NEWS OF THE PLAGUE

Japan and North China Alive with Cholera Germs.

THE DISEASE SPREADING RAPIDLY

Foreigners Stricken Down—Thousands of Victims—Thousands of Cases Reported from Russia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Notwithstanding the endeavors of the Japanese and Chinese authorities to suppress news concerning the cholera, the truth has at last come to light concerning the plague. Japan and North China are fairly alive with cholera germs. Situation officials have declared Japanese open ports infected, and from official sources it is learned that over 12,000 people have died in Japan from the plague since its start in the Pescadores.

In China the disease has gained a firm foothold. Advices by the steamer Rio Janeiro report that in Tokio the heat is terrific, and the disease germs have been carried up by the climate into Hiogo. On the Rio Janeiro it could be learned concerning Yokohama, but nevertheless the plague is ravaging there also.

In China, at Chee Foo, the disease is spreading rapidly. Miss Turner and the child of Dr. and Mrs. McFarlane of the Chee Foo London mission were stricken down and died. At Nanking much illness prevails among foreigners, many of whom have been forced to flee from the country. The ravages of cholera in Japan are far greater than have been reported. Up to August 26th, just before the Rio sailed, 17,826 deaths from the disease were reported.

PT. PESCADORES, Sept. 15.—In the province of Venkyron, between August 16th and August 24th, inclusive, 6,849 cases of cholera were reported, and 4,134 deaths resulted from the disease. In the province of Pakabis, from the 21st to the 31st of August, 101 cases of cholera and 45 deaths were reported.

Plans for a Free Silver Convention.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Plans are now being formulated for a great free-silver convention in Chicago. It is intimated that this convention, in the event that the old parties refuse to place a free-silver plank in their platforms, shall nominate candidates for the presidency and vice presidency and organize for an active campaign in 1896.

This was decided upon at today's session of the free-silver conference at the auditorium. The question was brought before the meeting by Congressman Anderson, who presented a resolution calling for the action outlined above.

REVIVAL OF TRADE.

Probabilities of the Future Viewed by the London Standard.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The Standard, in an editorial on the revival of the world's trade, says: In both England and America the expansion in the movement of capital is partly due to renewed activity on the stock exchanges, but the railroad returns show a solid substratum of increased mercantile transactions. The returns have inspired in America the earliest because America awoke first. The money market is now overloaded, partly due to the bungling currency experiment in the United States, but the heavy bullion movements from England to America have not upset any of the great markets. Everything points to a further expansion of trade. For a time high prices might overtake high tariff, but much depends in the next few years upon how America and France and the colonies shall treat England in the matter of tariff. The United States seems disposed to revert towards McKinleyism. Should they do so they will suffer a more serious defeat in their effort to control the world's food and cotton supply than they have ever done.

Lord Dunraven Replies.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Lord Dunraven's representatives, H. Maitland Kersey, called upon Commodore Smith, chairman of the America's cup committee, today and took with him the letter to which Mr. C. Oliver Iselin refused to resell the race, in which the Valkyrie failed the Defender. The letter is as follows:

ON BOARD DEFENDER,
Sept. 12, 1895.

Dear Lord Dunraven—Although the regatta committee gives Defender yesterday's race, under the circumstances I should much prefer calling the race off and resailing it tomorrow. I trust this will meet with your views. Do kindly answer at once.

Very truly yours,
C. OLIVER ISELIN.

H. Maitland Kersey gave out the following statement:

"Lord Dunraven would like it clearly understood that the offer contained in Mr. Iselin's letter of September 16th, which appeared in this morning's papers, to resail either the last two races, or the whole series, has never been made known to him, either by Mr. Iselin or by the members of the cup or regatta committee."

Mr. Kersey was seen at the White Star dock this afternoon. Regarding his statement he said: "I was merely speaking for Lord Dunraven. He says that he never received a letter from Mr. Iselin offering to resail the races."

On the steamship Majestic, which sailed for Liverpool this afternoon, were Commodore Gleadle, sailmaker Thomas Hatsey and twenty-five members of the Valkyrie's crew.

THE POPE'S PROSPECTS.

Restoration of His Temporal Power Seriously Discussed.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Discussing the revival of the rumor that Italy may be induced to cede a small territory to the pope, a Paris correspondent telegraphs that the project for the pope's ransom by the Catholic World, which is described as "a noble American concert," is no secret in the cabinets of Europe, which have been for some time in possession of the details of the plan. It will involve, in addition to the establishment of the papacy in a principality with its own support, certain naval privileges and the restoration of confiscated church property. Negotiations are said to be proceeding between the Vatican and the Quirinal.

