PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH. - MAY 10, 1894.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

A Case Against An Administratrix.

The case of J. H. Milner vs the administratrix of the estate of J. W. R. Milner, deceased, (Jeannette Ann Milner) came up for hearing before Judge Smith yesterday. Plaintiff asked for an order to enjoin the defendant from collecting and discounting of notes to the amount of $1,450, which were held by J. W. R. Milner, and listed with the probate court as a portion of his estate. The notes are claimed by plaintiff to have been given to J. W. R. Milner in payment for a farm belonging to plaintiff, sold by J. W. R. Milner, in Arizona. Defendant claimed that the notes belong to plaintiff and further claimed that plaintiff was estopped by the statute of limitation.

The evidence was very contradictory. Payments claimed by defendant to have been made by the deceased, to creditors of plaintiff, and other considerations, through which defendant claimed to have become owner of the farm for which the notes were obtained, were claimed by plaintiff to have been paid by himself. The judge reserved his decision till Friday. M. S. Warner represented plaintiff and E. A. Wedgwood, Chas. De Meisy and J. J. Knight the defendant.

Asking Indian Criminals' Pardon.

Chief Hankup of the Utah Indians, located near Kanosh, and four other Indians came up yesterday. The chief had a letter to Judge Smith from prominent citizens of Kanosh and vicinity asking his influence to have Alex Sobonyulut and John Dos Indian persons from the penitentiary. They were sentenced about three months ago to a year's imprisonment for stealing horses. They state the horses while under the influence of liquor and afterwards made restitution; they pleaded guilty and were sentenced to one year in the penitentiary, the lowest sentence that could be imposed. Judge Smith gave the chief a letter recommending the pardon of the Indians, and the chief went off happy.

The chief was so well pleased with his success in his first transaction with the judge that he ventured to ask that functionary to obtain a title for him to a section of land and a spring of water. The judge pleasantly told him that he could do nothing in that matter, but advised him to see Deputy Marshal Payne, who had come with him from the south, and he (Payne) would direct him how to get his title. Hankup was evidently somewhat disappointed, and left, so demi, with some slight suspicion in regard to Judge Smith's qualifications for the position of "big chief."

Notes.

The board of education met last evening and levied a school tax of 12 mills for the ensuing year. This, it is estimated, will enable the board to run the schools for thirty weeks and pay the greater portion of the present indebtedness, besides making some improvements, providing a reduction of 15 per cent is made in the teachers' salaries.

The children of the public schools give an entertainment in the opera house tomorrow evening. Over eight hundred of the little folks will take part. The proceeds will be used for the purchase of books for the school library.

The teachers of the city schools held a pleasant social last evening at the home of Hon. L. John Nuttall.

The Tabernacle choir will give a concert in July while the summer school is in progress. J. J. McClellan, now at Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Lillian A. DeLong, nee Lillian A. Roberts, who is expected to be back from her home in the East, will aid in making the affair a success.

Probate Judge J. D. Jones and Mrs. Jones started for California today. The judge has delayed the trip for some time for the reason that his successor, Judge Dusenberry, was not ready to accumulate; but the delicate health of Mrs. Jones made the trip imperative. He telegraphed Delegate Rawlins, before he started, asking his aid in having the commission forwarded at an early date.

Mayor Holbrook and Mayor Hall, of Springville, left yesterday morning to consult with the mayors of Lehi, American Fork and Pleasant Grove in regard to the invasion of Carter's army. A consultation was previously held by Judge Jones, Mayor Holbrook, Mayor Hall and Marshal Knight. The object of the conference was to determine upon a policy to pursue in regard to the army. It is expected to reach American Fork today.

D. F. Clark is in the city. He was formerly a resident of Provo but now lives in Grand Junction, Colorado. He has moved all his sheep into that state.

PUTNAM

HOT FORGED AND HAMMER POINTED HORSE

NAILS.

At the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago. A model and diploma worded: "Supreme excellence in material, method in manufacture, and quality of finished product; economy and smoothness combined with holding power in clinch. It allows the use of very small nails."

"None is nothing beyond supreme excellence and so there was nothing compared to a horse nail except the material from which it is made, the method of manufacture," and "quality of finished product." Putnam Nails, or their "Supreme," are superior to the excellent and construction of the best wrought iron or so-called "Swedes" or "American," as did the large the use horse in the foot, while their "superior excellence" in "holding power in the clinch" enables them to use the nail so far the various carriers hold were not.

By the "use of small size" shoes horse are protected and never wear to the nails.

Thus it will be seen that the officers of the World's Columbian Exposition, through all their conclusions go to make by a good horse and that can only the "Putnam" nailers from Nails.

THE PRICE OF IT.

Ah, there is the rub in these hard times. But consider what you save in so many ways. How you expedite your business, so speedily are errands or attend to some duty with little loss of time that might otherwise be neglected. Think of the times you have gone home and been met by the wife of your bosom with the demand to know why you had not sent up the meat, and you recalled how, when you thought of it you put it off thinking to have more time later on, and then forgot it entirely until the poultry came, and your heart sank in your boots. How if you had had that easy running, light and graceful "Stearns" Yellow Fellow—that acme and climax of bicycle construction—that crowd compel, and would have been attached to as a jiffy. Result: Consistent easy, money saved, wife smiling and affectionate, life filled with kindness and contentment.
