HEIR TO MILLIONS.

Schatzel Claims a Hundred and Seventy Square Miles of Texas.

HIS ROMANTIC STORY TOLD.

The Matter Placed in the Hands of a New York Lawyer to be Vigorously Pushed in the Courts.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Henry Frederick Schatzel lives in humble surroundings near the little saloon keeper in Brooklyn, yet he may be one of the wealthiest men in the city. He is sured to bring suit for property in Texas amounting to nearly two hundred and seventy square miles of land, valuing and worth at least $25,000,000. The story of his claim is all of romance, mystery and crime.

Mr. Schatzel's uncle, John Peter Schatzel, played an important part in the revolutionary history of Texas. He fought as a private under Napoleon, was wounded at Austerlitz, became a prisoner and after the disastrous Russian campaign sailed from Antwerp to New Orleans. There he went into business and in the end of several years made enough money to retire and settle in Texas. In 1836 he joined Sam Houston in the revolt of Texas against Mexico and was United States consul at Galveston when the annexation of the Lone Star state in 1845. He invested largely in real estate buying up scores of valuable counties of Texas. Character, Drive and Corpus Christi. In 1847 he announced his intention of returning to Frankfort-on-the-Main with $40,000 in gold from the New Orleans mint. Before he could start he died suddenly and mysteriously. It was supposed that he had been poisoned. He left no relatives, save a nephew, Henry Schatzel, living in the town of Kronstadt, knowing nothing of John Peter's fate or of the fortune that awaited himself. The years passed. The boy grew up in Texas now, the middleman could, he joined in the exodus of adventurers. From time to time they sent word of some of their property, but unfortunate news. Then came the news of the estate have passed in the hands of strangers. The town of Corpus Christi and many other settlements have been built on it. But the title of the purchasers is in vain, as soon as the heirs the estate of limitations can be established. Even if they are defeated, or if suit is not brought, the heirs are sure to find heirs.

Twenty years ago Henry became alone in the country and finally settled in Brooklyn. Recently he was eventually of the fortune left by his uncle he went out to Texas and employed lawyers to prosecute his claim. As claimed the property of people in the counties named are interested he made no progress. He says his lawyer was bought off. Now he has placed the matter in the hands of Lawyer Walsh, of this city, who will move start for Corpus Christi. He is sanguine of success.

GORED BY A BULL.

The Third Victim of a Bovine's Rage.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Jacob Swarts, a butcher, employed on the stock farm of C. H. Coleman, at Delaware, N. J., was attacked and gored beyond all semblance by an infuriated bull last night. Swarts had entered the pen to care for the bulls. When Swarts's assistant was attacked in another direction, the bull made a plunge and pinioned the man against the side of the stalls with his sharp horns of the animal. The backing off he repeatedly attacked Swarts until he hoisted his body through the heavy board partition into the next stall. Swarts was then at last picked up a few minutes later. The bull was formerly the property of Benson McPherson and is the largest, one of the kind in the country, weighing over 5,000 pounds. Swarts is the third man he has killed.

Death of a Midget.

ASHLAND, Ky., Oct. 29.—Abner Astrop, the midget, is dead in his mountain home in Jackson county at the age of 42 years. Astrop never had grown to be more than forty pounds and at the time of his death his weight was but thirty pounds. He was but two feet and a half in height. Astrop was born in Johnson county and was one of five children. He was of normal size in childhood, but he never kept pace with his mates. His strength for a dwarf was remarkable. His parents established him in a small cider press store where he was 10 years old and he spent his life in it. Barnum managers made flattering offers to him but he refused them. He died worth $10,000. He never married and was never outside his native county.

DIED POOR.

Once a Millionaire, He Expires in an Alms-House.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—A. J. Haines, twenty years ago one of San Francisco's millionaires, died recently at the Alms House. He was buried in a nameless unpaid burial in the potter's field. Haines was the original founder and owner of the Northern Pacific and Haines mine near Cheyenne, Wyoming, Nev., and for several years was one of the leading social and financial lights of San Francisco. He spent his money with a little Mexican. Such friends went from him. After his money was gone he became the victim of the stock exchange and was twice bankrupt. Last November he was found was about $5,000, but when the Territory is relinquished it will use the Northern Pacific.

