THE CREDENTIALS PRESENTED

President Dole's Reply is Full of Friendly Expressions to the American People.

HONOLULU, Nov. 11.—But little of a definite nature has transpired since the advices sent by the steamer China. Perhaps the most significant thing was a message by Minister Willis when he presents his credentials on the 7th inst. together with the reply of President Dole. Willis said: Mr. President, Mr. Minister, has never extraordinary at the United States to your government, having resigned his office which covered from 1889 to 1892, I have the honor to now present this letter of recall and express for him the sincere regret that he is unable to make known in person his continued good wishes on behalf of your people and to express and his greatest appreciation of the many courtesies, both personal and official, of which while here he was the honored recipient. I desire at the same time to place in your hands a letter accrediting myself as his successor. In doing this I am directed by the President to bear assurances of the friendly interest and hearty goodwill which our government entertains for you and for the people of the island realm. Actuated by the geographical proximity and commercial interests which center here, the present strained situation and Commission of your people together with your enlightened code of law, stand today as beacon lights of the American eagle, courage and intelligence. It is not sensitive therefore that the United States is the first to recognize the independence of the Hawaiian Islands and welcome them into the great family tree of equal sovereign nations. Nor is it surprising that it is historic fit he has been entrusted from year to year by important mutual reciprocities and agreements alike a durable and advantageous to both governments investing that spirit of peace, friendly intercourse, hospitality which has ever been the shield and sword of this country. I now on behalf of the United States of America tender your people the right hand of goodwill which I trust may be as lasting as I know it is sincere. Expressing a hope that every year will promote and perpetuate that good will to the honor and happiness and prosperity of both governments.

President Dole replied as follows: Mr. Minister: It is with much satisfaction I receive the credentials you bring from the excellency the President of the United States of America, accrediting you as their envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to represent that country at the capital of the Hawaiian Islands. Your assurance of the continued friendship of your government for me and the Hawaiian people and is the gratification which the long experience and generous consideration of the United States for this country has fostered. Permit me to assure you, we heartily reciprocate the expressions of interest and good will which you, on behalf of the American people, have conveyed to us. Partly from proximity and partly from the leading influence of American citizens in the work of inaugurating our Christian civilization, we have grew to these islands, and still more from repeated acts of friendly assistance received from your government in the past half century we have become accustomed to regard the United States as a friend and ally upon whom we learn to look to her for help in our emergencies.

I regret the inability of your predecessor Mr. Blount to personally present his letter of recall and afford me the opportunity to express to him my appreciation of the agreeable official social relations between him and our government and people during his residence here. We congratulate ourselves, Mr. Minister, that the government of the United States is to be represented here by one who we are assured is familiar with the question arising from the relations between the two governments and with whom we look for the maintenance of pleasant official intercourse.

Yesterday Willis sent the government word he would officially present Admiral Irwin to the government this afternoon.

To an Associated Press reporter Willis said: "There is no political significance in the arrival of Admiral Irwin so far as he knows. When he left Washington he knew nothing of the change. He thinks the admiral came under sealed orders to explore. He entered Honolulu quietly and was treated in a similar manner. Willis says his instructions were not to be known until officially handed into the government yesterday.

He denies that only two or three men even at Washington knew what were his instructions, and he declined to make any statement in regard to them. He has asked not however, from my friends across that the new minister will negotiate a new treaty with the provisional government, which will place the Islands virtually under the protection of the United States. In the meantime the Willis forces will see that matters go on in a way quiet here, both internally and externally. This is evidenced by the fact that on the night of Nov. 9, soon after the Philadelphia was dropped in the water, supplied with loaded gatling guns and 500 marines were landed under cover of night. The government officials were of the opinion that this move was in response to rumors of a royalist uprising. The United States marine land was keeping peace at all events. The provisional government is rigidly against surprise. The republic understands the intention of using force, but Uncle Sam United States will restore the queen.

NOW THE NEWS IS REGARDED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—An Associated Press reporter went to see the Hawaiian legation with the bulletin from the Honolulu Associated Press received at Vancouver. Minister Thurston has not received advices that Commissioner Blount, who represented the previous government would not be wanted for the news of the proclamation of Willis's mission and so cause yield without force. He does not know what he expects an opinion of publication. He did express to the provisional government was still in authority. He said he was very much pleased to hear it was stilling. That was all he would say.

W. N. Armstrong, former attorney general of Hawaii under Kalakaua, when shown the bulletin said he had not heard from the time Dole would not yield without the overthrow of force. He thought the United States have drawn up the terms to form for Jarvis until the Minister officially faced. Armstrong feel confident the United States will say more verbal regard of force. Armstrong was strongly inclined to believe the queen has advisers who would counsel not against attempting to go back upon the labors of the United States minister. Armstrong suggested to reporter have been Nounou, who presented her claim in Washington to simply capable of petitioning the restoration of his country's case. He would be likely to say to her, unless protection to some way was guaranteed her, she would be likely to be killed soon if the protection of the United States were withdrawn. Armstrong intimated this may have led to all issues as the situation in Hawaii by perhaps making it impossible for the queen to use the influence to Minister Willis.

