AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvelous cures, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equaled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their painful effects, that is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely defence. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its early use to sudden attacks.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, April 17, 1882.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

The regular services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints were held in the Assembly Hall yesterday, commencing at 2 p. m.

The choir sang the hymn on the 27th page:

The Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a shepherd's care.

Prayer was offered by Elder Henry Lunt.

The choir sang the hymn on page 156:

O God the Eternal Father,
Who dwells amid the skies.

The sacrament was administered. Elder J. B. Malben said: He felt thankful for the privilege we have had of meeting together during the late Conference, to listen to the good instructions which have been imparted. The power of Satan has overshadowed the minds of the people throughout all ages down to the present time, but I am thankful that I live in this day, when the Gospel has been restored, and the Lord is gathering this people together for the last time, and establishing His kingdom, never more to be torn down, or trampled assunder, and He will not fail to carry out His plans, but will bare His arm in defence of His work. By and bye the light of Zion will shine and go forth into every corner of the earth, and the people of this nation, as well as the people of every nation of the whole earth will rise up and glorify Zion, and thousands of bright spirits will bless this people for the stand they have taken.

I am pleased to bear my testimony of the good work which is being done on the Manti Temple; of the good spirit of the workmen and the liberality of the people in contributing their means to aid the building of that which will bless both the living and the dead. And the Lord has blessed the people in all their labors, and He is continually blessing those who show their faith by their works. Who is more interested in this work than our Father and His Son Jesus Christ? I am sure if the Latter-day Saints keep His commandments and live their religion, He will protect them in their rights, and the day will come when Jesus will reign, whose right it is.

Elder David H. Cannon said: There is considerable anxiety amongst us at present as to how the peculiar circumstances which we are placed in will turn out, but there need be no anxiety in our minds if we will study the dealings of God through the early history of this people and up to the present time. We have seen times when black clouds hung so close around us that, to the human eye, utter destruction seemed inevitable, and yet He has ruled and over-ruled everything until what is the result to-day? Why, these mountains are teeming with Latter-day Saints. And there need not be any doubt in the minds of the Saints that what God has promised He will do. When God commanded Abraham to offer up his son Isaac as a sacrifice, I have no doubt that it caused Abraham a great deal of sorrow, but he had such faith in the promises that the Lord had made, that he feared nothing. If the Latter-day Saints live their religion and keep their covenants with God, the time will come when they will not only have elective powers, but will say who shall rule over them. Though armies might be sent to destroy us and the whole Congress of the United States should be turned against us, God will still carry out his plans. The things of this gospel do not pertain to this life only, they reach into eternity, and what if our lives are taken? The only thing which the Latter-day Saints should fear is that they might fall and disgrace themselves before God.

Elder Henry W. Naisbitt said: It is always a pleasure for me to reflect on the dealings of God with his people, throughout various ages, down to the present, and to think of the various ways in which we find the faithful have gained their salvation. For instance, Abraham gained his salvation by leaving his native land. Noah, by building the Ark, and the Latter-day Saints have likewise received certain blessings, by certain movements of the whole body, therefore we should reflect and try to discover just what movements will bless us most at various times, I think that now that we are assaulted in our political relations because we practice certain principles. We should try and impress on the minds of our youth the principles which grow out of our Constitution, that they may understand the powers of citizenship etc. I presume that this would be a good text for our fathers and mothers for fireside talk. There is another principle which we should practice. I mean the sustaining of our friend and not our enemies in a commercial capacity, and also of co-operation. I have no doubt that in the economy of God this principle was established for our mercantile salvation. Before long the Saints will be required to dress and adorn themselves by the work of their own hands. We should no longer depend on Babylon for our sustenance. It it not creditable to us to depend upon our enemies for our food and clothing and all that we consume. All that we consume is the product of human ingenuity, human labor and perseverance, and the Latter-day Saints have better facilities, as good minds and labor as can be found anywhere on the earth, and the kingdom of God includes all of these things. All sacred history tends to show us that the people of God in all ages did not only work in religion; for instance, Noah built the ark and other persons did various things.

I am not afraid of the commotion there is just now. All the priests, congressmen and all people may be against this people, but I can testify that God has established His kingdom on the earth, never more to be thrown down.

Elder Henry Lunt said: What a comfort it is in these trying hours when a man has received the Holy Spirit. I remember when I first embraced the gospel, how glad I felt, and I have felt glad ever since, and have always felt to do everything I was called upon to do. He gave a brief sketch of his travels since he has been in the Church.

The choir sang:

Benediction by Elder G. B. Wallace.

Bragged.

