BOSTON CON. MAY JOIN COLONY

May Abandon Plan to Install Proposed Concentrating Mill In Utah County.

SITE FOR IT NEAR GARFIELD.

Near American Copper Plant—However, Company Will Exercise Options On Pelican Point Lands.

It is not an unlikely thing that the Boston Consolidated Mining company, which has under consideration the erection of a large concentrating mill, will join the colony out near the point of the mountain this side of the old Garfield beach resort. During the recent visit of Daniel Guggenheim of the American Smelting & Refining company, several conferences were had with Samuel Newhouse, managing director of the Boston and such overtures were made and pressure brought to bear upon Mr. Newhouse that he has at least halted in his plans to build reduction works for the Boston Con. ores in Utah county.

The chances are highly probable that the proposed plant, which will have initial capacity for the treatment of 2,500 tons per day, will come to Salt Lake county and that it will find a location near the American Smelting & Refining company's proposed copper plant and the Utah Copper company's concentrator.

There are a good many advantages to be gained by the Boston company going out to the point of mountain with the American and Utah Copper. In the first place, the expense of building a line of railroad from Bingham to the point of reduction would be removed. Secondly, the company would effect a great saving in freight charges on concentrates, which would not be necessary, if the mill is built near the smelter, unless the company builds a plant of its own. Besides there are many other reasons why the point of mountain location would be preferable.

The American wants the Boston ore and it is just possible that it has in view the acquisition of a control of the property just as it had in the case of the Utah Copper the option on which is to be exercised in a few days.

It was learned from an authoritative source durinfg the day that the Boston company would purchase the Utah county lands upon which it now holds options, even if the concentrator is not built there. The property is valuable and may become into good use later.

RELIANCE COMPANY.

Articles of Incorporation Filed in This City Today.

The Reliance Mining and Milling company of this city filed its articles of incorporation in the county clerk's office today. It is capitalized at $250,000, divided into shares of the par value of 25 cents each. P. B. Locker is president; G. S. Kimball, vice president and treasurer; C. C. Wylie, secretary. The company owns the Reliance group of claims located in the Bullion district, Lander county, Nev.

PARKER MOUNTAIN FINDS.

A Stampede is on to the New Idaho Mining Camp.

A correspondent, writing from Challis, Ida., gives further interesting information about the Parker mountain discoveries near that place:

William H. Goss, a Salt Lake mining man, and S. F. Hunt of Challis, the correspondent states, have returned and report a discovery of what appears to be tellurium ore, that runs into the thousands in gold.

Sam Vigus, foreman of the Custer mine for years, took a lot of samples of the ore to Custer for assay, and the returns were $1,000 per ton on the average. Every Custerite that could get away has stampeded to the new camp, and the Loon creek contingent are in pursuit.

The usually quiet town of Challis is all bustle with mining men from east and west, representing various mining syndicates with capital to invest in the new camp.

The owners of the Ed Williams mines have refused an offer of $30,000 for the claim, and parties going in tomorrow are prepared to pay $50,000 for the ground. Ore has been opened in four different places, and the district is now believe dto be an extensive one.

From the east, west and south the district can be reached over the Mackay branch of the O. S. L. Saddle and pack horses are at a premium and must be engaged ahead to be secured to make the day's ride from Challis to the new camp.

CON. JEFFERSON STRIKE.

Property at Mouth of Little Cottonwood Coming to Front.

Out at the mouth of Little Cottonwood canyon, the Consolidated Jefferson Mining company has been carrying on an energetic campaign of development for many months past. Late reports from the property are to the effect that some interesting disclosures have taken place there and which leaves little doubt about the property becoming a very good producer of gold ore.

A party of shareholders and investors, about 25 of them, reached the city yesterday afternoon and, escorted by Manager Nicholas Schmittroth, departed for camp this morning. The visitors are from Chicago and other eastern points.

WARDELL IRON MINES.

Property Near Elko, Nev., Will Soon Become Active Again.

