

BRANDENBERG'S SEA OF TROUBLES

He Will Take Up Arms Against Extradition and Make a Hard Fight.

PREPARING FOR THE FRAY.

Bill Sticks in Cleveland Fight, Saying
Ex-President Appointed Him.
His Press Agent.

San Francisco, April 26.—Facing a three-cornered fight with legal battles impending in New York City, St. Louis and this city, including in the last an indictment for grand larceny in connection with a political article purporting to have been written by the late Grover Cleveland, a double matrimonial entanglement and a contest for the possession of his small estate, James Cabanne II. of St. Louis, brought Brandenberg, the newspaperman and magazine writer, who was arrested here Friday night, in expediting his time in the city prison preparing for the fray.

He declares he will resist extradition to New York on the larceny charge on the advice of his attorney that he will make a fight for the possession of the Cabanne wife whose father is on the way here to get the child, and that the courts must decide the matrimonial mixup, which involves a marriage in Honduras and a divorce suit in St. Louis.

In regard to the latter phase of his predicament, the writer explains that Mrs. Cabanne, mother of the boy he claims as his stepson, went with him to Cleveland where she secured a divorce and they were married. Mrs. Cabanne, however, later married a Chicago-Brandenberg, former husband has an application for divorce pending in the St. Louis courts.

She telegraphed the prisoner from New York to do all in his power to hold her son and a message also was received yesterday from Dist. Atty. Jerome of that city to hold Brandenberg for not less than $20,000 bail.

Friends of the writer and his attorney will hold a conference today to outline plans to resist extradition and to straighten out the other ends of the case.

CLEVELAND STORY.

In a long signed article published here this morning, Brandenberg goes into the details of his alleged dealings with Mr. Cleveland a short time before the last presidential campaign. He claims that the ex-president appointed him to write a series of three articles on the political situation.

According to his statement an arrangement was concluded so that Brandenberg was to get $2,000 for the series and that Brandenberg was to be compensated by whatever over that sum he could realize. Mrs. Cleveland and the Princeton stage's ex-senator, P. S. Hastings, were made aware of the agreement, he says.

Only one of the articles was prepared, Cleveland gave him a large number of paragraphs penciled on a bundle of loose slips of paper which, he claims, were to be the basis of the first contribution. Continuing Brandenberg writes: "Mr. Cleveland had not written at length on labor and the tariff, as I had hoped he would. He had, however, unburdened his mind on Mr. Bryan in two paragraphs, one on record and the other on personality. These, I saw, must come out if I was to sell the article to any but a partisan periodical, but I did not urge the matter then, waiting till later when they were excised. As they are things which Mr. Cleveland chose not to utter they are locked up with me forever."

According to Brandenberg the ex-president signed the article with a pen furnished by the former.

"BABY MINE"

Becoming a mother should be a source of joy, but the suffering incident to the ordeal makes its anticipation one of dread. Mother's Friend is the only remedy which relieves women of much of the pain of maternity; this hour, dreaded as woman's severest trial, is not only made less painful, but danger is avoided by its use. Those who use this remedy are no longer despondent or gloomy; nervousness, nausea and other distressing conditions are overcome, and the system is prepared for the coming event. # $98.03 Insurance Money

We collected $98.03 for H. J. Nelson, of the New York Life Insurance company. This money was collected from a man who at one time wanted life insurance, but he gave a note in payment of the premium, and then he forgot about it. Later he denied his signature to the note, and could not remember ever having seen it before, and did not recognize the agent when he saw him. But we refreshed his memory, and now he knows his mother's name and can even remember the place of his birth. Turn in some of your claims and we will collect some for you.

DOCTOR ADVISED OPERATION

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Paw Paw, Mich.—"I suffered terribly from female ills, including inflammation and congestion, for several years. My doctor said there was no hope for me but an operation. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I can now say I am a well woman."

ANOTHER OPERATION AVOIDED.
Chicago, Ill.—"I want women to know what that wonderful medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has done for me. Two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation, and I never thought of seeing a well day again. I had a small tumor and female troubles so that I suffered day and night. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it made me a well woman."—Mrs. ALVINA SPERLING, 11 Langdon St., Chicago, Ill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has proved to be the most successful remedy for curing the worst forms of female ills, including displacements, inflammation, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result has been worth millions to many suffering women.

