MADRID IS ANXIOUS NOW.

Hopes That Spain Will be Victorious at Santiago.

Disappointed at Americans Having a Free Hand in the Philippines, Complaining of Britain.

Madrid, July 4.—Every one is anxious awaiting news of today's expected bombardment of Santiago de Cuba and it is anticipated that the fighting will not wait to organize troubles. The dynamite scare, whether the Americans, even if they destroy the city, will succeed in possessing itself of it, on their knees are confidently expected to be overcome, once the portal of the Spanish commander at Santiago to make a final capitulation before that would otherwise be the case.

There is much comment here over the news of the departure of the foreign warships from Manila at the outbreak of the settled there of the Americans on Philippine soil. It is said that the French and the British warships now remain at Manila and people are asking if international complications have made a change and if the Americans are to be given a free hand in the Philippine Islands.

The news received here that the British cruiser at Hongkong has sent a dispatch boat to Manila for the purpose of informing Rear Admiral Dewey of the fact that Admiral Cervera's squadron has traversed the Suez Canal, is much commented upon and the newspapers suggest that the European and Asiatic authorities currently placed obstacles in the way of Admiral Cervera's departure for Manila as long as possible, adding that the British have more weight in Egypt than the authority of Suez Canal than they were in Hong Kong. Spain's dissatisfaction with Britain is based on the fact that Admiral Cervera's squadron has traversed the Suez Canal, while the British warships have remained at Hongkong and Manila and people are asking if Britain is under no obligation to make