The Wardell iron property near Wells, Nevada, has resumed operations again. The owners, Richard C. O'Neill and G. R. Vardy, are making preparations to conduct it on an extensive scale. The mill was worked a number of years ago by a man named Wardell, who took out a good many thousand dollars' worth of silver ore. He cut through the silver bearing zone and into a large hady of iron ore, which, in those days, was of no especial value.

It has been found that the ore is valuable for fluxes and, it is said, the owners have concluded an arrangement with the United States Smelting company, whereby a good market is furnished. The ore runs about 54 per cent iron. It is also claimed that there are 12,000 tons of the ore broken and ready to be hauled to the railroad.

RIO GRANDE SPUR CONTRACT IS LET

The Utah Construction Company Will Build Seventeen Mile Ore Road.

FROM REVERE TO GARFIELD.

Will Transport the Precious Metals From Bingham Mines to Big Smelters on Lake Shore.

The Utah Construction company, which has headquarters at Ogden, has secured the contract from the Rio Grande Western railroad, to build a 17-mile spur from Revere, five miles this side of Bingham, to the site of the proposed copper smelter of the American Smelting and Refining company, to be erected just this side of the old Garfield beach resort. The length of the road will be 17 miles and over it will be transported several thousand tons of Bingham ores per day, which will go to the smelter and mills for reduction.

Work is to begin on the road at once, and it is probable that dirt will begin to fly some time next week.

Mining Deeds Filed.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Aug. 3.—A mining dead from E. E. Lawson and Helene F. Lawson of Salt Lake to George A. Snow of Chicago, has been filed with the county recorder. The deed conveys for a consideration of $1, Nos. 1 to 15, both inclusive, Lime Stone Placer. The claims contain 80 acres each and are located in the mountains east of Provo in the Rock canyon vicinity.

CONCENTRATES.

Manager Cmhanning of the Utah Con., is in Bingham today.

A. C. Ellis, Jr., is expected to reach the city from the west today.

Manager H. M. Crowther of the Continental Alta mines, is in camp for a few days.

John Dern departed for Tintic last night to inspect the Lower Mammoth and Uncle Sam mines.

Joseph Henshaw, who was taken alarmingly ill yesterday from an acute attack of asthma, was reported very much improved today.

The ore and bullion settlements reported late yesterday by McCornick & Co., were as follows: Crude ore and concentrates, $38,700; base bullion, $40,200.

A lot of 390 tons of Boston Con. ore marketed yesterday was sold on controls showing $10.70 in gold, $1.05 in silver, 3.4 per cent copper, with a 16 per cent iron excess. The ore had a gross value of about $8,500.

The late discoveries in the White Horse district, near Gillinghouse, Nev., are attracting wide attention in Reno an delsewhere. In the Ora group, owned by DeWitt Boover and associates, some sensationally rich ore has been found.

Broker H. B. Cole who has been on the Pacific coast for several weeks, returned yesterday afternoon after a visit to the Portland fair. Mrs. Cole, who had preceded her husband several weeks to Shasta Springs, California, returned with him.

J. H. Mansfield & Co. Suspend.

New York, Aug. 3.—J. H. Mansfield & Co., a brokerage firm, said to have been without exchange connections, which occupied a handsome suite in a lower Broadway office building, has suspended and anxious creditors have besieged the place, seeking some explanation. No member of the firm could be found. Their only consolation was a placard on the door, reading "Business temporarily suspended; will resume in a few days."

According to the firm's letterheads, the concern was incorporated with a capital of $100,000. It had been in business only six months and catered largely to women, 40 of whom gathered about the closed rooms and stared ruefully at the notice of suspension.

MARKET SHOWED SOME ANIMATION.

Opening Prices Were Much Above The Level at Last Night's Closing.

BUSINESS WELL DISTRIBUTED.

No Special Features—Large Buying of Reading—Close Strong and Active.

