The Supreme Court Denies His Application for Habeas Corpus.

THE DECISION UNANIMOUS.

Delivered by the Most Important Tribunal Since the Court Was the Participant of the Income Tax.

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 27.—The United States Supreme Court today passed upon the application of Eugene V. Debs for a writ of habeas corpus. This is a victory for the government. No more important question with the exception of the income tax has come before the Supreme Court during the past year. The application of Debs and others for a writ of habeas corpus was based on the ground that the imprisonment of the defendants was illegal because the United States had no jurisdiction in the premises. The decision of the court was unanimous. Justice Brewer delivered the opinion of the court. The application was denied. The opinion of the court in the case of Debs, Howard, Rogers and Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, petitioners, on habeas corpus, was delivered by Justice Brewer. The court was unanimous in its decision
