Rio Grande Car Burns—Sparks from a D. & R. G. engine set fire to a freight car at Third North and Fourth West streets yesterday afternoon, and destroyed it.

Fish Stories About Duc—Dr. R. F. Blevins of St. Anthony has been organizing a fishing party in this city to put in a few weeks at the Big Springs lodge.

Exile to Lecture—Count A. M. Lochwitzky, the Russian exile, will lecture tomorrow evening in the First Methodist church on "The Downfall of the Russian Empire."

Move to New Quarters—The Utah board of sheep commissioners and Utah Wool Growers' association have removed to the fifth floor of the Judge building.

Auto Goes Up in Smoke—Lester D. Freed's $3,000 automobile burned up yesterday, at Twelfth South and Second West streets, by the carburetter catching fire. The machine was insured.

Mrs. Horsley Improving—Mrs. C. H. Horsley, 224 F street, daughter of James H. Anderson, is improving, following an operation for an aggravated case of appendicitis at the Dr. Groves' L. D. S. hospital.

Funeral of J. D. Evans—The funeral of John D. Evans, a G. A. R. veteran, who died Thursday night, will be held from the Twenty-ninth ward chapel tomorrow afternoon, with interment in city cemetery.

Judge Gets His Certificate—Judge Charles W. Morse is in receipt of an elaborate certificate of election to the thirty-third degree of Masonry, from the jurisdiction at Washington. The honor was conferred on the judge some months ago.

And Still They Come—At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the board of governors of the Commercial club, the following citizens were chosen to membership: R. K. Cobb, W. A. Duvall, Ray Frost, Lynn Gillham, Jacob J. Greenewald, P. H. Hopkins, H. F. Jensen, A. W. Long, J. R. Marshall, F. H. Plaisted and G. R. Empson. All but the last are residents of this city. Mr. Empson is a lawyer of Gladstone, Mich.

Fortune Teller's Scheme—A female fakir has been operating on the west side endeavoring to "make an honest penny" by "telling fortunes." She calls at a house, where she engages the lady in conversation, remarking, "You are to receive money from your father's folks on the 15th of next month, and you are to take a long trip." This is repeated at every calling place, and people in that part of the city have "got on to" her. So she is not doing so well now.

Leave for Yellowstone—A Salt Lake party of distinguished road sailors left today in their automobile yachts for the stormy waters—not of the Yellow Sea, but the Yellowstone. The nautical gentlemen are John C. Critchlow, Parley P. Jensen, Mathoniahah Thomas, J. H. Garrett, Ferd Strouse and Willard Weihe of this city, and Willard Scowcroft of Ogden. The autos will be left at St. Anthony, in exchange for wagons. The aggregation will be away for three weeks.

Made a Good Torch — Rumors spread rapidly last night that Pat Moran's office was on fire and a large crowd rushed to the Board of Trade building on west Second South street to see the blaze. A large piece of sewer pipe which Moran used as a sign in front of the office had been stuffed with paper and rags. Someone threw a match into it, and the result was a brilliant blaze. The fire apparatus and the police rushed to the scene, but no damage was done.

ENGINEERS BODY IS RECOVERED

George Sanders Died With His Hand Guiding the Throttle.

FATAL WRECK ON LAGOON

Gravel Car Breaks Loose from Work Train and Dashes Into Incoming Resort Train—Two Injured.

With his face partially crushed, and his features and body burned and scalded beyond recognition, the remains of Engineer George Sanders, who was killed in a wreck on the Lagoon road at 11:10 last night, were taken from under the engine and brought to the city at about 7 o'clock this morning. A crew of men had been working to extricate the body of the unfortunate man, it being necessary to use a derrick to lift the engine from the body pinned down under its weight. The derrick was loaned by the Oregon Short Line, and the body was taken to the undertaking establishment of O'Donnell, where it is being prepared for burial.

Only one fatality resulted from the accident, but Fireman Benjamin Potts, who was thrown from the engine several feet away, was severely shaken up and Frank Woodbury, a passenger riding in the baggage car, immediately behind the engine, was thrown against a seat and had his ankle badly sprained. None of the other passengers occupying the seven coaches comprising the train were injured.

CAUSED BY WILD CAR.