He Recommends President Cleveland for the company grants the polygamists, and recommends the reclamation to the Mormon Church of its realty, worth $500,000.

ADDRESSING ANARCHISTS.

Dr. Parkhurst Will Enlist Uncle Sam's Aid in Their Behalf.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Dr. Parkhurst continued last evenings series of meetings by appearing before a gathering of the more frequent wing of anarchists and urging them to organize to enlist their services in the cause of good government. There were Emma Goldman, Joe Ly, Isaac Hamburg, Hackwell's talent, Esther R. Martin, one time of Hackwell's Talent, Marie Comsky, Mme. Meunier, Mrs. Helman, Mrs. Elizabeth Merrill, Rev. Hoag, Morse, Harris and several others of the more flamboyant lights of anarchy. The meeting was at the home of Mme. Marie Louise David, No 179 Waverly Place. The avowed purpose of the meeting was to organize what might be called a federal branch of the Women's Club, which has begun to agitate for its mission work against Tammany Hall and for good government among the people of the east side, who have hitherto neglected. The doctor talked earnestly to the people, telling them that however much he might differ from them on many matters there were others upon which he could they could agree. It was in this spirit he addressed them. They agreed on the proposition that the government of the city of New York is not what it ought to be. He proposed that they join with the other good folks in trying to make it better.

WORLD'S FAIR ROMANCE.

She Eloped With a Cowboy and Now Sues for Divorce.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 30.—As a sequel to an interesting World's Fair romance which was widely published and in which Letter-Carrier Sweet figured as the angry father restraining with an armed array of weapons for the cowboy lover of his daughter, a decision just rendered in the divorce division of the circuit court will be published. The parties Sweet, who eloped last spring with Andrew W. Gormley, one of Buffalo Bill's cowboys, has been granted a divorce by Judge Tuthill, and in the suit she charged against the husband.

The girl told how she had run away with her cowboy lover and gone to Mexico to be married because her father had refused his consent. After they had returned to Chicago she said her husband had struck her on the face a blow in early spring. He has never done a day's work since they were married and had spent what little money she received from her father. Bows, kicks and cuffs had been his only recognition of her, and she had endured them so long as she could.

JAPANESE LANDING.

Another Force Invades Chinese Soil.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Chee Foo says a force of Japanese landed yesterday near Port Adamson, on the north side of the Yalu River, and occupied the place. The Chinese were driven out. The Japanese are now in the vicinity of Wiju, where the Chinese are concentrating.

THE CHINESE DEFEATED.

Report of Minister Denby to the State Department, Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Minister Denby, who is expected to be at his departure from Peking today, says the Chinese forces have been defeated at Cheng Ling Cheng and have retreated to Ping Yang. He also reports that the Japanese have taken one of the Chinese forts at Port Arthur.

The issue of the Sino-Japanese is not clear to the Yalu River in Manchuria, and it looks the hot fast approaching to remain in the Japanese in Chinese soil. The Japanese are in Japan's favor. Indeed, it is stated upon the campaign with Stoeckel, the Manchurian consul, as the objective point. Unless they are fully prepared to meet a winter campaign, which is terrible weather in eastern Manchuria, they will be obliged to force the fighting, as only Simon says remains the and will winter there.

In the neighborhood of Port Arthur, where the Japanese success is reported, the winter climate is not so severe, and the troops may be quartered in comfort. Denby says, Japanese government will not, however, be able to enlist their services in the cause of good government. There were Emma Goldman, Joe Ly, Isaac Hamburg, Hackwell's talent, Esther R. Martin, one time of Hackwell's Talent, Marie Comsky, Mme. Meunier, Mrs. Helman, Mrs. Elizabeth Merrill, Rev. Hoag, Morse, Harris and several others of the more flamboyant lights of anarchy. ## GOVERNOR WEST'S REPORT.

Cost of Entertaining the Industrials from California.

Recommended to be Restored the Free Estate Property of the Church.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30.—The annual report of Governor West, of Utah, was published today. He charges the Southern Pacific road with responsibility for dumping the Coxey forces industrial army upon the people of Utah. He says the expense entailed was about $5,000, and before the Territory is relinquished it will use the Southern Pacific.

