M. C. Dougherty, former superintendent of the Utah division of the Southern Pacific, is dead. Word reached here yesterday from Ogden, Beth, Cal., where he died Saturday night. He was a brother of Dr. Dougherty of this city, and had resided here quite a long time. The remains will be brought here. The cause of his death was chronic kidney trouble. The deceased was 48 years and 10 months old. He was married about two years ago, and the bereaved widow and the best days in the city and county will be tendered her in her sad bereavement.

George T. Odell, general manager of the Group Wagon and Harvester company, left for Chicago Saturday night, where he was summoned hurriedly on Friday last by the news that his mother, Mrs. Sarah Odell, was in a critical condition. He didn't attend the popular Salt Lake train for the north Friday, but took a 6 o'clock train for Ogden and caught the train there. He left his wife and family in Ogden, and stated he would return in a week. He is a young man, 30 years old, and the fact that he was married about a year ago, renders his mother's death doubly sad.

It is stated that Archbishop Corrigan and Rev. Dr. Lambert of New York are contemplating a visit to Utah this year for their health. Dr. Lambert is a sufferer from hay fever and roughly said Salt Lake was another place. Dr. Corrigan is a sufferer from rheumatism. Anyone who has passed a few days in Salt Lake City will be glad of the news that the Archbishop and Dr. Lambert have decided to come and to spend months in the Utah capital. Anyone who knows the people of the state, the people who are responsible for the Catholic hierarchy of America as well, will be pleased to have a Catholic here. At that will be needed from the part of the citizens who represent the interests of the Rio Grande western in the matter of the new depot. The officials in authority are anxious to do all that is in their power to make the new depot a success, and the people will be pleased to have the opportunity to confer with Mr. Anson upon the subject.

A. J. Hoffman, the superior, spoke of the fact that a few days ago he had received a letter, the envelope inside of which was addressed to Mrs. Hoffman and to open it was thought it was addressed to her, and was opened. Later he thought he had made a mistake and had opened the letter addressed to him with the envelope addressed to Mrs. Hoffman. The letter was from a young man, who has been in the employ of Lawson Bros. Mr. H. Spoke of the fact that the young man was in coaching Salt Lake around the country. The letter was dated at Ogden, Utah, and was addressed to Mrs. Hoffman. Coming the way he really is, it was not to be quite in order for the young man to address a letter to Mrs. Hoffman, but he looked. What he wrote, of course, is probably a secret. Mr. Hoffman said he probably would be able to unravel the mystery by the time he is married. He stated that he intends to be married in a few weeks, and he is undecided as to whether he will go to Ogden or Salt Lake City for the ceremony.

Mr. Odell is a Utah man, but has been in the employ of the Group company for some time. The party of Chicago people left Friday for Salt Lake City, and Mr. Odell informed the Deseret News that they were well pleased with the results of the contest. Mr. Odell stated that the Group Wagon and Harvester company, Walter Gardner, president, of Springfield, Ohio, and the Harvester company, of Chicago, are moving the best knows in America for the benefit of the farmers. The Harvester company is in the hands of the Co-operative Wagon & Machine Co. Three years ago, Mr. Odell stated, the Co-operative Wagon & Machine Co.