BELGIAN AFRICAN AFFAIRS.

A Time of Trouble at Hand for King Leopold.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—There are indications that the powers may be invited to interfere in the affairs of Belgium and the Congo free state. The feeling in England regarding King Leopold's African venture was never very favorable, and the execution of the English trader Stokes, without, it is alleged, observance of due process of law, excited much comment here, which found much expression in the late session of Parliament, when the foreign office was urged to demand explanations.

The report which reached this country in private letters, is called exclusively for the Associated Press yesterday, that a condition of virtual anarchy prevails in the Congo free state, that in several instances Belgian troops have been defeated and slaughtered by natives, and that two Englishmen were murdered there and eaten by savages, have intensified the feeling, which is given voice in a letter to the St. James Gazette this afternoon. After reciting the facts above alluded to, the Gazette says: "A troublous time is clearly at hand for King Leopold, whose African responsibilities are greater than Mr. Stanley led him to expect that they would be."

TICKET BROKERS AT WAR.

Reduced Rates Between Chicago and San Francisco the Result.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The ticket brokers of this city are at war, and as a consequence they are selling tickets from Chicago to San Francisco at reduced rates, and even from the standpoint of the scalper, rates are being badly cut. It all comes about through the actions of the two associations of scalpers that do business here, the American and Guarantee. Both associations are national in their scope, and they have from time to time boycotted certain railroad lines with the idea of keeping away from them as much business as possible. The transcontinental brokers have of late been underselling the association scalpers, and the latter claim that the boycotted roads have been furnishing to their competitors tickets at rates lower than should there be cut under the association brokers. The result has been that the Chicago association of the league brokers has gone to total smash, and the brokers are all fighting for themselves.

The demoralization has been carried to such an extent that the roads are feared that before the thing is ended the regular rates may become involved and they are watching the fight of the brokers with great interest.

There seems to be an excellent prospect that the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight will cause the determination of the presidents of the Southwest roads to maintain rates to be severely tested before the courts are in. Some of the roads have tickets in rather hot by with the tickets of admission to the fight, which they are using as a lever to secure business, and as the price of admission to the fight is only $5 less than the authorized rate of one fare for the round trip from Chicago to Dallas, the roads will, as one general passenger agent expressed it today, "soon be giving away a reduced ticket to the fight, instead of giving away a ticket to the fight with every railroad ticket."

WOMAN FAT OF A TRAIN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Miss Maud Morgan of Los Angeles was put off the overland train at Fort Costa for traveling on a ticket issued originally to Mrs. M. J. Hall. She refused to sign her name for the purpose of comparing it with that of Mrs. Hall, as originally signed in the book, and was, after a struggle, ejected from the car. The ticket called for a round trip from San Diego to Chicago.

PRESSED THE BUTTON.

Cleveland's Part in the Opening of the Atlanta Exposition.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Sept. 18.—The gold-trimmed button which was used in connecting Gray Gables, the summer home of President Cleveland, with the motor in Machinery hall at the Cotton States and International exposition at Atlanta, Ga., was pressed by the chief executive of the United States at 6:05 this evening. The line of the Western Union Telegraph company yesterday completed connection between Gray Gables and the main line of the company, which runs parallel with the New York, New Haven & Harlem River railroad. The wire, after being carried over the poles bearing the private telephone line into Gray Gables, ended in what is called an the "dome room," an apartment on the second floor, in which the President keeps his hunting and fishing apparatus. The button was placed not far from the telephone cabinet, and here, in the presence of the President's family, Private Secretary Thurber, Western Union employes, and a few representatives of the press, the President filled the part for which he was cast.

Spanish Troops in Havana.

HAVANA, Sept. 18.—The steamer Santa Barbara has arrived here with 1,000 soldiers and 37 officers from Tetuan, Morocco. The troops were given a fine reception by the citizens of Havana. The newspapers here distributed among the newcomers 15,000 cigars and 20,000 packages of cigarettes.

The enthusiasm of the reception accorded to these troops was indescribable, and is compared with the scenes which attended the departure of the first regiment from New York for the South at the breaking out of the civil war in the United States. The regiment was reviewed by Gen. Arderius. As they marched through the streets they were greeted by vast crowds, and were showered with flowers and cheered by the waving of handkerchiefs and fans. They were presented with medals of the Virgin and scapulars. Numberless people insisted on shaking hands with the officers and soldiers, and embraced them. General de Campos arrived at Santiago de Cuba.