PRINCE PEDRO

He Has Been Proclaimed Emperor of Brazil by Mello.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—A dispatch from Madrid says the news office there has received advices that Admiral Mello has proclaimed Prince Pedro emperor of Brazil and not president as at first announced. Similar advices are received from Lisbon, and the version receives credence here and at Madrid and Lisbon.

Countess Dion would have been emperor under the old order of succession, and so she has never abdicated. Mello's proclamation is vague, says the Brazilian minister here. He has no advices concerning the alleged proclamation.

A dispatch from Lisbon by a messenger from Brazil brings the news that Admiral Palmeiro, editor of a newspaper opposed to Peixoto has been shot by order of the president.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The Westminster Gazette announces that Prince Pedro has sent Mello's flagship and says "If Mello can not force a landing and win the insurgents from the south and seize the site republic, he will finds inglorious."

Assistant U. S. Attorney for Utah.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Samuel R. Thomson of Provo, Utah, was today appointed assistant U. S. attorney for Utah.

The Flag News.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The news from Hawaii, brought to San Francisco by the steamer Australia, was exactly sought for by the officials at Washington. The Associated Press bulletin on the subject were promptly furnished to the White House and contained the first news the President received from Hawaii. The President with much interest but declined to say anything touching the matter.

At Last.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—A seven o'clock this morning the steamer Australia, from Honolulu, was sighted twelve miles outside. It is expected to arrive within the heads about 11 o'clock, Chicago time.

Armstrong, acting commissioner of Indian affairs, has been informed that quite a party of whites have entered the Uncompahgre Indian reservation, Utah, to prospect for gold. The agent of the Indians who forwarded the information have asked for instructions. Gen. Armstrong replied instructing the agent to promptly remove the intruders.

INCOME TAX BILL.

Will Not Affect Incomes of Less than $4000 a Year.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The forging of an income tax to increase the revenues in order to permit the contemplated reductions in the tariff will be recommended by the sub-committee of the ways and means committee to the full committee. It is understood a majority of the full committee are favorable to it. The present plan is to tax incomes of less than $4000 per annum, and to make the tax two per cent, from that up to $50,000, five per cent, from the latter up to $100,000, and ten per cent on all amounts over $100,000. The subcommittee also recommended favorable action on the bill of Bryan, of Nebraska, for the repeal of the oil of United States tax and bonds amounting in some $22,000,000, and also on the bill to permit the general circulation of bank their gold. The idea is to earn interest and at the same time to add to the circulating medium.

The Silver Bill.

Special to the Deseret News.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 16.—J. W. Fletcher, a Union Pacific detective, and H. E. Berlew of Denver, and M. J. Nelson, manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, Allen Thompson, who has charge of the company's lateraies, and Sam Durham, the detective, were in the city yesterday in connection with the alleged dynamite outrage on the 15th. On Thursday the men had two fellows arrested in Denver and brought here. Yesterday Durham's men found dynamite in the hall and local on said letter. The men are supposed to be in some way connected with the outrage. Nelson is a complainant in the case. With nothing to the contrary the men are held in custody. Durham is a detective of Denver.

R. Moore, another union man, one of the Western Union Telegraph company, came in on the Denver the evening, and was taken before the United States commissioner and bound over in the sum of $2,000 to appear before the grand jury. Moore was charged with the dynamite outrage.

Cases, Ten Million and More to be Tried for Rebate.

THREE INDICTMENTS WERE SUSTAINED

Judge Zane's Ruling in His Native Northwestern—The Defendants on Bail.

Testimony of Sergeant Leone, Private Sheffield, and Lieutenant Bond, in connection with the late tragedy at Fort Douglas, in which Joe Lemmon lost his life, were called up in Judge Zane's court this morning in order that the facts might be formally submitted to a jury empaneled for that purpose and their verdict given. The fact that of the ruling of the court upon the demurrers interposed by counsel in this matter was reported in the Thursday's NEWS, and it was upon the authority of that that the cases were now brought up.

The prosecution was again represented by Assistant District Attorney Howat; Attorneys Varian and H. W. Young appeared for the defendants, each of whom was present.

Judge Zane, it will be remembered, sustained the demurrer of the defendants' counsel to the indictment under the Territorial statutes charging murder in the second degree, and when the jury has been sworn this morning to establish the simple fact that the alleged crime was committed within the Fort Douglas military reservation.

Sergeant Graf was called and testified that he saw the shooting of Lemmon. It occurred within the confines of the reservation ground.

Attorney Varian thereupon asked that the jury be instructed to return a verdict of acquittal, on the grounds that the Territorial court lacked jurisdiction. The court so directed the jury, and they acted accordingly, thus disposing of the question of the court's jurisdiction.

Judge Howat—In view of the holding of the court on the question I wish to dismiss the case against the defendant Rock, wherein the same fact is involved.

