THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Obsequies—Rev. P. A. Simpkin officiated at the funeral Saturday afternoon, of Theodore F. Chapman.

Busy—Market Row was opened for a while yesterday morning, doing a land office business with visiting veterans and tourists.

Convalescent—Miss Anna May Bowen, of the state board of health, has returned from a protracted sojourn on the Pacific coast with her health entirely recovered.

Caledonian—The Thistle club will give an excursion to the Hermitage in Ogden canyon, Aug. 18, to fraternize with the Scottish people of Ogden who are to picnic there on that date.

Help—Meatmen say all smoked meats are advancing, owing to the great scarcity throughout the country. Breakfast bacon is quoted at 23 cents, ordinary bacon at 16½, and ham at 14-16 cents.

Customs—Collector Greenewald of the Salt Lake Custom house has received notice from the department at Washington not to liquidate any shipments until after receipt of the full text of the new tariff bill.

Appointees—Governor Spry has appointed Horace Peery and Angus Wright of Ogden, as members of the committee which will assist the State Fair associatoon in preparing for the Inland Empire exposition which will be held in October.

Revoked—Col. George B. Squires, commissioner of insurance has revoked the commission of the Independent Order of Puritans of Pittsburg to transact business in Utah. It is asserted that the company granted rebates and otherwise violated the insurance laws.

Judicial—During the encampment week no state cases will be heard by Judge Bowman in the criminal division of the city court, and the city court docket will be called at 9 o'clock in the morning. On Wednesday the day of the parade, no court will be held.

Cave-in—William Cox, a miner employed in the Eureka-Centennial mine at Eureka, was seriously injured in a cave-in on the 1,400 level last Saturday, and was brought to St. Marks' hospital yesterday suffering from a fractured leg and badly cut head.

Musical—A full rehearsal of the singers and instrumentalists who are to take part in next Sunday's dedicatory program at the Catholic cathedral, was held with pleasing success yesterday morning. This was the first time all had been together, including the harpists, so that the event was one of marked interest.

Mexico—James Cunningham returned yesterday afternoon from San Luis Potosi, Mexico, where he has a large and successful plantation. He says the reports in today's dispatches from the City of Mexico about the native population being stirred up over the advent of so much American capital and enterprise in the republic is all bosh. There is no feeling at all against Americans, who are welcome down there at any and all times.

Upset—George S. Lane, a paperhanger residing at 851 Martin street, was the victim of a runaway accident last night, in which he sustained a broken leg. While he was driving along Main street near Sixth South, his horse took fright and bolted. While trying to check the horse, the latter swerved suddenly, upsetting the buggy and throwing Lane to the street. He was removed to his home in the police patrol and given medical attention.

Reclamation—Joseph R. Murdock of Heber City has filed with the state engineer, an application for 60 cubic feet of water, March to December, from the Jordan river south of this city. The diverting works will consist of a pumping plant, pipe line and canal 132,000 feet long, to irrigate 32,000 acres of land. Others interested with Mr. Murdock are Joseph B. Keeler, Earl J. Glade, James C. Jensen, Stephen L. Chipman, J. William Knight, Edward D. Clyde, George H. Brimhall, A. J. Evans and David Broadbent.

Accomodated—Joseph Burke, a young man, landed in jail Saturday night following a too strenuous endeavor to secure a room in the Cullen hotel, after he had been told that there was not a room to be had. Burke had applied at the desk for a room and upon being informed by Manager Haywood that he could not be accomodated he became, it is said, insulting in his remarks. Detective Wheeling was called in and Burke removed to the jail. He will be charged with drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

Strapped—J. D. Moore, a G. A. R. veteran, reported late Saturday afternoon the loss of his pocketbook containing the return half of a round trip ticket from Towns, Ga., and $95 in cash. Mr. Moore was the victim of pickpockets, and his loss left him stranded. The women's citizens' committee obtained for him a room with Mrs. G. J. Smith, 127 west Sixth South street, where he will be cared for. Should the pocketbook with the ticket, which it is likely the thieves will not want to use, be found, it should be returned to the G. A. R. headquarters.

Trans-Atlantic—The many friends here of Tom McNamara, who was formerly a sporting cartoonist in this city and who went on the Orpheum circuit with Marcus Meyers in a sketching art called Marcus and Mack, will be pleased to learn of their engagement for a tour of Europe. McNamara wrote to a member of the "News" staff some time ago that he expected an engagement of this kind, and now word comes that they have been signed for a vaudeville tour. From the time they put on their act in Salt Lake it proved most attractive, and the two young men are now on their way across the pond.

Pugilistic—According to Paul Katzmak in his story to the police, Morris Landau, a merchant at 69 Commercial street, failed to appreciate even his most earnest efforts, and Landau was not content to tell in words how slow he thought Katzmak was in his work, but emphasized his remarks with an unwarranted use of the fists. Katzmak, who is a paperhanger, was engaged by Landau to do some work in the store. Katzmak says he did it expeditiously, but not fast enough to suit Landau, who went so far as to accuse Katzmak of either being drunk or not knowing his business. When he had used up his vocabulary, according to Katzmak, Landau resorted to his fists and sunk the words in with a thrashing. For all of which Katzmak seeks redress through the court.

She was buried this afternoon in the city cemetery beside her husband, Samuel C. Dallas, whom she married in March, 1852. She crossed the plains with him during that year, in Capt. Cutler's company. Deceased was born in Worcestershire, England, in 1852, joining the Mormon church in 1846. She lived a simple, useful life, devoted to her church and family. Architect S. C. Dallas is her son.

HIGH SCHOOL CADETS DOING GREAT WORK

Boys at the Bureau of Information Pilot Aged Soldiers to Their Destinations.

The Salt Lake High school cadets are doing great service at the various bureaus of information. These stations are located on First, Second and Third South on Main; at the Commercial club, the Knutsford hotel and the depots. At each place there is a squad of uniformed cadets and they are on duty all the time to care for those who go astray.

The boys have been busy, and will be busy until the end of the encampment. Yesterday and today they have been kept on the jump piloting old soldiers and their wives to hotels, rooming houses, private homes, and the various clubhouses.

Many G. A. R. men are identified with the B. P. O. E., and a number of them have found a comfortable resting place at the club house, being shown there from the bureaus of information. The local Elks will install cots at the clubhouse and veterans who are unable to find a place to sleep will find a welcome there.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT.

During the G. A. R. encampment, and all the time, in fact, it would be well for pedestrians to remember to keep to the right. Standing and gossiping on the street intersections also is not conducive to rapid transit for those who are endeavoring to get to their destination quickly.

The police will have their hands full this week, and the traffic squad would appreciate it greatly and their labors would be lessened if these two points were observed rigidly.

Mons. and Mme. Begue.
With Ellery Band at Saltair every day, 4 and 8 p. m. Concerts free.
