HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

Boutelle's Resolution to Be Favorably Reported to the House.

BLOUNT'S VISITS TO THE QUEEN

Special Activity in the White House.—Another Message to Congress Looked for.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—In the Hawaiian matter today the House committee on naval affairs voted unanimously to favorably report Boutelle's resolution to the House. This resolution is an iron-clad one, calling upon the secretary of the navy to inform the House by what authority instructions were issued placing the naval forces under the orders of Minister Blount, and to furnish copies of all orders or suggestions issued by himself or any officer of the navy since March 4, 1893, concerning naval forces at the Hawaiian islands.

An amendment was made changing the date to March 4, 1892, so that the operations of the navy in Hawaii under the Harrison administration would be included. The secretary of the navy is instructed to furnish the information and given no option to withhold documents which he might consider secret, or the publication of which at this time might be regarded as contrary to public policy.

In response to a question, Blount told of his visits to the ex-queen. The first visit lasted only five minutes, and the queen had little to say, apparently desiring him to do all the talking and evidently not having a clear idea of the situation of affairs at that time. Blount said among the people there was a good opinion of the queen and the sensational stories concerning her found little credence.

To one of the congressmen, who asked Blount if he attached much significance to the rumor that British troops had been landed at Honolulu for the ostensible purpose of protecting British interest, he said it was probably for the sole purpose of protection.

At the White House this morning there was evidence of special activity in the rooms of the secretaries and clerks. It is expected that another special message will go to Congress in a very short time.

The cabinet meeting today was larger than usual, and was undoubtedly largely devoted to the Hawaiian question.

A Clergyman Murdered.

CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 9.—Rev. Hy. E. Cheesman, pastor of the Eighth street M. E. church, was deliberately drowned tonight in the Delaware river at the foot of Chestnut street by two men. Officer Rasser heard the clergyman cry for help, but owing to the darkness was unable to locate the direction from which the sound came. He heard a second cry but much stifled. Two sailors who had also heard the cries, reached the spot about the same time as the officer. They saw the body of a man floating in the river and, leaping in, brought it to the shore. Cheesman expired in a few minutes.

Shortly after the cries were heard two men are known to have run away from the wharf. The police shortly before midnight arrested Isaac George and Solomon Willis on suspicion of having committed the crime. What the clergyman was doing on the wharf at that time of night and what the motive for the murder was is a mystery.

THE CHICAGO FIRE.

Comment by a London Newspaper on the Blaze.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—The Daily News, commenting on the fire at the World's Fair grounds, Chicago, says in reference to Higinbotham's remark that the fire was the cheapest way in which the Casino, Peristyle and Music Hall could be got rid of: "The fire was the cheapest way for removing some of the Fair buildings. This does not apply to the destruction of the Liberal Arts building, in which was stored a large portion of the foreign goods exhibited at the Fair. The loss of these goods will cause serious uneasiness in many parts of the world, and is a great misfortune for several reasons. The chief virtue of a monster exhibition is not to get its fair burned. It owes so much to the generous sacrifice of those who contributed to it that it is under a peculiar obligation to take care of their goods. They spend their money freely to bear the cost and risks of transit, and they ought to be able to feel that all uncertainties end there."

SULLIVAN DEFEATED.

His Wife and an Indian Club too Much for Him.

BUFFALO, Jan. 9.—The story of John L. Sullivan's latest knockout has just leaked out. Saturday night John went out to "do the town." He drank heavily, and soon after returning to his hotel a great crash was heard in his room. John's wife had chided him and he in return had assaulted her. She defended herself with an Indian club, knocking her husband senseless. It was daylight before he opened his eyes or showed signs of life. Mrs. Sullivan says she struck her husband harder than she intended.

Father Corrigan Dead.

JERSEY CITY, Jan 9.—Rev. Patrick Corrigan, of Hoboken, died this evening, aged 58. In the events which have kept the Catholic Church in the United States in a turmoil for the past four years, Father Corrigan took a prominent part. He was a vigorous supporter of Archbishop Ireland and the liberal and progressive element, and at the time of his death was as widely known as any Catholic in the country.

The Corbett-Mitchell Fight.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 9.—A glove contest has been arranged on the same conditions under which Corbett and Mitchell are matched, to take place in this city the latter end of the week. The principals will be Green Harris, champion negro middle-weight of Tennessee, and Perry Watkins, champion middle-weight of Florida. A purse of $1000 will be offered for the winner. This will be in the nature of a challenge to Governor Mitchell. If the contest is allowed to go on without interference, then it will be taken for a certainty that the Corbett-Mitchell battle will take place, while, if it is stopped, the courts will be asked to decide the matter. This is thought to be the plan of the Duval people, and the one which they have been forming for a long time past, and which has been guarded with such secrecy.

The Army and National Guards.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—In his annual report Inspector General Breckenridge argues in favor of closer relationship between the army and National Guards. The schools to which army officers are detailed as military instructors, he thinks, ought to have support from the national government. He commends the regimental recruiting system.

FOREIGN NEWS RECORD.

The Nictheroy and the Situation at Pernambuco.

A London Paper's Comment on Cleveland's Hawaiian Policy—In Royal Circles.

