WATRESS WINS SMALL FORTUNE.

Mrs. M. L. Stoddard Draws $10,000 Ticket from San Francisco Examiner.

WORTHY WOMAN IN GOOD LUCK

William E. Stone Laid to Rest—Suit for Salary—Himman-Guthrie Nuptials—News in Brief.

Mrs. M. L. Stoddard, a waitress in the popular restaurant at 245 Twenty-ninth street, was yesterday made happy by drawing $10,000 from the San Francisco Examiner. The news of the lady's good fortune came first yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when she received a letter from the San Francisco Examiner informing her that she was the lucky winner of the capital prize offered with the Weekly Examiner amounting to $10,000. A short time after receiving the glad tidings Mrs. Stoddard received a telegram from the paper confirming the good news contained in the letter. The letter informed Mrs. Stoddard that the check for $10,000 would be sent the next day by the Western Express company; that she would be required to submit her Examiner receipt and the number to the express company, and if they tally with the number on the express package the money will be paid over to her. Mrs. Stoddard, 245 Twenty-ninth street, Ogden, Utah, will confirm our story to you June 14, 1904. Check to be forwarded by Western Express company—The Weekly Examiner.

Mrs. M. L. Stoddard is the daughter of Mrs. John Smith of Ogden. She was born at Farmington, Davis county, 40 years ago. For several years past she has lived at St. Anthony, Ida., but had disagreements with her husband and came to Ogden to live, leaving him, bringing with her five children, two daughters and three sons who she has had to support the last six months on the small salary of $6 per week as waitress in the restaurant. She is a very energetic, bright mother, and has taken good care of her children, was honorable and made many friends because of her faithfulness in her work. Her mother and one sister, Mrs. D. M. Stoddard, live at the powerhouse near the mouth of the canyon. She has another sister, Mrs. Julia West, who works in the city as cashier.

Her friends felt to congratulate her on the good fortune that has smiled upon her, and feel as one friend expressed it last night, "We heard the good news, 'Well, it is a Godsend to that faithful little woman.'"

It seems to be a lucky place for the Examiner's prize. Last year Chris Foster won a fine motorcar, a few days ago a man won a $2,000 house and other prizes have been won by other people.

SUIT COMPROMISED.

The Southern Pacific has settled an action of its damage suits by a compromise with the complainant. The action was brought by Peter Kinney. It was injured April 7, 1904, at Promontory point, where he was running a SHOCKING GUN ACCIDENT.

Frank J. Tucker, Former City Marshal, Shot and Instantly Killed.

SAD DEATH OF EFFICIENT OFFICER

Fourth District Court—June Weddings—Garden City News.

Special Correspondence.
Provo, Utah, June 17.—Frank J. Tucker, former city marshal of Provo, and a man highly respected in the community, met death last evening from the accidental discharge of his pistol while seated in the sheriff's office in the court house.

About 10:30, persons in the court house hall heard a pistol shot from the direction of the sheriff's office, and upon entering saw Mr. Tucker seated in a chair, his head thrown back, unconscious and gasping for breath. George Ross was standing over him and calling "Frank!"

Mr. Ross explained that the two were sitting there talking, and were about to go out, and had partially arisen from their chairs to do so when the report of the pistol shot was heard, and Mr. Tucker sank back in the chair. Mr. Ross did not at first know whose pistol had exploded. He found that it was Mr. Tucker's. Mr. Ross supposed it was still on Mr. Tucker, but a few moments later was noticed by Police Officer Ferre, who had come in, on the floor some distance from Mr. Tucker's chair. A few people were attracted to the office by the explosion, and among the first to arrive was Sheriff Joseph Kirkwood, who showed self-control and interested helpfulness. She directed that the dying man, for such he proved to be, be placed on a bed, and rubbed his wrists, and called orders to rub him, with the idea of keeping alive the respiration till the doctor arrived, and directed to keep up the respiration by breathing into Mr. Tucker's mouth. Dr. Taylor arrived, in obedience to a summons by "phone," about six or seven minutes after the shot was fired, and while he was preparing a hypodermic injection, he turned to look at Mr. Tucker (who was alive when the doctor came in), and said, "He is dead."

The time from when the shot was fired till he died was not over ten or twelve minutes. Sheriff Kirkwood, who came in after Mr. Tucker was dead, broke down and cried when he saw him and Mr. Ross, when the tempo of trying to revive Mr. Tucker was over also shed tears. Mr. Tucker and Mr. Ross were warm friends. Mr. Tucker was city marshal of Provo in 1902-3 and Mr. Ross was on the police force. They had commenced to work as deputy sheriffs, yesterday, for a few days, while Sheriff Kirkwood had an unusually large amount of work, and they were not very busy, as a matter of accommodation to the sheriff.

Bishop Poulton and other friends of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker were communicated with, and went to the home of Mrs. Tucker to communicate the sad tidings of her bereavement to her and to comfort her in her great sorrow.

How the pistol came to be discharged will always remain a mystery. It was fired from the pocket of Mr. Tucker, who was seated in the sheriff's office, and the trigger had caught on the chain and exploded a cartridge as Mr. Tucker was about to rise. A more reasonable theory is that Mr. Tucker had the pistol in his coat pocket and was fingering it absently, thinking probably that it was at safety or rather not thinking at all; that the muzzle was turned upward and toward his body, and that at the moment of the discharge Mr. Tucker pulled his hand out of his coat pocket and involuntarily threw the pistol into the air, where it was caught by the trigger.

An examination of the course of the bullet by Dr. Taylor showed that it entered the body immediately above the left hip and ranged upwards towards the heart.

Mr. Tucker was born in Salt Lake, where many relatives yet reside, about 37 years ago. He has lived in Provo for about 12 years and some 10 years ago married Miss Gonnella Johnson, daughter of Mr. Benet Johnson, who, with four children are left to mourn the sad death of a devoted husband and father.

Mr. Tucker was an industrious, competent workman; he has been engaged in his business, that of contracting and building, for several years, engaging that work this spring, after quite a severe illness during the winter, which commenced before his term as city marshal expired.

Crowds rushed to the courthouse when the news of Mr. Tucker's death became known, and all were impressively shocked by the terrible event, and many of his friends were moved to tears at seeing the dead body of their friend, who had moved among them strong and hopeful during the day. The body was moved to Graham & Jones' undertaking establishment, where Mr. Tucker was a member of the L. O. O. F., and that order may take charge of the funeral.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.
Judge Booth has made an order in the case of P. C. Adams et al. vs. the Hawaiian Fork city et al., on a petition of Mayor Clark of American Fork, asking that the court exercise the jurisdiction reserved in the decree to order further testimony in support of the part of the decree in which jurisdiction was reserved, that testimony be taken in the case on the 15th day of June. Said time is fixed prior to July 1, that the question of jurisdiction may be determined; the time may, however, be extended on application of counsel for their convenience.

The case of Utah County vs. Thomas Boardman will be argued and submitted today.

E. F. Brim vs. V. D. Crum, motion for new trial and to retax costs has been set for June 23.

HANDICAPPED.

The man who started to run a race in chains and fetters would be vainly handicapped. No one would expect him to succeed.

The man who runs the race of life when his digestive and nutritive organs are equally handicapped. In the one case his strength is over-weighted, in the other it is under-mined. Success demands above all else a sound stomach.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

$3,000 FORFEIT will be paid by Wood's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y., if they cannot show the original signature of the individual volunteering the testimonial below, and also of the writers of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or deeds. It has cured me of indigestion, flatulence, and all the ailments of the stomach. I have no more of gastric trouble or indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief.
