No Information Filed.—It is not likely that Deputy Sheriff Williams, who was charged with making an assault with a gun on the editor of the Blazing Bulletin on Jan. 13, will be prosecuted. In the district court yesterday, Dist. Atty. Lounsbury stated that no information had been filed because he did not believe that a conviction could be secured.

Good Time for Knights.—The Calanthe-Myrte lodge of the Knights of Pythias was visited last night by the officers of the Grand Lodge, and the ritualistic part of the evening was followed by refreshments and cigars. A feature of the evening was a bass solo by an entertainer named John, who sang his singing of the Armorer's song from Robin Hood being especially noticeable.

Insurance Officers Chosen.—The directors of the Beneficial Life Insurance company convened at the company office today and elected the following officers: Joseph F. Smith, president; John C. Colored Man Arrested.—Detective Chase brought back from Ogden last night one Eugene Tyler, a colored man, who is charged with having stolen a gold watch and $30 in money from Laura Smith of this city. Tyler, who had been employed about the Smith premises, disappeared, and later was displaying the time piece to admiring friends in the Junction city. One of these friends recognized the watch, and so Tyler's arrest was a charge of robbery.

Buildings of 20 Stories.—Mr. Freeman Morningstar has returned from a three weeks' business trip to Chicago and Grand Rapids. He says there never was before such extended building operations in Chicago, and several of the business structures now going up are 20 story affairs. The eastern money markets are in excellent condition, and not a few people are looking westward, with the old feeling of "Go west young man, go west." Mr. Morningstar endeavored to do some good work in the way of disseminating the doctrine of "See America First."

A Choice Program.—This morning in Barratt hall an excellent program was rendered by the students of the Latter-day Saints' University. President Clyde Lindsay in the chair. The school choir, led by Student Noel Pratt, rendered one of the school songs "The Gold and Blue." Prayer was offered by Daniel Spencer. Mr. Edwin Kimball, a former student, played two original and beautiful pieces on the piano. Among the names "Novelty" and "Battery A March" to these compositions. Prof. Schettler and Miss Cottle rendered a guitar and mandolin duet, "Concert Waltz," and Miss Cottle responded to an encore with a striking arrangement of "Old Black Joe." A taking recitation, "Mr. Meek's Dinner," was given by Miss Mildred Brown, and Master Don Carter, of Salt Lake City, down the house with "Tom Sawyer" and "Homer Campbell." Miss Hilda Halsey's "Ave Maria" was very beautiful, as was before the students' rendition of "The Dying Rose," written by Louise Tunison. Mr. Lindsay announced the final basketball game with Logan in the L. D. S. U. gymnasium next Tuesday evening, and the meeting concluded with a stirring rendition of Stephens' "Song of the Redeemed" by the school choir.
