By Universal Accord, AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, and their extensive use by Physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, proves them the best and most effective purgative pills that medical science can devise. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use. In intrinsic value and curative powers no other pills can be compared with them, and every person, knowing their virtues, will employ them, when needed. They keep the system in perfect order, and maintain in healthy action the whole machinery of life. Mild, searching and effective, they are specially adapted to the needs of the digestive apparatus, derangements of which they prevent and cure, if timely taken. They are the best and safest physic to employ for children and weakened constitutions, where a mild, but effective cathartic is required.

It is asserted that the ordinary cosmetics used by ladies are productive of great mischief. We believe this is so, and that a better means of securing a beautiful complexion is to use some good blood medicine like Scott's Blood and Liver Syrup, which cleanses the blood and gives permanent beauty to the skin. dtf

From numerous cases of Dyspepsia and Constipation cured by the use of Feltz's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, after many other known remedies had been used in vain, its efficacy in restoring the functions of Digestion and Evacuation is manifest.

EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, January 24, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Attend the Primaries.—All good citizens should attend the primary meetings, to be held on Monday evening, at 7.30, in the various municipal precincts.

Home Mission.—The Home Missionaries of this State are requested to meet at the Council House, on Wednesday evening, the 28th inst., at 7 o'clock p.m.

On the Way.—Posters are now out to this effect: "Children's Grand Duces, look out for her."

Yes, yes, we will Brother Smith; but which way is she coming?

A New Lecture.—C. R. Savage, Esq., will deliver his lecture entitled "Thirteen Thousand Miles by Land and Sea," in the 17th Ward Assembly Rooms, on Wednesday evening next, commencing at 7.30 o'clock; under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The public are invited, free.

Police Court.—One case of drunkenness and disturbance, taken in charge last evening, was this morning fined $10 for that offense, and for abusing the officers an extra $15 was added to his little bill.

Hank Graves, a saloon-keeper, was fined $50 for keeping a disorderly house, and allowing drunkenness and disorderly conduct in his saloon.

Barbed Wire Fences.—The bill in relation to barbed wire fences, now before the Legislature, provides that the owners of such fences shall be responsible for damages inflicted to cattle and other animals by coming in conflict with the prickly enclosures, unless a board be placed along the fence, not less than three nor more than four feet from the ground, as a guard against accidents.

Sunday Services.—The Sabbath services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will consist of Sunday schools and meetings in the various wards, the former at 10 a.m., the latter at 2 p.m., and in the evening, at the usual hours.

Home missionaries have been appointed to visit the outer wards of the State during the day.

Careless Concert.—The programme for the grand orchestral concert on Monday is now before the public. All lovers of good music will see, at a glance, what to expect, and will await with impatience the approach of Monday night. The box office opened this morning for the sale of tickets, and from the way they are selling those who wish to get good seats should apply at once, as there will undoubtedly be a full house.

The Demand Supplied.—The office of Superintendent Sharp, at the Salt Lake Railroad depot, was besieged, this morning, by a swarm of applicants for the work of laying iron on the Utah Southern Extension. Mr. Sharp, having let the contract to Messrs. Watson and Latimer, preferred that those gentlemen should be present to make their own selection of workmen, and therefore requested the men to call again this afternoon, when the contractors would be there. No doubt, ere this, the required number of hands has been engaged. They will be sent down the road on Monday morning.

The Lady Constituent Respond.—By private letter from Sister M. Pitchforth, of Nephi, we learn that a petition, which had been prepared by the lady citizens of Juab County, to the Legislative Assembly, praying for the removal of the "political disabilities of their sex," was forwarded yesterday to Hon. Geo. Tinsdale.

It will be remembered that Hon. Joel Grover, one of the representatives from Juab, who moved to table indefinitely the Woman's Bill, in the House, subsequently, in opposing its passage, expressed a desire to hear from his lady constituents with regard to it. Hence this timely move on the part of the ladies of Juab.

Twelfth Ward Reunion.—The social reunion, held in the Twelfth Ward Assembly Rooms yesterday afternoon and evening, was, as predicted, a most happy and enjoyable entertainment. Among the visitors, were President John Taylor, the Presidency of the Stake, Counselor D. H. Wells, and others, but the company was mainly made up from the people of the Ward, a large number of whom were in attendance, with Bishop A. C. Pyper and Counselors and the Ladies Relief Society taking the initiative in making all present feel comfortable and happy.

The exercises were of a very interesting character in the afternoon, including impromptu addresses by Pres. Taylor, Bishop Pyper, and others, the banquet was excellent, and the dance in the evening a perfect success.

UTAH LEGISLATURE.

COUNCIL.

Friday, Jan. 23, 1880, 3 p.m. As previously agreed, the bill to enable Salt Lake City to borrow money from the present charter permitted, came up for consideration, and arguments on the motion made by Councilor Snow, to strike out the clause exempting the city's prospective bonds from taxation, occupied the time until the hour for adjournment.

Councilor Smith spoke to some length, favoring the passage of the bill as it then was, and against the striking out of the clause in question.

He was followed by Councilor Snow, in an address in support of the proposed amendment to render the bonds liable to taxation. This took up the remainder of the time until the adjournment of the Council, to meet on Monday at 2 p.m.

HOUSE.

Friday, Jan. 23, 1880, 3 p.m. The bill for an act in relation to barbed wire fences, after some discussion, was returned to the committee on agriculture, &c., for further consideration.

A bill on roads and highways was referred to the appropriate committee.

