The assault of the business men of talt Lake on the ticket office of the Salt Lake Route this morning commenced at an early hour. By 9 a. m. the line extended along the front of the counter clear round along the wall with more arriving every minute to secure their berths on the special train, which had been placed at the disposal of the Commercial club and state and city officials through the courtesy of Senator W. A. Clark, president of the new road, District Freight and Passenger Agent Moore, Ticket Agent Scott, his assistant, Mr. Twining, and Traveling Passenger Agent Kenneth C. Kerr were all pressed into service to wait on the prospective excursionists. By this afternoon 144 berths had been secured on the special train aside from the 20 Church officials and ladies, who, as guests of Senator Clark, will follow in a special car on the regular train, which leaves at 8:30, or one hour behind which leaves at 8:30, or one hour behind the special.

The handsome parlor car which will be attached to the special arrived in Sait Lake this morning from Los Ange-les and is a veritable beauty. The train will consist of seven standard Pullman sleepers, a diner, parlor and baggage car and will carry possible the most representative aggregation of business and professional men that ever left this and professional men that ever left this

LOS ANGELES READY.

Word was received from Los Angeles this morning that the City of the Au-geis was bestirring itself to entertain the pilgrims from Utah. The city officials, the chamber of commerce and other California organizations are making preparations to welcome the invaders. The special will be met at the depot by a committee of citizens who A. will escort them to their various hotels. Prior to the public reception at the chamber of commerce in the evening there will be tally-ho and automobile trips through the city. On Tuesday the Salt Lakers as guests of the Banning company and the San Pedro road will take an ocean trip to Catilina island. famous leaping tuna and view the won-ders of the deep through the glass bottomed boats. Trolley car trips to the ocean beaches, Mt. Lowe and other points of interest will also be in order, and the Sait Lakers are promised that they will not have a dull minute during their sojourn in southern California.

NO GAUDY COSTUMES. The schemes to array the excursionin striking and weird attire have abandoned, and one and all will suits in reserve for evening functions. The only thing that will differentiate them from the ordinary business men to be encountered will be a neat badge bearing the emblem of the Commercial club and the words "Salt Lake." The train will leave promptly at 7:30 this evening from the Oregon Short

MANY REPORTED KILLED BY STORM IN INDIAN TERRITORY

Muskogee, I. T., May 6 .- Several persons are reported killed, many injured and much damage wrought to property as a result of the fierce wind and rain storm in various parts of Indian Territory. Wires are down and names and details are lacking.

At Owl, 25 miles southwest of South McAlester, eight persons are said to have been killed and a dozen injured. At that place nearly every building is reported wrecked. Among the buildings demolished was the town school Prof. Binson, a teacher, is reported fatally hurt, and many pupils are said to have been injured. It is believed none of them will die. Among the buildings wrecked were a church, which was totally demolished, three business houses and 20 residences. A special from Welch, I. T., says that terrible storm swept over that part sons were injured some of them seri-

In the central and northern parts storm in years was experienced. Crops were ruined and many homes in the low lying country were flooded, persons being driven to the hills.

* CONGRATULATIONS ALL AROUND.

The "News" heartily congratulates the Commercial Club of Logan on the accomplishnient of the object for which it has been laboring for many months past, the inauguration of a speedy afternoon train service between Salt Lake and Logan. Commencing tomorrow the Oregon Short Line Cache valley train will leave this city at 4:10 p. m. and arrive in Logan at Ogden and Brigham City are alike to be congratulated on the change, as it will give them what they have so long desired, connection with Salt Lake by a train which will enable their citizens who visit this city to reach home at a reasonable hour in the evening.

Incidentally, the people of the north may be congratulated on the fact that for the first time in many, many years, it will be possible for them to have the principal newspaper of the metropolis laid on their doorsteps and perused in their homes on the evening of publication. Commencing Monday, the "News" will double its carrier service in Ogden, the delivery being made about 5 o'clock; Kaysville, Brigham City, Logan, Visit and Richmond will also be served by carriers immediately on the arrival of the train.

The edition thus delivered will be the latest issue, the same as that sent to subscribers in Salt Lake City.

HANDSOME WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Mrs. J. W. Gray of New Orleans Shoots Herself at the Hotel Imperial, New York.

STORY OF DISAPPOINTED LOVE.

