Adopted. The second resolution provided that for paying the cost of paving intersections and spaces opposite alleys in these districts, the council shall cause to be issued bonds of the city, to run not more than twenty years and bear interest payable annually at a rate not to exceed six per cent, to be called paving bonds, the issue to be $23,000. Adopted.

The next resolution provides that whereas the city, being desirous of borrowing the sum of $200,000 for making permanent improvements and for other purposes, it is deemed prudent and best to issue a series of 200 $1000 bonds; that the principal shall be payable at the office of the treasurer of this city twenty years after the date of the bonds, but they may be redeemed at the option of the city at any time within ten years after the date of issuance; the bonds to bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent, payable semi-annually in this city and New York, both interest and principal being payable in lawful money of the United States. AFTER THE STORM.

Sir Cumming Secretly Married this Morning to Miss Garner, of New York.

THEY GO TO ALTYRE TO SPEND THEIR HONEYMOON.

The Happy Couple Expected to Visit the United States in the Autumn.

TO TRIBUNE-NEWS.

SIR CUMMING MARRIED.

The Happy Bride is a Daughter of Commodore Garner, New York.

LONDON, June 10.—Sir William Gordon Cumming was married this morning in the Holy Trinity church at Chelsea, to Miss Florence Garner, a daughter of the late Commodore William Garner, New York City. Only twelve people were present.

The marriage was a particularly quiet affair. Sir William looked pale and anxious, and seemed very self-possessed. There is no trace in his personal appearance of depression or emotion resulting from yesterday's verdict.

Lady and Sir William Gordon Cumming left this city shortly after the ceremony for the bridegroom's estate, Altyre, near Forres, in Scotland, where they will spend the honeymoon.

In an interview today Sir William Gordon Cumming said he had nothing to add to what he said in the witness box. He refused to say anything in regard to the comments of the newspapers upon the case just decided, saying that they were at perfect liberty to say what they pleased.

When the verdict was pronounced against him, Sir William again offered to cancel his engagement to Miss Garner, but that lady, believing in his innocence, would not hear such a thing and insisted that the marriage should take place today.

It is expected that Sir William and his wife will visit the United States in the autumn.

Damage by Forest Fires.

SALTSBURY, June 10.—Forest fires are raging in Pennsylvania especially on the northern branch of the international railroad. Kent Junction is wiped out and Wedford and Coal Junction are in ashes. Every available man is fighting the fire. Many saw mills are turned. The fire is spreading and unless aid comes such great damage is threatened.

Alleged Smuggling of U. S. Navy officers.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—The Chronicle states that the tenders agent visited Mare Island navy yard last week and made the discovery that a large quantity of valuable merchandise was brought into the country by several American war vessels which recently returned from a Chinese station, and that no revenue duties were paid on it. It is said the entire consignment, worth several thousand dollars, was seized by the customs authorities and consigned to the appraiser's store.

The Chronicle states that some of the principal officers of the "Omaha" and one or two officers of the "Pensacola," are suspected to be implicated, and that action is being taken in the matter by the naval and treasury departments in Washington.

The Report of the Jury on the Walla Walla Lynching.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 10.—The Washington grand jury empanelled to investigate the lynching of Hunt by soldiers, April 25, reported to the Superior court a true bill against seven citizens and one of the Fourth United States cavalry. The report says there is no doubt that Colonel Compton did not believe his troops would attack the jail, that he was absent from the sheriff and his prisoner on the night before the lynching, and the open defiance of the instructions issued officers supposed to be guardsmen, have been a sufficient warning to him of what might be expected; negligence existed in not having ample precaution to keep his men under direct control. The jury is of the opinion that the sheriff was taken by surprise and not prepared for defense and that if he made any resistance general alarm would have been sounded and in all probability the men would have been dispersed without gaining their object. The jury suggests that the county commissioners prepare a statement of the expenses incurred by the county on account of the outrage and present the same as a claim against the United States. It is thought as the relations between the citizens and the troops are rather strained, it would be well to have the latter exchanged.

A Fire at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 10.—A saw mill at Snohomish burned last night. The fire spread to the telegraph office, cutting off the communication. The loss is fully $100,000.

The Australian Colonies Admitted to the Postal Union.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—From private advices received at the post office department from the Universal Postal Union Congress, now holding session in Vienna, it is learned that the long desired accession of the Australian Colonies has been effected. This means a reduction of more than fifty per cent in the rates of postage to those countries.

The Petroleum Production.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The census office bulletin shows the petroleum produced in eleven states in 1891. The total production was 35,000,000 barrels, valued at $26,554,000.

The Osage Rises.

CHERRYVALE, Mo., June 10.—The Osage river is higher than for many years. The bottom lands and wheat fields are flooded. Great loss will result from the destruction of crops and the washing away of fences and railroad ties.

The Illinois House on the 5th inst. passed the Chicago labor bill. It received 101 affirmative votes and but two negatives. The bill provides that no child under the age of thirteen shall be employed by any person, firm or corporation unless an agent or person relative is dependent on the child for support. In such case it is made necessary for the child to procure a certificate from the board of examiners. The board cannot issue this certificate unless the child has attended school for at least eight weeks of the current year. The penalty is a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50.

OUT OF ITS OWN MOUTH.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 9, 1891.

Editor Deseret News:

An editorial in this day's issue of the Salt Lake Tribune attracted my attention by reason of the flimsy arguments (?) in favor of maintaining the old time bad politics. The article concludes with the following paragraph:

> In the meantime the agitation here concerning in the meantime, Kansas people, who would like to come here, are looking wary in the direction, there is no doubt, that the "Liberal" party has died, and that there was no unanimous prospect of standard for Utah, at the coming November elections.

This states distinctly that there is no Eastern money coming to Utah; and to use the "Liberal" party becomes defunct that absolute prostration of trade will prevail.

In the first column of page six of the same issue in which is the editorial referred to, appears the following item:

> MONEY PRESSING IN.
>
> There are now large lots of money here from outside that recently from Boston for investment in Utah.

And further on in the same column I find an other item of a similar import. Here it is:

> REAL ESTATE NOW.
> Real estate men report that while the business seems to be slow, there is a steady stream of money flowing in here from the East, and is being steadily invested.

Now what conclusions are to be drawn from this conflict in descriptions of the situation here? Either the other or the reporter must be an intentional falsifier, or one with zero must be the most stupid ass that ever wielded a pen in the editorial chair.

The Tribune also contends that there is no change in the situation in this city, county and Territory. I would respectfully call attention to the new review of the commencement exercises of St. Mark's school, and for its own edification I will reproduce the closing paragraph of that report. Here it is:

> "Milton Leonard has issued a circular to the friends of St. Mark's school in which he says:
>
> "The prospect for the future is very encouraging. Our school is now in a healthy condition. The enrollment of pupils is larger than ever before in the history of the school. The attendance is good, the expenses are low, the school will be conducted on the same lines as heretofore, Mr. Rice is high school and Professor A. H. Hodges, A. B., who has had so much success in the school for the past year, will be the director of studies. Mr. Rice is a high school graduate and a high grade of a university with his degrees."