The accident was caused by an empty gravel car dashing into the 10:30 train from Lagoon, just north of Beck's Hot Springs, and about four miles north of the city. A work train to which the gravel car had been attached, passed over the track about half an hour before the passenger train came along. In some unaccountable way the gravel car broke away from the rear end of the work train, and went tearing down the grade northward toward the hot springs. At the point where the collision took place there is a sharp curve in the track, and this prevented the engineer from seeing the approaching car, until it was within a few yards of the train. It was running at a terrific speed, and the resort train was also making good time. Engineer Sanders, on seeing the car coming towards him, at once reversed the throttle lever, and applied the air brakes, but the force of the impact was such that the dump car was splintered and sent flying yards down the track, the engine and tender and baggage car were derailed, the fireman thrown out of the cab and the faithful engineer crushed and scalded to death.

FAITHFUL TO THE LAST.

Sanders stuck to his post until the last. When his body was finally located under the engine, after a search had been made along the track, it was found that his hand still grasped the throttle. His last thought had been to save the train, and he yielded up his life in the attempt.

After running a short distance on the ties, the engine went over on its side and rolled down the 15-foot embankment, and when it stopped rolling the faithful engineer was under its awful weight.

CHASE AFTER CAR.

The crew of the work train soon found that the car had broken loose from the rear end and knew that it might meet the incoming resort train if not stopped. Consequently an engine was sent down the track to capture the runaway car. The chase was futile, however, and the men on the engine saw the collision between the train and dump car. They returned to the city at full speed and carried the news to the railroad officials, asking for a special train to go out to the wreck. A train was soon made up with Dr. C. F. Wilcox on board, arriving at the scene of the wreck at 11:45 last night. The passengers were transferred and brought into town, together with Mr. Potts, the injured fireman, and Mr. Woodbury.

WORK OF RESCUE.

An examination of the wreck disclosed the fact that the two platforms of the first two cars were smashed and the windows of the first car broken. That the passengers escaped without serious injury is considered almost miraculous by railroad men. Supt. Alfred Pierson of the Lagoon road was at the station when the wreck occurred, and it was under his direction that the wrecking train was made up and hurried to the scene. It was more than an hour after the wrecking train reached the spot before the body of Engineer Sanders was extricated from beneath the engine.

The work of repairing the track at the place was completed this morning and trains are running as usual. It is expected the engine will be replaced on the track and brought in this afternoon.

The dead engineer was 50 years of age, and leaves a wife and five children, residing at 151 north Fifth West street. He had been in the employ of the road as engineer ever since it started, 17 years ago, and was always one of its most trusted engineers. Prior to his connection with the Salt Lake & Ogden road, he was an engineer for many years on the Union Pacific. The wife of the dead engineer is prostrated with grief.

Benjamin Potts, the injured fireman, resides at 155 north Third West street, and Frank Woodbury, who received a sprained ankle, lives at 336 south Seventh West. Woodbury is a helper employed by the Rio Grande Railroad company.

MANAGER HOWE IN SALT LAKE

Prominent Beet Sugar Man Speaks of The Colorado Crop.

Mr. E. C. Howe, general manager of the American Beet Sugar company, with headquarters in Denver, passed through Salt Lake today and made a social call at the offices of the Utah-Idaho Sugar company. The great company which Mr Howe manages, has factories in Colorado, California, and Nebraska, and they are controlled by what is generally known as the Oxnard interests. Mr. Howe states that in Colorado the year will be an "off" one in the beet sugar industry, as the crop has been greatly damaged by the extreme drouth. Of the three factories in the Arkansa River valley, only one is likely to be started up. Mr. Howe stopped in Salt Lake for the purpose of meeting Mr. Cutler, and was disappointed to learn that he was in England.

SHOOTING AFFRAY ON SOUTH TEMPLE

Aged Thomas Wallace in Hospital With Shattered Leg as Result.

TOOK PLACE LAST NIGHT

Frank Bussinger, 60 Years Old, Charged With the Shooting—Caused By Three Cornered Row.

A serious shooting affray occurred about 10:30 last night at 333 West South Temple street and as a result "Dr." Thomas Wallace, 70 years of age, is at the Holy Cross hospital with a badly shattered leg, and Frank Bussinger, aged 60 years, proprietor of a roominghouse at 327 west South Temple street, is in the city jail charged with the shooting. The trouble was caused by Wallace making slighting remarks about Mrs. Thomas F. Behl of 20 north State street.