The committee on unfinished business reported back a number of bills laid over from the last session. After some discussion as to the propriety of the present Assembly having to do with the business of a past legislature, the report, on motion, was accepted and the bills referred to the appropriate committees.

A bill relating to water rights was presented, read and referred to the committee on irrigation.

A communication from the Auditor of Public Accounts stated that W. C. Dunbar, public printer for the last Legislature, had been permitted by the late auditor, according to agreement, to overdraw his account $121.70, and asked an appropriation from the present Assembly to cover the amount overdrawn. The matter was referred to the committee on claims.

A bill for an act to amend an act regarding special elections to fill vacancies, was presented, read and referred to the committee on elections.

The financial report of Cache County for 1879, was presented. House adjourned until Monday, at 2 p.m.

An Unconscious Cats paw.—An amusing incident occurred in this community, some time ago, which we believe, has not before found its way into the newspapers.

Two young gentlemen were enamored of the same fair maiden, and paid her continual attention. The lady, if she had a preference, concealed it, and each lover exerted every endeavor to make himself first in her estimation, and viewed with secret though well hidden jealousy, every overture made by the other in the direction of their mutual infatuation. One evening a grand ball was to be held, and early on the morning of the preceding day, one of the suitors, being a gentleman of leisure, started for the home of the fair one, to request the honor of her company to the dance next evening.

Passing by the establishment, where he knew his industrious rival was hard at work beneath the watchful eye of a close-calculating employer, he could not resist the temptation of "stepping in" to pass the time of day, and mention his intended visit and its purpose, to one who, unable to get away for a similar end, would of course, highly appreciate such a piece of intelligence.

Concealing a huge grin of triumph, at thought of the misery he would inflict, in his work, and having finished his mission, he turned to go. "And so you are going to the party?" said his friend (?) "Yes, I thought I'd go and take a look at you." "Not at all; happy to oblige you," answered the other. The clerk hastily scribbled a few words upon a sheet of paper, folded and addressed it, and gave it to the accommodating gaiter, to deliver to the very lady he was himself going to see.

Having no suspicion of the contents of the missive, and, if he had, being too honorable to ascertain surreptitiously, our obliging hero, as in duty bound, delivered the note to the young lady, and permitted her to read it before mentioning his own errand. The lady finished its perusal and said, with a bewitching smile, "Certainly." Her visitor, now thinking it was time for him to make known the purpose of his coming, asked if he might have the pleasure of acting as her escort to the grand ball next evening. A look of surprise, mingled with amusement, appeared upon her face for an instant, and then, with a burst of ringing laughter, she turned and fled from the room to regain control of her feelings.

The young man, with his heart in his mouth and his face on fire, picked up the note she had dropped in his flight, and read with trembling lips and dilating eyes:

"Miss ————: My friend, Mr. ————, having kindly volunteered to become my messenger, allow me to ask if you will honor me by permitting me to accompany you to the ball to-morrow evening? Answer by bearer, and oblige. Yours, etc., ————"

The real need scarcely has to be told. Ere the young lady returned to apologize for her unceremonious departure, her disappointed adorer was blocks away, wildly endeavoring to keep pace with his troubled thoughts, and to persuade himself that he had no desire to go to that party anyhow. Which, being the truth, after what had happened, gradually took possession of his soul and shaped his next night's conduct, accordingly.

Ingratitude.—The Herald reproduces the Journal's article on the fraud Harris in extenso, as an advertisement.

Rather unfair, friend Journal, to let out all your printing that way. We've been a friend to you.

"Pyramids of Power."—Elder C. W. Stayner will lecture in the 10th Ward, next Tuesday evening, at half-past seven. This lecture is growing more popular daily. Those who have not yet heard Mr. Stayner should do so, while the lecture season remains.

Come, One and All.—The President of Stakes, now in this city, who have not yet complied with the request of Bishop Edward Hunter, to call at his office and furnish him with the names of the various Bishops and other officers in their respective Stakes, will confer a favor by so doing at their earliest convenience. The want of the necessary information is all that prevents the revised list being published immediately. We hope the brethren will see this notice and respond as desired, as the end to be attained is for the good of the public.

"Leader" Lines.—The following items are from the Logan Leader of the 23d inst:

Last Friday a young man by the name of Benjamin Willmore suffered a painful injury. He was engaged in loading ice into a wagon when he slipped and a large crystal block up an incline plane into the vehicle, he slipped and fell. The ice landed on the side of his head with terrible force, fracturing his ear in a frightful manner, and also crushing slightly a bone immediately in front of the ear.

David Rowe, the young man recently injured so grievously in the railroad accident near Mendon, is progressing very favorably under the care of Dr. Ormsby. The most serious symptom now is that some of his fingers and toes feel continually as if they were asleep—an indication of paralysis.

Messiah in Millville. There are already not less than 20 cases in that village. Several families are seriously affected by having all the children attacked at once.

Also, at same place, January 17th, 1880, of fever, MARY ELIZABETH, daughter of the above, aged 17 years and 11 months.

In Oakland, Alameda Co., Dec. 31, 1879, of fever, MARY ANN ALBERTA, formerly of Glasgow, Scotland, deceased was 56 years of age, she died in full faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, was the mother of the late Agnes Pack, of Kansas, U. S.

At Wales, Sanpete Co., on the 14th of Jan., 1880, of lung fever, SARAH, daughter of David and Ann Rice, and wife of Canaan Lewis.

Deceased was born June 23d, 1815, at Morristown, Tennessee, and resided in Utah for many years. She was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She leaves a husband and two small children and a large community of friends to mourn her loss, and will be missed greatly in this place. She died in full faith of a glorious resurrection.