He Recommends President Cleveland for the company grants the polygamists, and recommends the reclamation to the Mormon Church of its realty, worth $500,000.

RED HOT POLITICS.

Populist Editor Arrested on the Charge of Sedition.

THE OBJECTIONABLE ARTICLE.

By Inciting Honest People to Mass Meeting the Crime is Committed with the Law, It Seems.

BUTLER, Tenn., Oct. 30.—E. F. Talley, editor of the Populist Advocate, a Populist newspaper, has been arrested on the charge of sedition, growing out of the publication of the following article:

"Alas! considering the matter it has been determined to hold a mass meeting, which all honest people are invited to attend, on November 3rd. The object is to give an opinion as a determination now exists in the minds and hearts of the people to die rather than to submit to anything but a fair election. To submit to such gaining frauds as were practiced in the August election is to be cowards and dishonest and publicans, and the honest people are not yet ready to do, and before they will do it they will look for a word from home. Every honest man who desires a fair and honest election is earnestly urged to quit his daily avocation and come to the mass meeting and show that he is at least an honest person and fight. Come everybody."

Editor Talley waived preliminary examination and was admitted to his bond $2,500 bonds. The law under which he was arrested is the statute of the revised statutes of Tennessee for inciting of a mass meeting for the purpose of resisting the law. Talley was recently found guilty of libel and compelled to pay $1,000 damages.

Pioneered by Pirates.

GLOUCESTER, Oct. 30.—The Italian bark Stalloni, from Philadelphia, September 25, for Palermo, has been boarded by pirates off Nova Scotia. Allen, the pilot, joined the vessel at Lisbon as one of passengers.

Ex-Premier Merrier Dead.

MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—Ex-Premier Mercier died here at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

A CLOSE CALL.

Prof. Baldwin Shot at by an Unknown Man.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 30.—Prof. Baldwin, the White Mahoney, was shot at by some crank near the corner of Asylum and Ann streets, one night. The ball was fired at professor's hat and the hat itself was powder burned, so close was the pistol held to his head. He says he was alone and without the use of heavy stage stilters, and as far as reported, the Japanese are not supplied with this implement of warfare. It is believed the capture of Port Arthur would give Japan control of the Gulf of Pechili and cut off the Chinese capital from communication with the south. It is believed the Japanese will make a most determined effort to capture the fortress. It is believed they are prepared to do this, even if it involves a long and bitter winter campaign, and the supposition is borne out by the fact that the agents of the Japanese government in this country have purchased a large quantity of warm clothing and practically cornered the market. These items are commonly used in China and Japan as a necessary part of the soldiers' winter raiment.

THE BYERS-NIDEVERT.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings Dismissed—Suit for Damages.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Habeas corpus proceedings began in August by Mrs. Anna H. Byers against Dr. Tallman, John Davis and Harry B. Shields and Peter L. Nimbrey, to recover her husband, Lieutenant Col. Byers, a young millionaire, have been dismissed. Mrs. Byers's attorney, ex-Solicitor General Aldrich said today suit would be brought for damages in the sum of $25,000 against Ebenezer's brother, A. M. Byers, for the recovery of the former's property. Action for damages will also be brought against the Misses Nimbrey, Mrs. Byers claims, aided in keeping her husband from her.

RECEIVER TO CHILD.

A Bright, Fair Boy the Subject of Controversy.

STAUNTON, Va., Oct. 30.—The first application for a receiver of a child in a Virginia court, so far as known, has been made and granted here. The parties to the controversy are Wm. B. Gray and Mrs. Yelden Coale Gray, of Augusta county. The child is a bright, fair lad, nearly five years old. Mr. Gray is a native of this city where his brother and mother now reside. He married Miss Yelden Coale, eight years and two years later wedded Miss Coale, of San Diego. The by-in controversy is their only child. Three weeks ago the lad left San Diego and came to Virginia with his mother, accompanied by her father, Colonel Coale. The Coales lived in California, came here and applied to Judge McLaughlin, of the circuit court, for the appointment of a temporary receiver for the child, pending the re-all at the same court for the permanent custody. The petition was granted and Sheriff Wade named as receiver, to receive. Last night Wade, Mr. Gray alighted with the child from an adjoining train, the sheriff took possession of the child.
