CASH FROM UTAH MINES

Today's Dividend Movements Aggregate the Neat Sum of $108,750.

REGULAR PAYERS THE CONTRIBUTORS.

Some Gold Bar and Cyanides—At the Boston Gulch—Kimber to Go to Work—Trading in the Pit.

As a rule is known by the fruit it bears so also is a mine or mining company known by the dividends it disperses. This being the case Utah seems especially to be credited with some of the best mines in the country as the point of dividends goes, who is entitled to be, if, not, of the states in the Union. The list of such month is a banner one, for, by ministry of Utah mining, as in this day over $100,000 is either paid or ordered to those holding stock in a few of the Utah's best properties. To add something to capital current, the Bear River company handed out to its stockholders the sum of $27,500, this preceded by following by the distributions of $1,250 by the Grand Central, and $1,000 by the Mammoth, which, with the Mercur company there is offered the announcement that dividend of 12½ cents a share or $22,500 has been declared, this amount to find its way into the wallets of those entitled to it on Monday, the 28th of November. Yesterday there was no regular meeting of the Silver Reef company, but a special one, for the purpose of declaring a dividend, this to be paid on the 15th of December, the sum of which, if the rate be followed, would be the putting of a dividend, this to be paid on the 15th inst., and further the rumors of the 15th, at which will be found to be a dividend, which will be materially strengthened later on in the month.

Gold Bar and Cyanides.

The Nabob mine at Tintarora, Nev., reported color with a gold bar valued at $1,000 and an extra heavy shipment of cyanide ore. The property is reported in excellent shape—a report not to be confined to the fans of such disposition is that so stated this morning.

Work at the Golden Gate.

From the shaft of the De La Mar mining, it is evident the information received, and pertaining very advantageously to the Golden Gate mill are, actually in the Golden Gate mill are, actually in the Golden Gate mill are, the work delayed somewhat, is now all in the ground and the probabilities are that in from daily to the 15th, it will be entirely enclosed. In addition to the mill, given a capacity of one hundred tons per day, the 1st of the new year, the anticipations are that the amount of ore will be some greater. Yesterday, Mr. A. Eden Cannon, De La Mar's manager, was in town out of town looking for consumers.

The Kimber to Get to Work.

The Kimber G.M. Mining company held a meeting yesterday, Mr. Wm. Wise was elected a director to succeed Mr. Lewis, who resigned, and set ready for business. The company owns 250 acres of patented ground on the West Dip at Mercur and report is made every man is in the element but as soon as the weather permits, work will be attended to. Mr. Fox stated today that in all probability a contract would be let for sinking an hundred feet, the hole to be sunk by a day or two. From Mr. Fox's remarks it would appear that he is not Mr. Lewis have great faith in the property.

TRADING IN THE PIT.

Before a Little Work, but Figures Well Balanced—Sacramento Active.

Some continued a little stock on the exchange, although on the face figures are well balanced and are a good index to the local market. The feature of today's call was Sacramento, which rose a little from yesterday's price and which heavy sales, all in our from 41 to 42½ cents. Closing, the stock was a trifle in the equivalent and bid a bid of 42 cents, while there was offered at 42½.

The tone carried with speculators in the pit, but despite this bullish feature Mammoth was pushed, some 10 shares changed hands at $13, and in the paper is Eureka Bonanza at $1.375. Hecla, undivided, had a bid of $1.375, but no trading took place. Yesterday, Hecla passed out to the ex-dividend, which, considerable money was changed, 1,200 shares changed taken between $4 and $6 stocks, as the figures from the figures of the day before. The extra mentioned consisted in the entire dealings in Utah Con. The remainder stocks standing practically unchanged.

Dealers spread for stocks untouched and for business at $2.75, while a bid of $2.70 remained in evidence. Following the sale Chrysolite Point, which sold at $1.05 and then stocks made its appearance with a customary bid but no dealings. Ax Bowers sold in one and no less, but Tomboy made a sale at 9 cents, while Value paid of the nominal bid in sales at from $1.60 to $1.65, while the Bullion registered a sale at $1.15. The other silver was Tiny and Little Pittsburg, the former at 4 cents and above and the latter at 4 cents. Crown of Park City was sold and had a bid of 3 cents, with no offer at 3½.
