MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS.

TRADING DULL ON EXCHANGE.

The Bears Still Have Control of The Market.

CALIFORNIA SOME STRONGER

Better Figures Not Expected Until Reports From Mines Reach Chairman of Listing Committee.

Business on the mining exchange this morning was very dull a total of only 27,400 shares being dealt in for $15,091.75. The bear element still reigns supreme and with few exceptions the stocks closed lower than yesterday's closing figure. There appears to be much reason for this continued bear movement for certain reported strikes have failed to pan out, certain expected dividends have failed to put in an appearance and certain unexpected assessments have been levied and are threatening. In fact, until reports are received by Chairman Bamberger of the exchange listing committe from all the mines notified to send in statements of their affairs, it is extremely doubtful whether the market will show any great degree of strength.

During this morning's call Ajax was sold to the extent of 1,200 shares at prices off from 60. Carisa was traded in around 54, and Lower Mammoth was quite active 1,100 shares changing hands between $1.24 and $1.32½.

May Day sold down from 58 to 56¾ closing with a sale of 200 shares at 56¾. Silver Shield brought 4-4¾ upon sales amounting to 5,000 shares and sales of Star Con. and Sunshine were made around 31 for the former stock and at 14¾ for the latter.

Uncle Sam Con. began with sales at 67½ sold to 68 and closed with 67¾ bid and 67½ asked. California followed with total sales of over 8,000 shares at figures better than 65 at which the opening sale was made.

Century was lower selling 300 shares at 98-97½. Little Chief and Victor were dealt in to a limited extent and the morning's call closed with the following bid and asked prices recorded:

MILL TO BE REBUILT.

Sacramento Will Have New Mill Up Within Ninety Days.

The management of the Sacramento mine of Mercur, has ordered a great quantity of lumber which is now being shipped to the company's property. This lumber is to be used in the re-construction of the Sacramento mill, which burned down some time ago.

When seen today and interviewed regarding the work now going on in Mercur, Mr. Glen R. Bothwell stated that the company intended to rebuild the mill with all possible dispatch. "It will probably be completed in sixty or ninety days time," said he, "and it will be of the same, 150 tons daily capacity, as before the fire. The mines are looking well so Superintendent Evan Jones reports and things are progressing nicely."

ONTARIO DIVIDEND.

Stockholders Receive $45,000 Christmas Money Today.

The Ontario Mining company pays its quarterly dividend of thirty cents a share, amounting to $45,000, today. This makes the total amount paid this year $75,000, and increases the grand total in dividends to $14,735,000.

APRIL FOOL OFFICERS.

Crowd that Recently Acquired the Control Has Elected Officers.

The new owners of the control of the April Fool of De La Mar, Nevada, met in this city yesterday and organized with the election of W. S. Godbe as president; J. D. Wood as vice ppresident; Simon Bamberger as treasurer and D. L. Wertheimer as secretary. R. Selber of Butte with the above named officers constitute the directorate. The article providing for assessments was amended as regards their levying so as to conform to the legal requirements. The work of developing the property will be pushed with vigor under the personal direction of the same superintendent who got out about $500,000 for the former owners.

Ella Hill Incorporated.

The Ella Hill Gold Mining company today filed its articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The capital stock amounts to $25,000 in 5-cent shares. The properties of the company are the Ella Hill, Columbia, Independence, Ajax and North Pole mining claims in the Nell county mining district of Elmore county, Idaho. The directors are: John W. Burton, president; H. A. Smith, vice-president; E. A. Wilson, secretary and treasurer, and A. L. Morris and Fred. Stauffer.

MINING NOTES.

John Dern of the Con. Mercur company is visiting that company's property today.

The management of the Mammoth is at the Taylor and Brunton sampler today with five cars of galena ore.

Prof. Walter P. Jenney, the mining expert, arrived in the city last evening and is a guest at the Knutsford.

The Dexter shipments for the first fifteen days of the month amounted to 4,190 pounds of bars and cyanides.

Thomas Weir has returned from an extended eastern trip in which was included visits to Denver, Kansas City and Chicago.

Manager Frank B. Cook of the Columbia has returned from Bingham and reports work on the tunnel on that property as progressing satisfactorily.

J. A. Shorten, surnamed "Colonel," the obliging assistant secretary of the Salt Lake Mining Exchange, leaves this afternoon for a vacation at Colorado Springs.

The ore and bullion settlements in this city yesterday amounted to $36,200 of which T. R. Jones and company reported for $25,900 and McCornick and company for $10,400.

Manager Geddes of the Swansea has returned from a visit to that property and reports the shaft down to the 1,050 level from where connections are expected to be made with some rich bodies of ore.

Willard F. Snyder says that it is altogether to soon to say whether the option of $750,000 held by himself and his associates on theBalaklava group in the Shasta district of California will be exercised. However they now have 40 men at work on the property and it appears to be opening up finely.

A. L. Morris, the energetic manager of the new Boise mining exchange, came down from that city last evening and reports that business on the exchange is already assuming big proportions and that the Salt Lakers engaged in the brokerage business there are beginning to make money.