Attorney Varian—It ought to be dismissed. We were going to ask it. We are ready to plead now to the United States indictment.

Indictment Index was then told to plead to the charge. He entered a special plea of former acquittal, and also a plea of not guilty, in which the prosecution interposed a demurrer, Judge Howat saying—Now comes the United States and demurs to the special plea interposed by the defendant herein and pleadings upon the facts that the defendant has not been tried for the offense charged in the indictment by any court having jurisdiction of the said offense, and that the general court-martial which tried the defendants not the set upon which the indictment is founded had no jurisdiction or authority to try him for the crime charged in the indictment, and the trial and acquittal of the defendant by the general court martial is no bar to the trial of the defendant upon this indictment.

The court sustained this.

Counsel for the defendants took exception. Whereupon Judge Zane pointed out that the indictment referred to the grand jury charged murder, which was the unlawful killing of a human being with malice aforethought, whereas manslaughter was the killing of a person without malice, in a sudden heat of passion. They were two different offenses. In time of war a court martial would have, in fact, jurisdiction over both, but in time of peace it would not have jurisdiction at all in a case of murder.

Mr. Varian said they understood the other day, upon his honor's ruling in this case, that the plea of former acquittal by the court-martial would be good in bar to this prosecution; but the judge replied that he did not decide, the time stated expressly that the court-martial had no jurisdiction to try the defendants under the United States law; and therefore they would have to stand trial now under the territorial statutes.

Two out of the three defendants, namely, Lione and Sheffield, were then arraigned and entered pleas of not guilty. Lieut. Bond will be plead today.

Judge Howat, after hearing argument for the defense in regard to Lieutenant Rock, while stating that he did not feel inclined to dismiss the case as against that defendant, admitted that it was an entirely different case from the other two.

Attorney Varian was glad to hear this from the prosecuting counsel, and pointed out that in Lieut. Rock's case, on certain reasons, he desired a speedy hearing.

It was then arranged that his trial should be taken up before Judge Zane on Thursday next, so to the others arrangement was made.

The bond of the three defendants was fixed at $2000 each.

THE OFFICIAL COUNT

Closed Contests, It is Seen and All the Legislature.

THE CONTESTS SET FOR TUESDAY

Slow Progress with the Board Canvass—The Question of Tie Votes—More Protests.

The Utah Canvassing Board completed the counting of the votes cast for Legislative tickets, while the board is given today. That is Salt Lake County is the only one in which contests are filed. The Democratic Legislative ticket was in by exactly 1000 at 4 p. m.

The Democratic County and Legislative contests were called up today, Judge Bailey was present, and so was Mr. Greenwood. The hearing of Mr. Young was not ready to proceed, however, and asked a postponement till Monday. The attorney for Mr. Greenwood had filed a motion for dismissal and demurrer to the complaint, and the hearing for Tuesday, Nov. 21, at 10 a. m. As Mr. Greenwood's case was settled, the matter in his case was fixed for hearing on the same day, and notice to attend to him.

In the general canvass the board progressed slowly today, owing to a number of legal questions that came up for consideration as to precedent. One of these was in relation to the votes to be cast in case of tie, Democrats and Republicans. It was decided that the canvassing board would simply return with certified a statement of the votes, and in cases of tie verify that fact to the secretary of the Territory, who has been appointed by the commission to hold public contested in the fall.

The canvassing board received a letter from Jacob Lansing, attorney for the board of Gunnison, asking that the vote for president and trustees of the newly incorporated town be canvassed. As no return of this vote was made by the judges of election, the board could be under by the board, and it was decided to refer the parties interested to take further steps in the premises.

Two protests were filed, one by Adolph Jensen, candidate for member of Spanish City, Sanpete county. According to the returns, C. C. Anderson was declared elected by 1 and A. Jensen 150 votes. Mr. Jensen says that there are votes cast for Mr. Anderson were by non-residents, whose by names, and that one vote was cast for C. C. Anderson was counted for him. On this evidence he claims to have received a majority of the legal votes cast, and asks to be heard at such time as may be convenient to the board. As the returns showed no irregularity the board could not interfere, and Mr. Jensen will have his remedy in a contest before the courts.

The other protest came from Emery, Josh county, where B. G. Wilson, John Huggins, Pat Shea and others object to certificate of election being issued to C. W. Clark and H. P. Dayton as county commissioners. The case of the protest is as follows:

That the two persons named are not freeholders in the city of Lucas, and therefore are ineligible to election, Sec. 1746, Compilation of 1888, Article 3, Political Code, is cited as the law in the case.

That the two persons named are not only not freeholders but are absolutely "scrub" poor.

That the petitioners believe that the two persons named design following in others by obtaining temporary possession of property for the purpose of qualifying as commissioners.

That the two persons named were elected by the influence of a great corporation, and are inclined to the stock interest, and they in no way represent the taxpayers.

Action on the protest was deferred for the present.

Salt Lake county outside of Salt Lake City was taken up this afternoon and the count thereon was progressing so far as completed the vote is as follows:
