WEBER ACADEMY CLOSING NOTES

Splendid Showing in the Domestic Arts Department of Ogden's Big School.

Ogden, Dec. 21. On Wednesday and Thursday of last week the Domestic Arts department of the Weber academy held an exhibit of the work done in the department this year, and an apron sale. This section of the department drew forth the enthusiastic praise of all that visited the exhibit. Each guest was served with fruit punch, and many Salt Lake visitors carried away a very high opinion of the department and academy.

The third number of the lecture course is held for Thursday, Jan. 7, when Jacob Rills will deliver his celebrated lecture "The Battle With the Slums," with stereopticon illustrations. The academy has in prospect an engagement with the celebrated Schubert Symphony club and Lady Quartet company of Chicago, and it is expected that they will be secured to give one of their entertainments about Jan. 18.

Many of the faculty members and students have left town to spend the Christmas holidays in different parts of the state. On Friday morning special Christmas exercises were held at the academy. The originality and class spirit displayed brought forth general commendation.

THE CORRECT TIME

To stop a cough or cold is just as soon as it starts—then there will be no danger of pneumonia. Just a few doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup taken at the start will stop the cough. If it has been running on for some time the treatment will be longer, but the cure is sure. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, 119 and 114 South Main Street.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

DEATH OF A. L. LARSEN.

Unsatisfactory Train Service in Sanpete—Train Accident.

Special Correspondence.

Mt. Pleasant, Dec. 21.—Mr. A. L. Larsen, one of the most prominent citizens of Mt. Pleasant, died Friday evening of heart trouble, after an illness of about three months. The funeral will be held on Wednesday at 1 p. m. in the North ward meeting-house.

The public school teachers as a body are in Salt Lake City, attending the state teachers' convention this week. President C. N. Lund, one of the school board, is also in attendance.

UNSATISFACTORY TRAIN SERVICE.

The train service through Sanpete valley on the D. & R. G. is something that is trying patience of patrons to the limit. For some time the train from the north comes in from two to three hours late. The cause generally appears to be lack of locomotive power.

Yesterday rates commenced for the state teachers' meeting, and the train from the south was five hours late, reaching Salt Lake City after 11 o'clock.

The best train out of Elsinore met with trouble in the derailling of four cars, tearing trucks from cars and demolishing the same, piling the beet in a heap, and damaging the track, delaying traffic.

The feeding of lambs for the market, is a business carried on here to some extent, during the winter months. A shipment of 600 was made this week, being in a prime condition and bringing the neat sum of $3.50 per head.

During the cold spell of the past few days, some of the people have been up against it for coal. The Utah Fuel Co. agent here had but one car in two weeks, which nearly supplied those in most need. Since snow came, teams have been hauling coal from the mines, which is relieving the situation.

SHOCKING DEED OF INSANE WOMAN

Mrs. John Rosen of Paris, Idaho, Poisons Herself and Three Children.

DEATH IN THE WINE CUP.

Husband Refuses Offered Drink and Escapes—One of the Children May Survive.

Paris, Idaho, Dec. 19.—Mrs. John Rosen, wife of a well known rancher living on the outskirts of Paris, and her three children were poisoned today. The mother and two of the children are dead, the other child may recover. The poisoning is said to have been done by the woman herself, who it is thought had become insane, through brooding over family trouble of long standing, as neighbors declare she had threatened to kill herself.

Report has it that as her husband was preparing to go up the canyon this morning, Mrs. Rosen offered him a drink of wine before leaving. Rosen refused to take it, but the woman then drank some of the wine herself and gave some of it to her three children, Fred, aged 9, Willie, aged 6, and John 3 years old. The youngest child became immediately ill, and the father sent Freddie for help at a neighbor's house a short distance away, while he took charge of the little one. Before the man could care for the child, the mother also became ill, and both died before medical assistance could reach them. The boy who ran for help died on the road, scarcely half way to the neighbor's house.

The shocking affair caused considerable excitement here today, while the father is nearly insane with grief. The coroner and county attorney were called and examined Rosen, and upon ascertaining the facts they deemed an inquest unnecessary.