JUSTICE HARLAN.

Will be a Candidate for Moderator of Presbyterian General Assembly.

Denver, Colo., April 26.—The News today says that John Marshall Harlan, associate justice of the United States supreme court, will be a candidate for moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly which meets in this city next month, and will be here in person to push his candidacy. Dr. Robert F. Coyle, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of this city, and himself a member of the general assembly, has received authoritative confirmation of Justice Harlan's candidacy, according to the News. Other candidates for moderator, the News says, are Dr. Robert McKenzie of New York; Dr. Hartley of Detroit; Dr. McQueen of Pittsburgh; and Dr. Mark A. Mathews of Seattle.

A further attempt will be made to convert the church to the cause of universal prohibition. Dr. John H. Hill of Pittsburgh, chairman of the temperance committee, will be the chief speaker. Two years ago at Columbus, the church voted to recognize the Anti-Saloon league, but there will be opposition, it is believed, to any attempt to compel it to do so further.

Another matter that will be pressed at the coming assembly is the adoption of a resolution demanding of Congress a national and uniform divorce law. Though there is little opposition to the general outline of the plan, it is expected that method and detail will provoke much discussion.

Still another important feature of the assembly's meeting will be the discussion of the race problem in the south. The committee appointed at last year's meeting to investigate and report on the matter will be heard, after which an evening will be devoted to listening to the negroes' side of the matter. Many leaders of the latter race in the south have been invited to participate in the discussion.

Seattle is prominently mentioned as the next place of meeting.

EX-SENATOR STEWART'S BODY CREMATED

Washington, April 25.—The body of William M. Stewart, former United States senator from Nevada, who died here Friday, was cremated today in accordance with a wish expressed just before his death. The ashes will be sealed in an urn and as soon as Mrs. Stewart recovers from an illness, they will be taken to Nevada for interment.

The last rites over the body were conducted by Rev. John H. Van Shick, at an undertaker's chapel, in the presence of a number of friends.

JAPAN'S WARSHIPS VISIT SAN PEDRO

For First Time in Ten Years Mikado's War Vessels Enter a
U. S. Pacific Port.

ARE GIVEN HEARTY WELCOME
Will Visit Various Places Along Coast
An Elaborate Greeting Will be Accorded Them at San Francisco.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 25.—For the first time in 10 years warships of the Japanese entered a Pacific coast port of the United States, when the cruisers Soya and Aso, comprising the Japanese training squadron commanded by Rear Admiral H. L'chi, steamed into San Pedro at noon today. Not since the trading ships entered the bay of San Francisco a half score years ago have vessels flying the flag of the Rising Sun been sighted on the western shores of this country.

The Aso and Soya dropped anchor at San Pedro, the harbor of Los Angeles, on a peaceful visit of some weeks' duration, which will take them to all of the principal ports of the Pacific coast. The two ships, comprising Admiral L'chi's squadron are prizes of the Russo-Japanese war. The Aso is the former Russian cruiser Bayan, found in the harbor of Port Arthur after Gen. Roosvelt's surrender that fortress to the hands of victorious Japanese. The Soya was formerly the cruiser Varang, which was caught in the harbor of Chemulpo, Korea, just before the breaking out of the war, and sunk by the Japanese fleet. Today these craft are comparatively modern warships, carrying heavy batteries and equipped with high-speed engines. Each has a single forward and after turret eight-inch, a broadside battery and eight 6-inch guns and 16 of 3-inch caliber, carrying crews of 300 men each, including 25 officers and 150 cadets of the Japanese navy.

The Aso is the flagship of Admiral L'chi. He is a veteran of the war with Russia, and commanded the battleship Mikasa, the flagship of Admiral Togo, which participated in all the memorable battles of that war, and on which Admiral Rojestvensky was taken as prisoner of war after his defeat in the Sea of Japan. Admiral L'chi is now a grizzled veteran of 50 years. He has made one other visit to the United States, when, in 1880, he visited San Francisco as a cadet on a Japanese corvette.