Boys are often as foolish braggarts as their elders. They love to "show off," and will put themselves to trouble and pain in order to win admiration. The following anecdote taken from the New York Ledger, displays a braggart whose folly brought ridicule upon himself:

"When I was at school," says Colonel Tracey, late clerk to the Mayor, "there was one boy with whom I was always quarrelling. He was an Irish youth named Barney, and like many of his countrymen, he had a fair share of mother wit. I believe I disliked him mainly because of his wit, which sooner or later made every boy in school the butt of some joke.

"Never shall I forget how I tried to get even with him, and how woefully he beat me with my own weapons. Laying my plan carefully beforehand, I drew Barney into a controversy in presence of most of the boys, upon the comparative bravery of the Anglo-Saxon and Celtic races. After a warm discussion, in which history was largely drawn upon and much bantering exchanged, I said:

"Look here, Barney, we can test the thing right here. You are an Irishman, I am a Yankee. Now I will engage to do something here, this moment, that you will not dare to do."

"'Go ahead!' returned he defiantly, and the boys crowded around to see the fun. I took a large pin from my coat and deliberately thrust it through the lobe of my ear, pulled it through to the head, and then drew it out. It hurt dreadfully, but I never winced.

"'There, Barry,' said I, handing him the pin, 'I dare you to do that.'

"Every eye was upon him, but he was quite equal to the occasion.

"'Yes,' he replied slowly—I dare do it—but I'm not such a blasted fool!

"What a shout the boys raised! I slunk away, feeling very silly. I had a sore ear for many days, and firmly resolved never again to outbrag an Irishman."

An Exchange of Babies.

A Mrs. Wilson came into the city by a late train one night last week from Belleville. She had several children with her, one of them a baby in arms, which was snugly wrapped up in a huge shawl. Another lady arrived at some point West, and was also the owner of a baby. The ladies placed their babies in the waiting-room while they went to look up their baggage. When they returned, they took one another's baby, and the lady from Belleville drove to Parkdale, and the lady from the West to the north end of Yonge Street. One of the children was a boy and the other a little girl, and they were put to bed hurriedly when home was reached. The surprise of the mothers may be imagined the next morning, when apparently a single night had transformed the sex of their babies. The children were not "unmixed" until Monday.—Toronto Globe.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Norman J. Coleman, of the St. Louis (Mo.) Rural World, says: "I have never used the St. Jacobs Oil myself, but my wife has found it of exceeding great benefit in rheumatism, with which she suffered much until she used this remedy. In my neighborhood, at Cabanne station, there has been considerable rheumatism and complaints of a similar nature, owing to the severe changes of the wetaher. Many of my neighbors have tried St. Jacobs Oil and speak of it in terms of the highest praise. A special instance you can note is that of a young man employed in my office."

TUTT'S PILLS!

AS AN ANTI-BILIOUS MEDICINE, are incomparable. They stimulate the TORPID LIVER, invigorate the NERVOUS SYSTEM, give tone to the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, create perfect digestion and regular movement of the bowels.

AS AN ANTI-MALARIAL They have no equal; acting as a preventive and cure for Bilious, Remittent, Intermittent Typhoid Fevers, and Fever and Ague. Upon the healthy action of the Stomach and Liver depends, almost wholly, the health of the human race.

DYSPEPSIA. It is for the cure of this disease and its attendants, SICK-HEADACHE, NERVOUSNESS, DESPONDENCY, CONSTIPATION, PILES, &c., that these Pills have gained such a wide reputation. No remedy was ever discovered that acts so speedily and gently on the digestive organs, giving them tone and vigor to assimilate food. This accomplished, the NERVES are BRACED, the BRAIN NOURISHED, and the BODY ROBUST. Try this Remedy fairly and you will gain a Vigorous Body, Pure Blood, Strong Nerves, and a Cheerful mind.

NOTICE.

In the Probate Court, of the County of Sanpete, Territory of Utah.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF GEORGE PEACOCK, DECEASED.

Order to show cause why order of sale of real estate shall not be made.

LUTHER T. TUTTLE, THE ADMINISTrator of the estate of George Peacock, deceased, having filed his petition herein praying for an order of sale of certain part of the real estate of said decedent, for the purposes therein set forth.

It is therefore ordered by the Judge of said Court, that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, appear before the said Probate Court on Tuesday, the 25th day of April, 1882, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the Court Room of Said Probate Court at the Court House in Manti City, County of Sanpete, to show cause why an order should not be granted to the said administrator to sell so much of the real estate of the said deceased, at public sale, as shall be necessary.

And that a copy of this order be published at least ten successive days in the DESERET EVENING NEWS, a newspaper printed and published in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah.

JAMES A. ALLRED, Probate Judge.
