THE LATEST SENSATION.

A Wealthy Lady Elopes with an Aristocratic Blacksmith.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The latest sensation in a matrimonial way is the elopement of Miss Annie Cammack, only daughter of John Cammack, a wealthy retired florist of the city, with a blacksmith who kept a small shop near her father's mansion. The blacksmith bears the aristocratic name of Arlington Hardesty. The couple went over to Baltimore last Friday and were married by Rev. William Clapp. They spent a night in Baltimore and next day at the happy groom's humble lodgings, near Mr. Cammack's mansion.

On Sunday morning the bride pegged over home and announcing that she had just returned from Baltimore, took up her home life where she had left it off. On Monday morning a letter was received by her father from a Baltimore friend, detailing the circumstances of her stay there with Hardesty, and when he confronted her with this story she promptly denied the whole thing. Mr. and Mrs. Cammack, bent on satisfying themselves, went over to Baltimore and found the marriage in the books at the recorder's office. That night Mrs. Hardesty went home with her husband again to his modest quarters over a neighboring little shop.

THOUGHT HE WAS RIGHT.

Tom Sheehy a Prisoner And Wishes That Others Would Do Likewise.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 17.—Tom Duffy, a cousin of the prizefighter, who has been in the habit of going to the parish prison to see a friend incarcerated there for misdemeanor, went there to day and asked to see Antonio Scoffin, one of the assassins of Chief of Police Hennessy, ostensibly for the purpose of identifying him. When the prisoner appeared Duffy pulled out a pistol and shot him, inflicting a fatal wound.

Duffy was immediately arrested. He said to the officers that if the Italian died he was willing to hang. He only wished there were about seventy five more the blood to do similar deeds. The wounded Italian was taken to the hospital where he asserted that he has always been a friend of Chief Hennessy. He cannot live.

More than fifty arrests have been made of parties believed to be implicated in the assassination of Hennessy, and to-day another Italian, Pedro Natali, was identified as one of the men seen running away from the scene of the murder. The body of the late Chief of Police Hennessy lay in state at the City Hall today and was viewed by thousands of people. The funeral was largely attended and Canal street was lined by immense crowds for a mile.

DIED FROM HYDROPHOBIA.

Eight Men Required to Hold Him Down.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 17.—Private Frank O'Neill, Battery C, Fourth Artillery, U. S. A., stationed at Fort McPherson, died from hydrophobia today. O'Neill was bitten by a dog some time ago, but did not experience much trouble from the wound. Later on, however, it began to trouble him and a few days ago he was compelled to go to the hospital. He began to show signs of madness, frothed at the mouth and developed wonderful strength. He was put in a padded room at the hospital. He threw himself violently against the walls, but the padding kept him from killing himself. He positively refused to eat or drink, but it required seven strong men to hold him down. Yesterday he broke loose from them once and overturned the stove, setting fire to the hospital. This was extinguished and finally, by forcing him down, putting a mattress on him, and eight men piling themselves on this, they succeeded in holding him. In this position an opiate was injected into his arm and he was quieted.

Napkin Got $10,000.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 17.—The suit brought by Lillian Norton Gower, known on the operatic stage as Mme. Nordica, for $200,000 against George Lewis Gower of Providence is settled. It was dismissed by the Supreme Court of the State of Washington today on payment by Gower of $10,000 to Mme. Nordica's attorney. The suit was begun to secure part of the alleged estate of her husband who was lost while ballooning over the English Channel several years ago. Gower always said he found no trace of the alleged estate of his brother. He invested some money in Tacoma worth $200,000. He said he would compromise for $20,000, as that would be about as reasonable as to fight it through the Washington and other United States Supreme Courts.

The President's Programme.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Herald's Washington special: It is believed that the President will call an extra session early in November, will appoint Attorney-General Miller to the Supreme bench and make Solicitor-General Tafte Attorney-General.

Shot Dead.

PITTSTON, Pa., Oct. 17.—John W. Davis, a retired hotelkeeper at this place, was shot dead this evening by Police Officer Weather, who also received injuries which may prove fatal. Davis, who was intoxicated, became involved in a fight in front of the Eagle Hotel. Weather attempted to arrest Davis, but the latter resisted so stoutly that another officer had to be called. Davis broke away from both officers and, drawing a "Black Jack" from his pocket, struck Weather a terrific blow, felling him. Weather drew a revolver and fired at Davis, killing him.

The Cholera in Spain.

MADRID, Oct. 17.—During the first two weeks of October 486 cases of cholera, with twenty five deaths, are reported in Spain. The epidemic shows a general decline.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Importation of Meat.—Pennsylvania Statistics.—Revenue Denied.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The treasury department has issued a circular to the customs office on the subject of the importation of meat cattle, in view of the meat inspection act. It confines the designation of customs ports and districts named as quarantine stations by the secretary of agriculture by virtue of section 29 of the tariff bill, but suspends the prohibition of the importation of meat cattle arriving in the United States. By virtue of the same authority the prohibition of the hides of cattle from North, Central and South America is suspended, meat cattle from those countries being at present free from contagious disease. The hides of meat cattle from European countries, in which the secretary of agriculture states contagious diseases of different kinds are known to exist more or less, are prohibited, unless the importer shall produce proofs showing that the hides were thoroughly disinfected prior to leaving the foreign country, and that they are free from infection of any kind.

