Special Notices.

Statement Blanks for sale at this Office. See advertisement in another column. s&wt

Having lately received extensive additions to our already large and varied stock, in the shape of type, presses, &c., &c., our facilities for executing all kinds of Job Work in the best and most improved styles have been greatly increased. Co-operative and other establishments can be supplied with plain or tinted Order and Receipt Books, Certificates of Stock, and every kind of work. Orders from the city and the country settlements are respectfully solicited.

We have received one of the latest improved ruling machines, and are, therefore, prepared to do all kinds of ruling according to order, on the shortest notice. s&wt

WARRANTEE DEEDS for sale.—The citizens of this Territory are now in possession of all the rights and privileges accruing from the enjoyment of the Pre-emption and Homestead Laws, and hereafter all transfers of titles to land will have to be effected by means of Warrantee Deeds, instead of the Quit Claim Transfer Deeds heretofore used. In view of the demand for such documents, we wish to inform the public that we have them on hand, at this office, in legal form, and are prepared to sell them singly, or otherwise, at very low rates, to suit purchasers. d&sw

Nutritious, Healthy, the Best.—DOOLEY'S BAKING POWDER, is the most economical and convenient Baking Powder now in use. It saves the expense of milk and eggs, prevents the possibility of poor rolls, biscuits or cakes, and thus produces happiness in both kitchen and household. It is put up in tin cans, which are, to all intents and purposes, impervious to the action of the weather. One trial will convince the most skeptical of its superior qualities. For sale by grocers. w20:1

Burnett's Matchless Perfume, "Florimel," is rich, pure and stainless, as flower scented dew. Burnett's Cologne Water has attained a very high reputation.—Providence Journal.

A Brilliant Head of Hair is secured and retained by the use of Burnett's Cocoaïne.

To One who will Understand It—

Like a porcelain vase with the light shining through.

A fair face without blemish appears; Use KALLISTON, Miss, and the mirror for you Shall reflect such an image for years.

Burnett's Flavoring Extracts are of approved usefulness; all they profess to be.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Correspondence.

POLK CITY, Polk Co., Iowa, Aug. 9th, 1869.

Editor Deseret News:—Dear Brother; Elder N. C. Murdock and myself took train on Friday 23rd July for Omaha, and in 48 hours traveling time, arrived there; remained at Omaha and Council Bluffs two days. Then took train for Des Moines, and, having the address of Dr. Beebe, Polk City, we made our way to this place, where we were well received and made welcome by Br. Beebe and all his family. Br. Beebe was desirous that we should remain and preach here. We have held three meetings in this place, and two at a schoolhouse four miles distant, at all of which our houses were filled with attentive listeners. We have made arrangements for a hall in Des Moines city, where we shall preach next Sunday.

We have had introductions to several of the principal men of Des Moines, who have treated us with respect and consideration, especially the principal proprietor of the Iowa State Register, two copies of which I send to you, each containing a letter from him when he was at Salt Lake City.

There seems to be a considerable spirit of inquiry here. Most of those with whom we converse are anxious to learn of Utah and her people. The Lord is blessing us by opening up the way before us, and putting within our reach all that is necessary for the preaching of the Gospel here.

Your brethren in the Redeemer's cause,
ISRAEL EVANS,
N. C. MURDOCK.

Mount Pleasant, Aug. 18.

Editor Deseret News:—Bishop Seely arrived about two o'clock to-day with a company of emigrants; the band and a large number of citizens went to meet them and accompanied them to the hall, where a nice dinner had been prepared to which they were invited, and everything was done to make them feel they were indeed welcome to Mount Pleasant.

No new cases of small-pox have occurred; the last patient is nearly well.

Notwithstanding the heavy damages done by the hoppers, the wheat crop will be more abundant than ever before. The frame of Reynolds & Co's new and large grist mill was raised yesterday. They intend to have it running by fall. OPERATOR.

CURIOSITIES OF THE OCEAN BOTTOM.

Mr. Green, the famous diver, tells singular stories of his adventures, when making search in the deep waters of the ocean. He gives some new sketches of what he saw at the "Silver Bank," near Hayti:

The banks of the coral on which my divers were made are about forty miles in length, and about ten or twenty in breadth. On this bank is presented to the diver one of the most beautiful and sublime scenes the eye ever beheld. The water varies from ten to one hundred feet in depth, and is so clear that the diver can see from two to three hundred feet, when he is submerged, with but little obstruction to the sight.

The bottom of the ocean, in many places, is as smooth as a marble floor; in others it is studded with coral columns, from ten to one hundred feet in height, and from one to eighty feet in diameter. The tops of these more lofty, support myriads of pyramidal pendants, each forming a myriad more; giving reality to the imaginary abode of some water-nymph. In other places the pendants form arch after arch; and as the diver stands on the bottom of the ocean, and gazes through these in the deep winding avenue, he finds that they fill him with as sacred an awe as if he were in some old cathedral which had long been buried beneath "old ocean's wave." Here and there the coral extends even to the surface of the water, as if those loftier columns were towers belonging to those stately temples that are now in ruins.

There were countless varieties of diminutive trees, shrubs, and plants, in every crevice of the corals where the water had deposited the least earth. They were all of a faint hue, owing to the pale light they received, although of every shade, and entirely from plants. I am familiar with that vegetable upon dry land. One in particular attracted my attention. It resembled a sea-fan of immense size, of variegated colors, and the most brilliant hue. The fish which inhabit those "Silver Banks," I found as different in kind as the scenery was varied. They were of all forms, colors, and sizes—from the symmetrical goby to the globe-like sun-fish; from those of the dullest hue to the changeable dolphin; from the spots of the leopard to the hues of the sunbeam; from the harmless minnow to the voracious shark.

THE NEW STAMPS.

We have to meet with anybody who thinks the last issued three cent and two cent postage stamps any improvement over the old ones in appearance. The head of Washington was certainly better than a locomotive, and we think that even the head of Jackson was quite as appropriate as the cut of a—perhaps the—man on horseback, seeing that that method of conveying the news has become wholly obsolete. The square shape of the new stamps, also, is less agreeable than the proportions of the old ones. It would really seem that Government has at its command skill and taste enough to produce more creditable issues than these. In the printing of the new fractional currency there is a chance, at least, for improvement. The head of Mr. Fessenden, for instance, goes off the twenty-five cent notes—which is well, unless it could be a better head. Mr. Fessenden himself is rather a good looking man, with an intellectual and not unpleasant cast of countenance. But on these notes he always looks as if he were trying to intimidate small thieves from taking them. Besides, he is represented as all of ten years too old. We shall be glad to see him retire, therefore, to make room for the Father of his Country, if the latter only has moderate justice done to his heroic features.—Boston Journal.

ESTRAYS!

I HAVE in my possession one span of Dark Brown MULES, about 14 hands high, that came here about the latter part of June, branded J F on right thigh, other Spanish brands on left. The owner can have them by paying expenses. ISA N. HINKLEY, Cove Creek.