DURRANT TRIAL.

The Prosecution Approaching the Close of Its Direct Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—The prosecution in the trial of Durrant for the murder of Blanche Lamont is approaching the close of its direct case, and will finish it early next week.

The opening statement of the defense is awaited with much interest. It will be the first intimation of what the defense has to prove. It has been talk ed in addition for Durrant would show, and further, that another man than Durrant went into the Emmanuel church when the prisoner is said to have entered it.

When the case was resumed today, Miss Edna Lonille Turner was the first witness. She is a member of the Emmanuel church, and knows Durrant. She testifies that on April 3d she was with Blanche Lamont in Emmanuel church. Mrs. Lease yesterday testified that the girl she saw walking into Emmanuel church with Durrant was either Blanche Lamont or Lonille Turner. With the latter's denial that she was with the defendant, the testimony of Mrs. Lease virtually amounts to a statement that Durrant was accompanied by Blanche Lamont.

Organist George King of Emmanuel church was then put upon the stand to prove that he saw the prisoner in the church at 5 o'clock on the afternoon of April 3d, or almost an hour after Durrant was said by Mrs. Lease to have entered the church. In reply to questions by the district attorney, King said that he had been an intimate friend of and companion of the defendant for five years, and that the intimacy had kept up since Durrant's arrest. The witness admitted that since April he had frequently called on the prisoner at the county jail, and had visited Durrant's parents at their home. These statements were drawn from the witness to show the relations existing between him and the prisoner, and because reports were in general circulation that the witness intended to so frame his testimony that it would, if possible, benefit the defense.

King proved an unwilling witness for the prosecution, apparently shielding Durrant whenever possible. Any statement about the defendant was dragged from him only by the most earnest and persistent questioning on the part of the district attorney. He admitted having discussed his testimony both with the prisoner and with Durrant's attorneys at their offices. He admitted that the defendant and his attorneys probably advised him to modify his testimony as given at the preliminary examination. This created a tremendous sensation, but on cross-examination he said he had not been asked to change his evidence. He told how he had come into Emmanuel church to play a new piece on the organ, and after he had been playing a few minutes, Durrant appeared, pale, dishevelled, breathless, sick, and without hat or coat. Durrant had said that while repairing some gas pipes he had been overcome, and at Durrant's request, the witness went to a drug store and purchased some tromo-seltzer, which Durrant drank. Then at his request, Durrant helped carry a small organ from one part of the church to the other. The prisoner appeared exhausted, and was frequently obliged to stop and rest. The witness stated he detected no escaping gas, and thought all the gas jets and pipes were in perfect order.

Dr. and Mrs. Herrick Acquitted.

HANCOCK, Mich., Sept. 18.—Dr. J. C. Herrick and his wife were brought here from the Pelkeys jail today and arraigned before Judge Hurd, on the charge of Amos J. Sickleat. They pleaded not guilty, and the trial was set for Saturday, December 14th. The prisoners were then taken back to jail.

IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

An Interesting Paper Read by C. S. Rhoades of Utah.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 18.—[Special to the Tribune.] The only matter of importance at the evening session was a paper by C. S. Rhoades, of Utah, on "The Legal Aspect of Irrigation." The speaker, in a masterly manner, reviewed irrigation laws, especially dwelling on the Wright law of California. His address was especially valuable to the legal lights of the country, very many of whom were present.

The congress will be formally adjourned tomorrow, although there will scarcely be any attendance, as the majority of the delegates intended to avail themselves of the excursions which have been prepared for them by Albuquerque.

In conversation with George Q. Cannon this evening, the Tribune's correspondent learns that the Utah delegation intended going in a body to Santa Fe before returning to Utah. Then the following will return and take in the Pecos Valley: Messrs. George Q. Cannon, Mrs. Cannon, Judge L. W. Shurtliff, Miss Shurtliff, C. S. Kinney, John C. Cutler, Nephi Madsen, James M. Peterson, Colonel C. L. Stevenson and Hon. John H. Smith, while the delegates going on the excursion to Pecos will be Hon. Edward Partridge, Andrews Madsen, C. H. Clark and James A. Lowden.

Hon. George Q. Cannon was elected a vice president of the irrigation congress.

Will Fight the New Rates.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—The Examiner says that the Southern Pacific railroad will apply to the United States courts to prevent the new rates on freight established by the interstate commission from going into effect.
