WATER BASKET BALL.

Two Teams Played a Game in the Sanitarium Last Night.

The Nerves and the Amateurs, two teams from the Y. M. C. A. played a game of water basket-ball in the Sanitarium swimming pool last night. The boys said they were playing water polo but evidently they were laboring under a misapprehension, for no goal posts were erected, and consequently no warm times for the goal keeper and hot shots from the center field.

The game resulted in a victory for the Nerves by a score of 4 to 3. The Nerves consist of Smith, captain and center; Moore and Tuckett, forwards; Miller and Hill, guards. The Amateurs are Augustus, captain and center; Jones and Wright, forwards; Cheshire and Rasmussen, guards.

19 AHO CANAL ENTERPRISE.

L. W. Shurtliff on Withdrawal of Land for American Falls Company.

Arrangements all Made—First Contract of the Kind Will Be Executed—Sixty-Thousand Acres Involved.

L. W. Shurtliff of Ogden was in Boise City yesterday in connection with the business of the American Falls Canal company. Before the State land board, he said:

The company has had an application before the board for the withdrawal of some 60,000 acres of land under the Carey act. The arrangements have been completed, but there has been some hitch over a conflict between the records of the general land office and those of the Idaho land office. This has been straightened out and the deal will be carried through. This will be the first contract of the kind entered into under the law referred to, and the enterprise will be watched with great interest by all those who are looking for investors as well as by those who are interested in the solution of the problems surrounding the settlement of the arid areas.

There was a conflict between the American Falls company and the Pomona company as to certain sections of land contained in the application of the former company, but it has been temporarily eliminated from the application, the question involved in the conflict between the two companies being left to settlement in the future.

Mr. Shurtliff stated that the prospects of the company were very bright. The canal will be completed as projected, and the management expects to settle a great number of families on the lands to be reclaimed.

The accounts believed that thermolain was the work of a demon within a month, Any man who has had an attack of colitis or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infection is demonic enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds have testimony to the truth of this statement. The application relieves the pain, and the quick relief which it affords is since worth many times its cost.

IN THE BLOOM OF SPRING-TIME.

Roses and Honeysuckles Scent the Air at St. George.

CROPS ARE FAR ADVANCED.

Beautiful and Comfortable Residences Bespeak the Pleasant Circumstances of Thrifty People.

Special to the Deseret Evening News.

St. George, Utah, May 15.—Vegetation here is greatly in advance of Salt Lake. Roses and honeysuckles have been blooming so long they are now going out. Potatoes are just beginning to bloom and peas are in full bloom. Corn is two feet or more high. The first crop of lucern has to be harvested.

The town looks very beautiful and the many comfortable residences betspeak the pleasant circumstances of the people. Dust and flies, however, are very prevalent. Weather is pleasant and the members of President Snow's company have met with no discomfort so far. The President is in excellent health and is full of encouraging words for the people in this section and he feels that they are worthy of all honor for the faith displayed in colonizing and subduing this desert land.

Sunday schools remembered at nine this morning that it had proposed to be President and visitors. It is somewhat warmer today, but quite cool for Dixie. Tomorrow night the company stays at Toquerville.

FORT DOUGLAS TROOPS OFF.

Leave for San Francisco Tonight, and Then—Where?

Company G of the Twenty-fourth Infantry has a torrid time one year and a frigid time the next year if it goes to the place where it is supposed to have been ordered. It will depart tonight for the Presidio, and from there, presumably to Alaska. The troops will train by special from the Rio Grande Western. Lieutenants A. C. Nelson and F. W. Van Dyke will have command of the company.

Lieut. T. Thorsen left for the Golden Gate city yesterday to report to General Shafter, and to wait there for the troops to be assigned to command all the troops in Alaska. Company G is one of the two companies recently sent to the scene of trouble at Wardner, Idaho.

RUINS OF CLIFF DWELLERS.

How Those of Utah, Colorado and Arizona Are to Be Explored.

A Price dispatch to the Denver News says: At last the matchless scenery along the Colorado river in Colorado, Utah and Arizona has excited recognition from the Eastern tourists, who will go in the coming summer, explore the ruins of the Cliff Dwellers and view the magnificent sights that are equaled nowhere in the world, Switzerland not excepted. John F. Hite, a brother of Cass Hite, and Thomas Hite Jr. and who knows every foot of the country from Grand Junction to the south of the Colorado, has just left here for Mancos, Colo., where he will meet a party of tourists from Chicago early in June and act as guide on the trip.

The tourists will number fifty persons and are under the direction of Major E. H. Cooper, who brought them out from Chicago and elsewhere in a special train on April 12. The excursions are to be made regularly through the summer, according to Cass Hite.

The first party will leave the train at Mancos and from there proceed through San Juan county and Monument canyon to the Colorado river, and after exploring the canyons and viewing the ruins of the Cliff Dwellers, go through the north part of the Navajo reservation in Arizona.

Mr. Hite has just been to Chicago where arrangements were completed. In referring to the excursions, he said: "All sorts of civilization are left behind at Mancos, where the party will proceed with pack animals, guides, escort, commissary and camp equipment and practical explorer which are without doubt the world's greatest wonder, besides the ruins of extinct races of prehistoric America. The scenic grandeur and splendid climate make a trip that is without equal anywhere in the world. The trip will cost but a trifle and will occupy about thirty days time. There will be several in the party from Chicago.

"The general leader of the party—Major E. H. Cooper—is thoroughly familiar with the Southwest, having explored every part of the country passed through. He was with Professor Hayden in the 1873 and 1874 government expedition and went through there years ago."

Mr. Hite, secretary of the Union Accident Insurance company of this city, has made extensive investigations of the country in Utah, Colorado, southwestern Colorado and adjacent parts of Utah, Arizona and New Mexico. Mr. Hite contends that the whole section of Cliff Dwellers' ruins now on exhibition in the Field museum in Chicago, and which cost the Field museum of Cliff Dwellers' archeology of America, is a mere trifle. He has spent in studying the subject on the ground, and thinks he knows of the ruins to be found in Utah, Colorado and Arizona, which he believes will place a bottom on the Cliff Dwellers' alive specimen one week in Durango and vicinity.

"I spent years in the study, and a half dozen years in the field, and I confess there are many points which I would not attempt to pass upon. If an Aztec temple exists down in that country, the find is one of the most interesting from an archaeological standpoint that could be announced, and it is astonishing that any intelligent man should shake public opinion before he had himself visited the spot. This is what is happening compatriots."
