DESERET EVENING NEWS

Tuesday, August 26, 1890.

NEWS NOTES.

TORNADO.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 26.—Quite a sensation was caused this evening by the arrest of Charles Warfield, a well known man in Butte, on Northern Pacific detective Duffy's charge that Warfield was local agent for the Chicago Union Pacific, and was using his position to get information for the benefit of Union Pacific officials, which Warfield sold to William D. Kenny, alias Sheridan, William D. Kenny, alias Charles Warfield, and Charles Warfield, alias Kenny, are now in jail here. Warfield is a young man of good family, and was formerly in the employ of Marshall Field, Chicago. Kenny is a notorious character, and was formerly a detective in Chicago. Warfield is now in jail charged with grand larceny. Kenny has been in Butte for some time, and has been shadowed by detectives