Frank Edison, one of the pioneers of Park Valley, is in the city from that district. He reports that there is greater activity in that Boxelder camp now than at any time previous in its history. He says that the Century mine has some great deposits of ore opened up and that when the mill gets to running again he thinks the expectations of those interested in the property will be more than fulfilled. Mr. Edison stated that the pipes at the new Century mill were frozen hard by the recent cold wave and that precautions will at once be taken to prevent such a happening again.

TESORA MEETING HELD AT CULLEN

Committee Appointed to Examine Into Company's Affairs.

MISMANAGEMENT CHARGED.

Minority Shareholders of Tesora Co. Decide to Have Investigation Made Before Paying Assessment.

The minority stockholders of the Tesora Mining company, to the number of twenty-five or thirty, met today noon at the Cullen in response to the to the call of W. H. Havener to discuss the affairs of the company and the matter of the 20-cent assessment per share, recently levied.

Mr. Havenor acted as chairman and Mr. M. R. Hunt as secretary. There were present besides the stockholders dissatisfied with the management of the company Banker W. S. McCornick and Col. Heffron, secretary of the Tesora company.

After considerable discussion and questioning of Secretary Heffron a motion was made and carried that a committee of three be appointed to examine the books of the company and report before next Thursday, the day the 20-cent assessment falls due. A committee composed of Herman Bamberger, chairman; M. R. Hunt and R. J. Evans was named. They will begin the examination tomorrow afternoon and report Monday next to the shareholders.

The examination will be made to ascertain how much ore has been extracted, milled and marketed, how much money received and disbursed, and whether or not exorbitant charges have been paid for the treatment of the Tesora ores.

Before the meeting adjourned Mr. Havenor said that he recently visited the mine and that it appears to be in fine condition there being considerable shipping ore blocked out besides the milling ores. Col. Heffron stated that the best quality of ore yet marketed averaged $15 per ton. The numerous speakers simply stated that they believed that the affairs of the company have been mismanaged and that with more careful direction the mine ought not to need to be supplied with money from the pockets of the stockholders.

COPPER STILL GOES DOWN

At Opening of Market Amalgamated Was Very Excited and Correspondingly Weak.

Rest of List Neglected Although Some Railroads Made Fractional Advances.

New York, Dec. 19.—The opening in Amalgamated Copper was excited and weak. The first sale of 500 shares was at a decline of ½ and continued unloading carried the stock below 65 with feverish fluctuations. The rest of the market was neglected owing to the unsettling influence of Amalgamated Copper, but railroad stocks generally showed fractional advances. Dealings in the general list fell away to almost nothing. Amalgamated Copper vibrated between 65½ and 66½ frequently and was heavily dealt in.

Bonds were steady.

When further cut in the price of copper was announced, St. Paul, Missouri Pacific and Manhattan ran off on a few transactions to about a point under last night, but Amalgamated rose 1⅝ above last night and the market hardened again, becoming almost stagnant.

The market was practically at a standstill when the hour for the assembling of Amalgamated Copper directors arrived. Michigan Central sold at a decline of 14 points. Amalgamated Copper touched 69½ before 2:30 o'clock, and then commenced to vibrate wildly on enormous transactions. The first slump was to 64½, and New York Central, St. Paul, Union Pacific and Manhattan fell to a point or more below yesterday. Rubber goods lost 3¾. The rebound in Amalgamated was to 67½, and the oscillations became narrower about last night's level. The closing was feverish and irregular and very dull. Close:

Stores along Main street are making some very attractive holiday displays in their show windows. In one window on upper Main street may be seen a large representation of a pipe-organ with a huge doll playing on the keys with another large doll representing a singer standing by. Another prominent feature in show windows generally is the candy displays, which are the best the town has ever seen; and an interesting fact is that the candies are made in Salt Lake.

Dealers report a great demand for skates, especially of the club variety, at prices ranging from $2 to $5, the latter being of the nickel plate style. There are five varieties of styles in ladies' skates, and eight varieties in men's skates. Skates that now bring $5, sold for $20 to $25 late in the sixties when the club skate was first brought out. The old-fashioned solid runner, wooden footed skate then took a back seat and has remained there ever since. The new club skate was a great impetus to fancy skating as so much of that work could be done on that class of runners.

A fine large elk's head, with fourteen prongs, the property of Roscoe L. Sayers, adorns the front window of the Western Arms & Sporting Goods company on Main street.

The Utah Light & Power company are using the Fourth West street plant to fill out and equalize the supply of electric power, and the Second East street plant is being utilized to make up to deficiencies of the Cottonwood plant during the heavy demands for railroad and other power during the holiday season. The watershed up the canyon is rather circumscribed, and in cold weather the source of power is apt to be limited. A very heavy street car traffic is expected up to the end of the year.

Coal dealers are not at all apprehensive because a few of the yards were short last Saturday night, as they say there must be at least 10,000 tons altogether in the city yards. There are a dozen kinds of coal said to be on hand to choose from, and prices are quoted at $4.75 to $5.

The Bell Telephone company has completed its southern extension to Minersville on the projected line from Beaver to Milford. The new line from Grand Encampment in Wyoming to Pearl just over the line in Colorado, is being finished, and the line from Cheyenne to Guernsey—the terminus of the Burlington, is also ready for use. The board of directors of the telephone company will meet next Monday, to consider plans for the coming year which General Manager Murray will lay before them. Next year will witness remarkable improvements and extensions of the intermountain telephone system.