"We shall visit Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle and Victoria, and possibly other ports," said the admiral. "We are expected to leave by Aug. 1, and our stay on the shores of the United States will be brief."

"Personally, I can only express my pleasure at the increased evidences of friendliness between the United States and my country. I have no doubt that our visit here will be one of lasting pleasure and special demonstration of welcome. That is reserved for San Francisco, when the ships arrive there about May 1, when the Pacific fleet and federal and state officials will extend a more elaborate greeting."

The admiral was not prepared to make any formal statement regarding the occasion of the visit of his ships, further than that it was a part of their regular cruise.

Although San Pedro was the first American port touched since the squadron left Hilo, Hawaii, some 10 days ago, neither the federal nor state governments made any special demonstration of welcome. That is reserved for San Francisco, when the ships arrive there about May 1, when the Pacific fleet and federal and state officials will extend a more elaborate greeting.

The government was represented today by C. W. Pendleton, collector of the port of San Pedro, who was accompanied by officials from the cities of Los Angeles and San Pedro.

Consul General Makusu Nagai of San Francisco was a member of the party that boarded the Aso shortly after she came to anchor.

A feature of the arrival of the squadron was its reception by representatives of the 10,000 Japanese who live in southern California. Hundreds of Japanese journeyed to San Pedro and four steamers were chartered by them, and later, with the Japanese flag, to meet the ships.

FATAL QUARREL OVER UNION LABOR TROUBLES

Kingman, Ariz., April 26.—A quarrel over union labor troubles between W. P. Birne, a miner, and David Daley, president of the local union of Western Federation of Miners, resulted in the death of Daley late Saturday night. The men had not been on friendly terms, due to recent labor troubles at the Tonopah Mining camp. Birne is alleged to have waylaid Daley and beaten him with a revolver. Birne has been brought here for safe keeping, and threats of lynching have been freely made in the camp.

A DEATH PACT.

A Lover and His Sweetheart Carry Out One.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 25.—Because Anna Somers' father refused to grant her permission to marry Alexis Cottoff, both young people formed a death pact. As a result they are lying at the receiving hospital fatally wounded. The young woman has 10 bullet wounds in her body and her sweetheart has one. The shooting occurred in the girl's home in a room which was crowded with visitors. Both are Russians.

MRS. F. C. SMITH A SUICIDE.

Fearing She Was Losing Her Mind,
Threw Herself Under Train.

Limón, Colo., April 26.—Leaving a note in which she stated that she feared she was losing her mind, and begging her friends to tell her, Mrs. F. C. Smith, the young wife of the manager of the Rock Island hotel here, threw herself under the wheels of a passenger train as it was leaving the station yesterday and was instantly killed. Her body was cut in two.

FIREMEN ATTACKED BY HUNDREDS OF RATS

New York, April 26.—Firemen who were called to fight a blaze in a junk shop in One East Eighty-ninth street last night were attacked by hundreds of large rats. So vicious was the onslaught of the rodents as they climbed the legs of the firemen and bit their hands and ran over their shoulders and helmets that the firemen turned the streams of water from the fire hoses on the rats. After the rats had been washed away, by the terrific force of the water, the fire was extinguished.

INTIMIDATION OF PARENTS TAKES ON NEW ASPECT

New York, April 26.—Because of a mysterious threat against her life, Tillie M. Papa is being escorted to and from public schools in the Port Hamilton section of Brooklyn by a bodyguard of her schoolmates. Her father, a banker, received a letter a few days ago, saying his daughter, who is 14 years old, would be killed unless he "prayed for her for the next nine days." No demand for money was made. The girl's school companions became alarmed, and now each day a bodyguard of them call at her house and escort her to school and accompany her home.

PERNAMBUCO SUGAR CROP.

Washington, April 26.—The probable yield of the sugar crop in Pernambuco district, Brazil, is estimated at 200,000,000 pounds by Consul Chamberlain in a report to the bureau of commerce. This year's production there is expected to be one-third higher than the average crop and Consul Chamberlain predicts that shipments to the United States should reach 100,000 tons. The handicap brought about by the reduction in the duty on Cuban sugar.
