday in the wreck of the Santa Ana, between Highland and Redlands, in a state of utter ruin. Wilkinson had not that bulletin, as was generally supposed, but a letter which he had written to his wife, Wilkinson had not been seen since the wreck, so he was in a position to be recognized.

The owners of the oil well near Green River, Wyo., have (illegible) a mean pulling a 30 foot well and are pumping for plenty into evaporating vats. The capacity is 2,000 gallons of oil every 24 hours, the product selling at 25 cents. It is estimated that with sufficient vat capacity the plant will pay a profit of 40 per cent per day. Several prospectors have been in the region for some months trying to purchase and develop the field, but the stock holders in the property prefer to keep it in the property.

On Tuesday night of last week David Gaggert, better known as "Bright Dave," was arrested for the murder of Frank Lee Lewis, in the town of Uniontown, Uniontown. Fifty miles from the scene of the murder, Dave Davis, an officer of the Uniontown in the exhibition was discovered on Bill for a day, while in the town of Uniontown of Ada. He was talking from the sidewalk of a side room, with his horses and buggies, and was engaged in having pulp. On Saturday, Davis is reported to be found, but no the evening there was a mistake in the name of robbery, and early after midnight Davis was dead.

A terrible explosion at Tacoma Friday afternoon completely wrecked the new portion of the Central Hotel at Port. The place was Rent with people at the time, but no one was seriously injured. The explosion occurred in the kitchen, and was caused by gasoline and two gasoline stoves. The building is in the rear of the hotel, facing the Rose of the street. Three women were burned, the cooking is so severely that it is not known if they will live. The remainder of the building is wrecked and the stock of the hotel is in the rear of the building. The hotel is a total loss. The building is a total loss. The hotel is a total loss. The hotel is a total loss. The hotel