DEATH FROM BICYCLE RIDING.

Tricks of Tramp—Cattle Thieves in Northeastern Utah—Insane From Hunger—Accidents.

Judge Hallett, of the superior court at Los Angeles, Friday afternoon granted a final order, directing the receiver of the Nevada Southern railway to sell the road to pay a debt.

There are about 60,000 gallons of grape brandy in the United States special bonded warehouses in Santa Rosa, Cal., and gallons of apple brandy or 1,500 gallons of peach brandy.

Pasquel Alvarez, a native of Chile, aged 41 years, was crushed by Southern Pacific train 13 near San Marcos, Cal., Friday afternoon and injured so that he died in an hour. He was under the influence of liquor.

Mr. Roland Vaz, a colored man with white as black as ebony, and Miss Lee Garrett, a girl looking little white, both of Salt Lake City, were united in matrimony by Judge C. E. Lockes at his office in Evanston, Wyo., last Saturday.

Gustave Roesch, a survivor of the Donner disaster, has brought suit against the Pacific Mail Steamship Company to recover $50,000 damages for personal injuries received at the time of the wreck. He charges that the steamer had been negligently and carelessly overloaded with lumber. He was taken after being thrown in the water he was struck by heavy timbers and so badly injured that he has since been unable to follow his vocation as a violin player. He was in the water thirty-nine hours.

Wyoming Star: The old outlaw gang which has made life miserable for years for the settlers in Utah and Wyoming, where the states of Wyoming, Colorado and the Territory of Utah meet are reported to be quite active this summer. Members of this gang are accused of being responsible for the recent hold-up of Mr. Kennedy, the lessee of Rock Springs, and their other depredations are numbered by the score. The sixth sense of the cattle commissioners should enable them in putting a stop to the work of this long-running gang of Jack-Mormons. Most of them are said to be the leader of this body of outlaws.

While Dr. J. M. Sims, the talented young surgeon who was adjudged insane last Tuesday and who is now in the Utah, Cal., asylum, occupies a padded cell at the Receiving Hospital, awaiting an examination as to his mental condition, a certain story of relieved privation comes to light and is now a general topic of conversation among his friends, both in and out of the profession. While at the hospital Dr. Sims was visited by all of his most intimate friends and associates, who did not hesitate to say that the young man's mental condition had no doubt been brought about in part by actual want. Those who know him best say that for some weeks prior to the time of his confinement he had suffered from lack of food, because he did not have money with which to pay for it and was too proud to allow his friends to assist him.

Orff Jones, an employe of the Steelwater, Wyoming, Coal company, while lying in bed in his cabin on Sunday night last at Hawlins, was stung on the right cheek below the eye by a scorpion which immediately inflicted death for its rashness. The pain at the time was like a needle piercing the flesh, but it gradually eased and Jones did not give the wound further attention until it at morning, when he looked into the glass. He didn't know himself his right cheek being swollen to the size of a ham and his eye closed. This condition of things rather disturbed his equanimity and he hastened to see what could be done for him. On Tuesday his cheek was more like two hams than one, and the sting in it was about as acute as when the scorpion was using his business end upon Orff's face, but the doctor's treatment reduced the swelling.

Death from a singular cause has just occurred in Oakland, Cal. A young man named George N. Giles, aged 20 years, died on Thursday last of what the physicians say was "tetanus poisoning." This disease is caused by continuous jarring, and in the case of young Giles was brought about by excessive bicycle riding. The young man resided with his parents at 2033 Brush street, near Webster, and several weeks ago was taken sick. Physicians were called in, and he was declared for typhoid fever and other ailments, but he continued to grow worse till death came. Friday an autopsy was performed by Drs. Wheeler and Hamlin, which showed that the malady caused the patient's death. It is a disease peculiar to railroad men. The effect of the jarring appears at the base of the spine, and gradually ascends until the brain is reached, when death comes. In the case of Giles a disease is traceable to bicycle riding. He was in the employ of the Overland Wire company, and last Winter, when the blizzard was raging in Arizona, he went over the line between the two places to see that the men were not interfered with. The pipe line follows county roads, and young Giles rode along them, the distance each day being twenty miles. He rode to trade daily for months. He took the stooping posture, or "stoop," so many do, and he thought the inner side of the tubes in his chest gradually became the stiff. Ever since the jarring wore, last spring Giles was taken ill and sought relief to a cessation of labor. This helped him for a time, but a few weeks ago he was totally laid down. This is the first case where death has resulted from bicycle riding, so far as the coroners of Oakland now will the phrase "bicycle neck—spinal meningitis."

A Visit to South Africa.

COCHRANTON, Pa., Sept. 30, 1895. Years ago I had occasion to visit North Carolina, and while there had occasion to visit an attack. Hearing, for the first time, of Simmons Liver Regulator, I used it. Nothing before had so effectually relieved me. I could go to any meal without fear, and I could do any work I desired. I recommend it to all my friends.—N. Blackwell. 3

SALTAIR TRAINS on Page 8

Reader, did you ever take Simmons Liver Regulator, the "King of Medicines"? Everybody needs it sometimes. It is a gentle cathartic, and yet a most powerful tonic. It is a complete medicine chest in itself. It acts on the liver, stomach, bowels and kidneys at the same time. It is the great blood purifier, and will bring back the color of health to the pale face. It is the best safeguard against malaria. It is a mild laxative and a tonic. It is the best medicine for the aged, feeble, nervous, dyspeptic, bilious, malarial, or those who need a tonic. It is not an old or new medicine, but has been tried and proved by the test of time and found to be the best. Take no other. Genuine only with our Trade Mark on the wrapper. J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia.

FALL GOODS COMING NOW.

Woolen Goods a Trifle Higher Than Last Fall, Cotton Fabrics and Sewing Silks have Also Advanced in Price.

We have selected cloth this fall with the idea that we want to take no risk in the matter of trade. And that we now offer will want to be sure that they have been buying for the past three years. Three or no purchases from the most reliable mail order house, and consequently we have laid in a very good line of last year's designs. We have also made some extensive changes in our cloth buying department. We also start in this season with the services of one of the most reliable and best known cutters in the city, so our customers are trying to keep pleased by pressing on the cutter.

With regard to price we will only add that we have given special attention to our method of giving our customers the greatest value possible for their money. Being well with very small profits.

We have also looked after the interests of our best customers and we can say that they can afford to wear a little more in a coat, but on the other hand we will be able to offer them appearing clothing, and for the coat have purchased a very carefully selected line of American made goods. These goods are equal in appearance of price and general appearance to those of foreign manufacture, and we feel confident of securing the trade and asking you to be our guest, and if you find we are supported, and offered for sale by them in such a price much lower than the imported goods can be sold for, or a much higher price than we are charging the same goods for. From these goods we are made to fill orders at from $18 to $30 and give the customer the benefit of having the cut and made by the best skilled workmen in the city, a privilege we think will be appreciated.