New York, Aug. 3.—Prices opened in the stock market today away above last night's closing level, gains running to 1¼ in Smelting, to about a point in Reading and National Lead to large fractions in Atchison, New York Central and U. S. Reduction preferred. Business was active and well distributed. Prices hardened further and the strength showed in a spotty way; southern railways, the coalers and the U. S. Steel stocks were conspicuous. The general market was narrow and halting. The languid general response to the few advances threw the market into a torpid state and prices yielded slightly. The market was barren of special features. U. S. Pipe preferred lost 1. Pittsburg Coal preferred gained 1½, and Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie 1. Reading's fresh advance over last night pulled the average level up slightly at noon.

Bonds were steady.

There was further large buying of Reading up to 106 and of Southern Railway at an advance over last night. Canadian Pacific and Pressed Steel Car gained 1. St. Louis & San Francisco first preferred fell 2¼, General Electric and Federal Mining.

Late in the day United Realty Investment moved up 3½, Minneapolis and St. Louis 3¾, the preferred 1½, Sault Ste Marie and Hocking Valley 2, St. Louis Southwestern preferred 1¼, and Brooklyn Rapid Transit and People's Gas 1. Smelting preferred declined 1. Reading advanced again to 106¾, with a sluggish response in the rest of the market. The closing, however, was quite active and strong.

CHICAGO.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Clear weather in the northwest induced general selling of wheat here today, resulting in a weak market. Practically no rain was reported in Minnesota or the Dakotas, and the weather bureau prediction was for continued clear weather tomorrow. Influenced by higher prices at Liverpool the market here was quite firm at the start, September being up a shade to 1⅛@⅛ at 84⅝@84¾. After touching 85 the price dropped to 84½. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 362 cars, against 236 a year ago.

Notwithstanding liberal receipts the corn market was strong. Higher prices at Liverpool was responsible largely for the firmness here. September opened ¼@⅜ higher at 53⅝@54⅛; sold at 54⅝ and then settled back to 54@54¼.

Oats were steady on a fair demand from commission houses. September opened unchanged at 28, sold at 28@28⅛ and then reacted to 27¾.

Provisions were easier on profit taking by small holders. A decline of 10 to 15 cents in the price of live hogs had a weakening effect. September pork was off 10 cents at 13.40; lard was down 5 cents at 7.37½; and ribs were 5 cents lower at 8.10@8.12½.

WESTERN MARKET LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City, Mo., July 31.—Under the influence of reduced receipts last week the market advanced 15 to 25 cents, covering nearly all kinds. A few cattle from Kansas pastures, of the soft grass variety, sold barely steady, as buyers do not like the beef this class of steers produces. Receipts from the range country are increasing every week, and the supply today from the Panhandle and Oklahoma is liberal considering the total run is only 9,000 head. Only one or two shipments from Colorado today. Prices are strong to 10 cents higher today, cows and veal calves more in some cases, stockers and feeders fully 10 cents higher. More country buyers have been around the yards in the last 10 days than any time before this season. Straight grass killing steers sell at $3.35 to $4.50, than and light stockers $2.50 to $3.25, fair to good feeders $3.00 to $3.75, cows $2.15 to$2.65, a few good ones up to $3.00, canners, $1.75 to $2.10; bulls, $2.00 to $2.40. Veals are selling good at $5.00 to $5.75, with the heavy ones sorted out at $3.50 to $4.00. It is said that the country will not pay any higher prices for stockers and feeders than those now ruling, but the demand for a week or more has been ahead of the supply, and prices are steadily advancing.

The decline in the sheep market was checked the middle of last week, and the week closed firm. Receipts are light, at 5,000 head, today, and prices 10 to 15 cents higher. Idaho spring lambs sold at$6.40 today, which is 40 cents higher than the top last week. Some lighter Idaho lambs, 65 pounds, sold at $6.10 today, several strings of Idaho and Arizona yearlings at $4.85 to $5.00, Colorado and Arizona killing ewes, around 100 pounds, at $4.25. These prices indicate a recovery of 20 to 30 cents from the low time last week. The demand for feeders is very strong feeding wethers at $4.20 and $4.25, ewes $3.75, all weighing from 80 to 90 pounds, were taken out late last week. No killing wethers are here today, but they are worth $4.25 to $4.60. The low time has probably been passed for the present.