Mrs. Behl has a lease on the roominghouse and sublet to Bussinger. Last night the woman called at the house and asked Mrs. Maud James who lives there to move so that she could return to the house. Mrs. James cansented to do so. Bussinger was not a home when Mrs. Behl called but was in the O. S. L. exchange. He was sent for and as he passed Wallace's place the latter was sitting on the porch. Wallace called to Bussinger and said something about Mrs. Behl. Bussinger became enraged and told Mrs. Behl what Wallace had said. The woman upbraided Wallace and then Bussinger suddenly drew a revolver and Wallace tried to get into the house. As he was going through the door Bussinger fired.

REVOLVER IS FOUND.

Mrs. Behl seized the gun from Wallace and claims she threw it among some weeds. The police searched for hours before the gun was found and then it was located in the house. The revolver was a 38 caliber. Bussinger was placed under arrest and Mrs. Behl was detained as a witness. Dr. F. B. Steele was summoned to attend to Wallace and immediately sent him to the Holy Cross hospital. Bussinger admitted shooting Wallace and gave as his excuse that he was made angry by remarks Wallace made about Mrs. Behl. It is said that the two men had had trouble before.

HEMPEL GOES EAST.

Takes His Family and a Prisoner to New York City.

Lieut. John Hempel of the police department, accompanied by his wife and young son Edgar, left today for New York. Lieut. Hempel has in custody Theodore Schleitz, a young man accused of stealing 16,000 marks from his employers in Germany. The prisoner will be deported upon his arrival in New York.

After leaving the prisoner with the German authorities, Mr. Hempel and family will go to Portland, Me., where Hempel will meet his two brothers, Capt. C. L. Hempel of the Star of the Sea, a freight steamer, and Capt. William Hempel of Oscar the Second, a passenger boat plying between New York and Copenhagen.

HENRY PETERSON DIES

Boy Who Dived Into Mill Creek Succumbs to Injuries Received From Striking Rock.

Death came to Henry Peterson as a result of the accident that befell him Thursday afternoon in Mill Creek, particulars of which were given exclusively in last evenings "News." Yesteray the patient, who was at the L. D. S. hospital, gave promise of recovery, but a relapse occurred, and he died at 8:30 o'clock. He was swimming in the stream near Husler's mill, with a number of companions, and while in the act of diving, struck his head on a stone, which rendered him unconscious. He was rescued from drowning by Anthony White. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson, of 451 east Seventh South, and was born March 31, 1891.

The funeral will be held from the family residence, 451 east Seventh South, Sunday, at 4 p. m., to which friends are invited. Interment will be in the city cemetery.

SUCCESSFUL HOME CO.

The Beneficial Life Insurance company still continues to increase its business each month, and the prospects are that the wonderful showing of last year will be even bettered in 1908. The fact that all the investments of the company are made right here at home and help to build up and develop local institutions appeals very forcibly to the public, aside from the very excellent features of the new Beneficial policies.

The personnel of the list of officers and directors is of such a character that the company is considered one of the safest and most conservatively managed insurance companies doing business in the United States today.

The investments of the company are made by a finance committee composed of Gov. John C. Cutler, Charles W. Nibley, Richard W. Young, Lorenzo N. Stohl and John Stringham.

President Joseph F. Smith is president of the company; John C. Cutler, first vice president; Lorenzo N. Stohl, second vice president; John Stringham, secretary and general manager; N. G. Stringham, assistant secretary, and Richard W. Young, counsel.

The directors, whose names follow, are all well known business men of high standing in the community. They are Joseph F. Smith, John C. Cutler, John Stringham, Francis M. Lyman, Henry T. McEwan, Lorenzo N. Stohl, James Murdoch, N. G. Stringham, L. S Hills, John C. Sharp, George C. Parkinson, James Chipman, Rudger Clawson, James Pingree, Joseph Nelson, Charles W. Nibley, Jesse M. Smith, Thomas Smart, John R. Winder, Samuel Newhouse, John A. Widtsoe, Thomas N. Taylor, William H. Smart, Edward H. Snow, Richard W. Young.

The success of the Beneficial has far surpassed the expectations of even the most optimistic of its promoters, and it is now considered one of the most important factors in the development of western resources and industries.

Prof. Kennedy has returned from the east, where he was getting new ideas in the Fantastic Art, he brought home the Barn Dance, which he will teach. This dance is the latest craze and most popular dance in the East.