PERNAMBUCO, Dec. 22.—[Copyright by Associated Press.]—After more than a week's delay the Nictheroy's reshipment difficulty seems to be over and she will probably leave for the south tomorrow. She has about 100 of the original crew on board and also 200 Brazilians. The Nictheroy and America left St. Thomas December 3rd. December 10th, Ceara was sighted. A steamer started from port, headed for the Nictheroy. The pipe of the boatswain rang through the ship, calling all hands to quarters, and soon they began to cast loose and trained ready to turn upon the vessel if she should prove to be an enemy. A small boat soon came alongside and it proved to be a pilot, sent out by the Brazilian authorities to bring the Nictheroy in.

Tuesday morning the Nictheroy steamed away once more and reached Pernambuco in forty-eight hours. The officials of the government came aboard and had a discussion with Captain Baker and Lieutenant Hill, asking that both officers and men should prepare a scale of pay, such as they would require to induce them to reship in the Brazilian navy. They were also to state for how long they were willing to enlist. Immediately afterwards the crew were told they would receive $100 bounty and $100 a month if they chose to reship. Fifty men left the ship, and as no communication is now allowed with the ship it is supposed all on board signed.

The situation at Pernambuco is hard to define. There are so many conflicting stories that no one can reach the truth. One paper has been suppressed and the other three do not dare say much. Thursday last a party of fifty soldiers were sent to arrest Constantine Rogiberio, a prominent man living in the interior of this state, known to be disaffected. He fortified his house, which was located on an almost inaccessible hill and defended himself furiously, with the result that all the soldiers were killed or captured. Reinforcements have been sent and another fight is expected.

The great question here is the whereabouts of the Aquidaban. It is firmly believed here that Mello, hearing of the reshipment difficulties, is hurrying north for a fight, while his secret friends here, many of whom are in high positions, delay the Nictheroy all they can for his sake.

Advance Guard of Protesters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The advance guard of the men who will protest to Congress against the lead schedule of the Wilson bill arrived in Washington today. Congress will be asked to retain the rates of the McKinley bill on lead ores, or substitute some rate less radical than the reduction from 1½ per cent to ¾ per cent per pound, and also to put lead in silver ores on the same basis, instead of on the free list, as proposed.

The London "Times" on Hawaii.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—The Times, commenting on the Hawaiian advices via Victoria last night, says: That the provisional government is well advised in assuming an attitude of defiance toward the President of the United States may indeed be doubted. Although it has been rumored that he will accept a compromise, Cleveland has shown his stiff back, and thinks his countrymen admire it, and it is quite possible that in the long run he may show himself as determined in his Hawaiian policy as he was upon the silver question. It is indeed difficult to lend credit to the statement that the United States means to recognize the provisional government, yet it must be owned that the conduct of the ex-queen has been so imprudent as to afford the American executive an opportunity for withdrawing the offers he had made her. The American politicians may argue that, in the face of her dilatoriness, the President's offer no longer holds good. Technically this is true, but will such pettifogging commend itself to the judgment of the Americans? The moral grounds on which the offer was made cannot have vanished altogether, even in the stress of American politics, in less than a month.

No Jesuits Wanted.

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—The Central Evangelical board has issued a long address, protesting against the readmission of the Jesuits into Germany and describing them as enemies to the Fatherland and Protestantism.

Formally Betrothed.

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—A dispatch from Coburg says the grand duke of Hesse was formally betrothed today to his cousin, Princess Victoria Melita of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

Princess Elizabeth.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—A special to the evening Sun's [illegible] says: There is now no question regarding the legality of the marriage of Princess Elizabeth, of Bavaria, to ex-Lieutenant Von Seefried, of Battenheim. The princess's grandfather, in order to please her, has yielded to the young man's entreaties and ordered her husband's reception into the Austrian army. Von Seefried, since January 1st, has been a lieutenant in the [illegible] infantry regiment of Francis Joseph, stationed in Toppau.

Italian Mob Rule.

ROME, Jan. 9.—A dispatch from Bari says an anti-tax mob overran the town of Ruboli Puglia and burned the octroi office, sentry boxes and tax bureau. The mob also destroyed the Union Club house and tore up the rails of the horse car line, cut the telegraph wires and attacked the gendarmes in their barracks. The gendarmes were eventually so hard pressed that they fired a volley at the mob, but the rioting continued until the arrival of troops sent for from Bari. One of the rioters was killed, four wounded and twenty captured.

Ten Patients Yesterday Discharged As Cured.—You Are Next, Come Early and Avoid the Rush—$5 a Month for All Diseases.

During the last fifteen days of [illegible] over 150 patients placed themselves under treatment at the Zion Medical and Surgical Institute.

This week many have applied for the benefits of the $5 rate for all diseases. In order to give all an opportunity, Drs. Shores & Shores have decided to extend the $5 rate for all diseases up to February.

Remember at the Zion Medical and Surgical Institute you have the services of two registered physicians, thus making a cure doubly sure. All medicines for your case is prepared by the two doctors themselves, thus avoiding any mistakes. Remember by applying for treatment this month you are treated until cured for $5 a month and all medicines furnished free.

Drs. Shores & Shores have practiced six years in Utah. They are well known and successful physicians.

Below will be found a case of more than ordinary interest, that of

The trouble was first caused by a severe attack of diphtheria, which caused enlarged tonsils. Her mother, who stated the case freely, says:

"My little daughter has certainly been a wretched, yet patient sufferer. Many doctors have tried in vain to relieve her, but all failed until we brought her to Drs. Shores & Shores.

"The enlarged tonsils were very [illegible] ... Mrs. Madsen can be interviewed at her residence, 8th South, Eighth East Street, and will verify the above statement.
