DESERET EVENING NEWS

TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Observations taken at 8 a. m., Monday time.

Forecast till 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Local Forecast for Salt Lake City and Vicinity:

Fair and warmer tonight and Tuesday.

For Utah (forecast made at San Francisco):

Utah: Tonight and Tuesday, stationary temperature.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

An area of high pressure is central this morning over western Nebraska and a second "high" has just formed in Columbia. So will fair weather prevail over the Rocky Mountains and Plateau states. Heavy rains have fallen at Denver, Pueblo, Dodge City, Calgary, Santa Fe, Omaha, Abilene, Davenport, St. Paul, St. Louis and Memphis.

G. H. BURNSIDE, Section Director.

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, Bar, 60 3-8

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The actual, bona fide circulation of the Semi-Weekly edition of the News, separate and apart from the daily, was, on the last issue,

12,660 COPIES

The largest circulation of any paper between Denver and the coast. Books open to advertisers.

The following figure give the number of the Semi-Weekly News printed on the first and fifteenth of each month since the paper changed hands on January 1, 1899:

January 1, 1899	10,233
January 15, 1899	10,775
February 1, 1899	10,475
February 15, 1899	10,600
March 1, 1899	10,750
March 15, 1899	11,000
April 1, 1899	11,325
April 15, 1899	11,550
May 1, 1899	11,850
May 15, 1899	12,050
June 1, 1899	12,100
June 15, 1899	12,400
July 1, 1899	12,549
July 15, 1899	12,660

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Protest (Idaho) Journal: W. H. Dick, Salt Lake manager of the Middleton Banking Co., with Alex Robbie of Soda Springs, was in town last week.

Mrs. Irene (White) Simpson, of Bellaire, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Rosella (White) Harrison of Springville. This is their first meeting in forty years. They are the seventh generation from Peregrine White, the first white child born in New England.

Evanston News-Register: Quite a number of people from Evanston and Almy will leave today (Saturday) to be in attendance at the opening of the Pioneer day in Salt Lake City. The special cars will be run to accommodate the excursionists.

The fire department was called out last night and made quite a stir in the grounds recently occupied by the Dolly dog and pony show. The refreshment stand and a lot of rubbish caught fire, but was quickly extinguished. No damage was done except the burning of a few pocket trees.

Chas. Goff, Gus Rhein, William Otto and Francis, the pole jackies who were killed in give an exhibition at the Sun Palace next Friday, failed to arrive in Salt Lake yesterday according to announcement. It is said that they have gone on to Denver to fill other engagements. It appears that the letters sent to the men from here were not received by them when they reached Denver and they had started on their journey without knowing they were wanted here.

Mrs. Bill Robert, in company with a lady friend, left on Sunday, July 9, for Provo, where she is visiting relatives and friends. While in Provo she was driving somewhere one evening and had an exciting runaway with a team which she was driving. The team turned at the intersection of State and First South streets. The ladies were driven south and just as they reached State street, a young man on a bicycle endeavored to pass close in front of the horses. They took a violent fright and in a second the rig was on the pavement, while one of the horses was making the best time he knew how. The ladies were afraid to continue their ride, and the team was sent back to the stables.

FUNERAL OF GEO. W. SCHOLES.

Funeral services over the remains of George W. Scholes were held at noon yesterday at 111 Clinton road, and the interment was in the city cemetery. A large number of friends and relatives attended the services, the speakers being Elders John Morgan, D. P. Thomas, M. F. Wood, H. G. Goddard and Hubert Pierce. The pall bearers were of George D. Pyper, John Cram, Joseph Edwards, W. H. Patrick, Miss Margaret Collins, Mrs. Hugh Hugh. Music furnished the occasion was rendered. The deceased was a member of Troy No. 3, Knights of Pythias, of Salt Lake City, Utah, and a veteran from the ranks in that city, with H. H. Pomeroy in charge, and was buried with the honors of war. Mr. Scholes died a few days ago at a ripe old age. He was a member of the 1st Pioneers, William Woodruff, president, of the late Pioneers, William Woodruff.

FUNERAL OF GUY WILLIS.

All that was mortal of Guy Willis was laid to rest in Mount Olivet cemetery. The funeral services were held at the family residence, 1 East First South street, and were largely attended. The Knight Templar Drill team was present.

The services were conducted by Rev. W. M. Paden. Prof. Ure did quite a few appropriate numbers. The music was beautiful and inspiring. The pall bearers were L. H. Pierce, Chas. Hoag, Jr., James Hoag, Jr., Jos. Hoag, Jr., H. M. Atkinson and James Simpson. The Veteran Pioneers in uniform attended in a body, and a large number of Knights of Pythias with sash present.

ZION'S SAVINGS BANK and Trust Co.

The oldest and largest savings bank in Utah; pays 4 per cent interest on $1 or thousands. Best security on earth.

UTAH COAL.

Castle Gate and Winter Quarters, Lump, Nut and Slack.
Anthracite, all sizes.
D. J. SHARP, Agent.
13 South Main. Telephone, 42.

UTAH COMMERCIAL AND SAV'S. BANK

Interest paid on savings. Francis Armstrong, pres.; P. W. Madsen, vice-pres.; J. E. Caine, cashier.

LOANS.

6 per cent interest on residence property loans. Call and get my terms.
WICKES, 12 Slate St.

SERVICES IN THE TABERNACLE

United States, German and Scotch Missions are Heard From.

HEALING POWER IS SEEN.

Stock Apathy Exists but the Work is Progressing Very Well—More Laborers Needed.

The meeting in the Tabernacle yesterday convened at 2 p.m. Services were conducted by Counselor Jos. E. Taylor.

The choir sang:

"Great God attend while Zion sings."

Prayer was offered by Elder George H. Taylor of the Fourteenth ward.

The choir then sang the hymn:

"God moves in a mysterious way."

A request call was made for any bishop's ward missionaries to report their labors from the stand. The following Elders responded, viz: Frank Stewart, Geo. H. Cox, John T. Edward, Louis A. Stevenson and Byron A. West.

ELDER FRANK SEGMILLER.

who has just returned from a mission to Germany, said he felt so unworthy who the Lord of God to be being permitted to address such a large body of saints. He felt he needed the faith of the prayers of the Latter-day Saints in order to be in his remarks. It was very difficult to addressing small parties, and he felt very humble in addressing those who stood thirty feet above him. He felt the weakness assembled. Nevertheless the spirit of God was manifested in his behalf which is those small meetings as in the larger ones at home. In foreign lands the saints are scattered and only one in a city the gifts of God are more valued. It sought in the world then at home. Elder Segmiller said he was called to preach the gospel in a call made to the President of the Lord. He with many more went out without purse or scrip. He did not not know much about the way in which to commence, but was carried on. He first went to Switzerland and spent three weeks and in Frankfort on Main. A few months after his arrival he felt duty in leaving the kingdom in which he was greatly blessed. He then was called to Hamburg, Germany, and he was able to testify regarding the divinity of Joseph Smith's mission. After three months he was called to Berlin and Dresden, in the Grand Duchy of Saxony. It was virtually a new field. But the Lord opened the way and blessed him and he had a great many baptisms in that place. Though he was called to the Lord's work he was called to Rockhan. There he found the Elders in a very bad condition. They failed to be faithful to their trust and sought to prevent the people from receiving the gospel. He was called to the Elders' quarters and found them