A BRIGHT DENIED NEW YORK.

Acting-Superintendent Childs of the Census Bureau has replied to the demands of Mayor Grant of New York for a recount of that city, that the demand is without support of any facts officially known to that office, and that the bureau will adhere to its enumeration until convinced by proper proofs, duly presented, that the same is erroneous. He adds: "Opportunity will specially be given the mayor to present his case and any evidence he may have to support it."

CONSTERNATION

Among the Friends of Prohibition in Kansas and Iowa.

TOPEKA, Kas., Oct. 17.—A decision was rendered in the United States circuit court in this city this morning that created consternation among the friends of prohibition in Kansas. The decision allows the re-opening of original package liquor houses in this State and in effect declares that the Wilson bill enacted by Congress does not restore the power of the Kansas prohibitory law as against original package sellers.

The facts in the case are that Charles Rachr, agent for a Kansas liquor house, was arrested for selling liquor in Topeka. After the passage of the Wilson bill the defendant applied to the United States circuit court for a writ of habeas corpus, admitting that he sold liquor as charged, but he claimed, inasmuch as the Kansas prohibitory law was enacted before the Wilson bill, that the Wilson bill did not apply. Judges Foster and Phillips confirmed this view and granted the writ.

NULL AND VOID.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Oct. 17.—Judge Stutsman, of the Superior Court decided today that the State prohibitory law was null and void, so far as original packages are concerned. The decision was in a case growing out of a seizure of beer brought from St. Louis to be sold by an agent for Jones. The beer was seized on complaint of Rev. Mr. Abrams. The brewing company asked for an injunction against Abrams and also sought to replevin the goods already seized. The defendant demurred that a writ of replevin would not lie to recover beer in Iowa. Judge Stutsman holds that the Wilson bill is not retrospective in its operations, that the Iowa law regarding the sale of liquor in original packages is null and void. He grants a perpetual injunction to restrain Abrams from further interfering with plaintiff.

THE FASTEST SHIP.

Crossing the Atlantic in Five Days, Fifteen Hours and Twenty-Three Minutes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A cablegram received here says: The twin screw steamer Columbia, of the Hamburg-American Packet Company, Captain Voigesgesang, has broken her own and all other records in her passage between New York and Southampton. The Columbia left New York last Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, crossing the bar and jingling bells for full speed at 5:47 o'clock. At 5 o'clock yesterday morning she was off the Lizard, and by noon she was at Southampton, lowering the best time record 58 minutes. The best record heretofore held by the Columbia was 5 days, 16 hours and 2 minutes.

The time made on this trip was 5 days 15 hours and 25 minutes.

The Columbia is one of the Hamburg-American fleet, and has been hailed upon as one of the fastest boats afloat ever since launching. During last October and November, when commanded by Captain Henrichs, she made a record of 5 days, 17 hours and 34 minutes. That record was on June 13th lowered to 5 days, 16 hours and 2 minutes coming west, but at that time Captain Henrichs had been transferred and Captain Voigesgesang had taken command. Since his advent the ship has kept working at the record until now, when she boat is going east.

The Plan of the Engineers.

PITTSBURG, October 17.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers held a secret session this morning. It was officially stated this afternoon that the engineers would not federate. The grand officers will be instructed, however, to confer with the officials of the federation and report some method whereby the organization may work in harmony and, if possible, in some junction, in case of trouble. The officers will report at the next meeting. This action may be in the nature of a compromise between the older and the younger members.

The Seal Hunters.

OTTAWA, Oct. 17.—Speaking of the report that the sealing schooners, Triumph and Adele, recently sailed from Victoria, B. C., on a second trip to hunt seals, Tupper, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, said he doubted that this was his mission. It was impossible to shoot seals after rough weather set in. He believed the object to be to bring back sealskins they had been forced to leave behind them on the first trip. He discredited the report that the steamer Berta sailed for Behring Sea in search of the Triumph and Adele.

A telegram is received from Sir John McDonald, stating that the Governor-General will not be in Ottawa October 26th. The Comte de Paris will not, therefore, visit the capital.

A GERMAN COLONIST

Leaves Millions for His Heirs to Quarrel About.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 17.—A lawsuit involving the possession of $21,000,000 worth of securities of gold, of 1,200,000 sheep, and hundreds of thousands of acres of land in all parts of European Russia will come to trial in St. Petersburg in about a week. All this vast property is the estate of a German colonist named Fair Fein, who left his home as a poor peasant fifty years ago to settle in Crimea. He began his Russian career as a sheep raiser and, although favored with fabulously good luck, he remained a plain sheep raising peasant to the day of his death. The present suit is between his second wife as plaintiff and his children by his first wife as defendant.