"If You Had Said, 'Ollie, I Den't Want You to Return,' I Would Never Have Done So."

New York, May 6 .- A handsome weman about 28 years old, who is suppesed to be Mrs. J. W. Gray, of New Orleans, attempted to commit suicide today in a room at the Hotel Imperial by shooting. She was found in an unconscious and extremely serious condition, and was removed to a hospital. The surgeons there say there is but little chance for recovery. Accompanied by a man a few years her senior the woman appeared at the Imperial on April 20. The couple registered as "J. W. Gray and wife, New Orleans." They went out frequently together and the man was away during the day, but there was nothing about them to excite unusual interest. While the watchman was making the rounds today he heard a muffled report like a pistol shot in the room occupied by the Grays. Looking over the transom the watchman saw the woman lying on her face on the floor beside the bed, with her hands outstretched. She was in her night dress and a stream of slood was flowing from an ugly wound in her right temple. She was alone in the room. The door was forced and the woman was removed to a hospital.

None of the hotel employes remember having seen Gray during the night and he could not be found around the hotel at the time of the shooting. The suite occupied by the Grays

On the back of it was written "I wish that no one would open this but the person addressed." A second scaled person addressed." A second scaled letter was addressed to a storage ware-house, this city. The third letter was enclosed and written on two sheets of paper. It appeared that one portion had been written yesterday afternoon and the other sheet early today before the woman shot herself.

At the office of O. F. Jonasson & Co., mining brokers, at 44 Broadway, it was said that Charles H. Stoneham was a member of the firm. A member of the firm said that Stoneham lived in Jersey City. Sey City. One letter began:

"Dear Sweetheart-When I called you up on the telephone you talked so cru-elly to me that I went out and bought a revolver, intending to do it then. I was brought up in a convent, and my religion teaches against such things, but I can't stand it any longer." Here there was a break in the letter, and when it was continued it was with a different ink. DYNAMITE BOMB a different ink. "Again and again have you disappointed me, Charley. What in God's name have I done? If you were anxious to get rid of me that were easy. Why did you have me come to New York? Here I am as your wife. If you had said, 'Ollie, I don't want you to return,' I would never have done so, Well, Charley, this is the last. I wish you all the luck in the world." Here the writer seemed to have paused again, and ne more to have been written for a while. It resumed: "How I am suffering. I cannot stand it any longer. It is now past 4 o'clock," A fourth letter left by the woman was found, which was addressed to "Charles Sweetheart" and read in part: "I love you better than any life. I love you so much, and to think I have to go and leave you. I hate to die.

One was the insertion of the word "homestead" as designating the class of rights Mary Morgan Schettler promised to release in the bankrupt's estate—thus reserving for her her rights to personal and house-hold property; and the other the strik-ing out of a clause reserving to Mary Morgan Schettler exemption from lia-bility to the bank for any other prop-erty than that listed as exempt. It will be recalled by readers of the "News" that when the Echettler case first came to the notice of the public Mrs, Mary Morgan Schettler stated in an interview that she wanted to give a portion of her home to the relief of the creditors, but that her legal rights to this home were unassailable, and that if necessary she would fight to prove this point in the courts. When the cloud was removed she stated that she would give a large portion of the sale price to her husband's creditors, and the present compromise is along the lines of her first suggestion. VERMILLION FOULLY MURDERED.

Investigation Reveals the Fact That Young Druggist, Whose Death Occurred Under Mysterious Circumstances Last Summer, Was Slain by an Unknown Assassin-State Now Offers a Reward of $500 for His Apprehension and Conviction-Victim Could Not Have Committed Suicide.

A. S. Vermillion, the young druggist who was found dead in his store at 511 west Second South street on the night of Aug. 22, 1994, have not rested the matter with the verdict of the coroner's jury, which found that the young man committed suicide, and ever since the sad affair they have been using every effort to secure information which would throw more light on his death. That they have become thoroughly convinced that he did not commit suicide but that he was foully murdered is very evident from the fact that they have secured sufficient information to Induce Governor Cutier to offer a re-prehension and conviction of the murderer or murderers. A reward of $500 was posted by Governor Cutler today and it is hoped by the relatives of the deceased that such a reward will be the means of obtaining much valuable information which will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the person who committed the crime.