WILLIAM TELL.

The Swiss Will Erect a Statue To His Memory in Uri.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The report that the Swiss had become tired of William Tell and his apple seems to have been somewhat premature. The people of Canton Uri have just resolved to erect to his memory a bronze statue seven feet high, to stand upon a square before the City Hall in Altdorf. Tell will be represented as standing alone "in a bold, determined, defiant posture," with a cross-bow in his hand. On the pedestal of Uriman stone there will be four reliefs, which will depict the shot of the apple on the market place of Altdorf, Tell's boat, Gessler's death, and Tell's death. Tell will be represented in all as a peasant of the fourteenth century in the costume of his day.

CHRIST BEFORE PILATE

A Picture so Natural that it Causes Spectators to Faint.

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—A sensation has been created in Berlin by the exhibition of a new pictorial representation of Christ before Pilate. The painting is by the Russian artist Siroski. Its powerful realism may be inferred from the fact that scores of women have fainted at the sight of the picture. Though horrible, it is strangely fascinating, and the salon where it is displayed is continually crowded to suffocation. The subject is treated from an entirely different conception to that of Munkacsy in his famous painting of the same title. The work is pronounced by critics to be vastly inferior to the latter in a purely artistic sense, but yet to possess a remarkable power, which can hardly be attributed to simple realism.

PARKER INVESTIGATING

He Desires to Know What is Thought of Modern Preaching.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Dr. Parker, the eminent preacher, is trying to find out what people think of preaching as an institution, and through the press an expression of public opinion on the subject, either publicly, in the newspapers, or privately, in personal communication to him, he desires as many solutions as possible on "the modern sermon." He asks, "What for its deficiencies? Has it been ended by formal and more useful competitors? Is there still room for preaching, or is the poor old thing dead and gone?" He intends to make this the subject of an address on November 4th and will utilize the substance of the replies which he obtains to this appeal.

A HEAVY GALE.

Collision Between Vessels and Loss of Life.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Never before in the memory of the oldest mariner along the water front have East and North rivers been so dangerous and boisterous. At 9 o'clock this morning, when the tide was about at its height, the river about the ferry and bay, as far as could be seen, was as furious and choppy as any stormy sea ever witnessed along the coast. The wind was blowing forty miles an hour from the northwest. Only the largest and staunchest vessels ventured out. Afterward it moderated.

At Patterson, Miami, a brakeman on the Lackawanna Railway, while on the roof of a freight car was carried off by the wind and seriously injured.

The gale in the bay, aided by a strong ebb tide, caused a collision this afternoon between the big tug-boat James A. Garfield and the freight boat Amos C. Barstow of the Stonington Steamship Company. The Garfield went to the bottom. John Steel and John Lyons were drowned, while seven other men on the tug were rescued by the Barstow's crew and the crews of other tugs. Captain Henderson of the Garfield lost an arm and a jaw broken.

Robbers and Citizens.

LIMA, Ohio, Oct. 17.—About 3 o'clock this morning a gang of robbers were detected at work on a safe in Ohio City. An alarm was given and the citizens turned out to capture them. The robbers opened fire and a battle ensued, during which two of the citizens were seriously and two slightly wounded and one of the burglars was killed. He has not been identified. The others escaped.

Later—Two of the citizens' posse, Charles Hover and Frank Pence, it is reported, have died from their wounds. The others are not dangerously hurt. A large posse is out now searching for the remainder of the gang of robbers. They are supposed to be headed by the notorious burglar, Manell Huhn, who has long been sought by the officers in this vicinity.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

London, Oct. 17.—The Standard's correspondent at Rome states on Vatican authority that the Pope would decline to receive Dillon and O'Brien if they visit that city.

Rome, Oct. 17.—A fire in the dome of the cathedral at Siena today was subdued with much difficulty before reaching the church proper, which is filled with art treasures.

Vienna, Oct. 17.—There has been arranged a general strike of employes of the tramway lines in this city to take place Sunday. The authorities are taking precautions to prevent acts of violence.

Rome, Oct. 17.—Sicole says it will, if necessary, publish details proving that the Italian premier recently indirectly offered to give France full liberty of action in Tunis if she would abandon her interests in Tripoli.

Rome, Oct. 17.—A papal encyclical to the Italian bishops strongly protests against the government violating the liberty and rights of the papacy; accuses the Premier of revolutionizing modern society and asks the prayers of the faithful.

Remarkable Recovery.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use, and after taking 10 bottles found herself cured and able to do her own housework and look well as any one who was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at A. C. Smith & Co.'s Drug Store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW,
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.
I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have found not one efficacious preparation without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very severe attack that almost prostrated me to such a manner that I was bent over, so much so that it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when had President sent Dr. Henley with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost marvelous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was as a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.
