SILVER WING MEETS.

Lively Times On Account of a Chairman's Strange Conduct.

HOW OVER NAMING COMMITTEES.

Judge C. S. Zabriskie Temporary Chairman and Joseph Swenson Secretary.

The Salt Lake county wing of the Independent Republican party of Utah met in convention at the Grand Opera House this afternoon at 2:30, half an hour after schedule time. The purpose was to elect delegates to the State convention to meet at the Salt Lake Theatre on Thursday next. The convention was called to order by S. R. Westerfield and the call read by J. S. Dryden. Judge C. S. Zabriskie was made temporary chairman and Joseph Swenson temporary secretary. Judge Zabriskie made an earnest speech in which he briefly announced the purpose of the new movement—that the faith of the fathers should not perish from the earth; that there should be real government of the people in this country; that silver was the paramount issue in the campaign and should be made to win. In his characteristic manner he scored McKinley, Harrison and Harrison for their position on bimetallism. Rather would he support such statesmen as Hoar, Cannon and Allen. As to ex-Governor Thomas who had been making campaign speeches of late, he was the most mistaken of all politicians.

S. H. Love moved that the chair appoint a committee of fifteen, two from each municipal ward, and five from the county at large, on credentials. On motion of George Shaw five members from the city and two from the county at large were substituted. Finally it was decided that the various delegations should name their different committees.

With reference to the appointment of a committee on resolutions S. J. Kenyon said all the delegates present were free silver men, and so therefor opined that the passage of resolutions on that question would be superfluous.

Colonel Nelson plainly and vigorously opposed this sentiment saying that this was the first time the Silver Republicans of Salt Lake county had been given an opportunity in convention to show where they stood in the fight for honest financial methods. He was opposed to dodging the issue; and so was the convention, for it warmly applauded the speaker's expression and voted down Kenyon's motion.

Then followed a parliamentary tangle so gnarled and knotted as the root of a mountain mahogany. The chairman was a decided disappointment to the convention on account of his inutility to put the simplest motion. Repeated calls for an appeal from the chair's decision on the appointment of the committee on credentials were made but the chair ignored them. Furious remonstrances of the chair's methods were not listened and Mr. Lippman with great fervor took the floor and put the motion, which was carried unanimously.

Col. Nelson moved the appointment of a county committee to take charge of the campaign of the Silver Republicans. He for they had gotten along with a provisional organization. It should be made permanent—therefore his motion.

Amendments and substitutes were quickly made, and finally a motion lay all others on the table. All this, not in opposition to the colonel's motion but in the great anxiety to take a rouse and escape from the extraordinary ballucinations of the chairman.

A temporary period of peace came by Colonel Nelson withdrawing his motion, saying so he did not "I will wait until the convention has a chairman and then put it."

This been and friendly thrust was resented by cheers, and so did the position taken "a little recess" of indefinite duration.

Political Pointers.

The Democratic county convention will meet in the Grand Opera House at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

Friends of S. A. Tanner were desirous yesterday to urging his candidacy for a Legislative nomination.

Lehi Record: A non-partisan ladies' Bryan club has been organized at Springville with Mrs. S. A. Bayer as president.

The Democrats (who were most talked of today in county conventions) are contemplating upon Francis Armstrong, John Clark, Barney Quinn and Baker Beeman.

D. C. Dunbar, in a telegram to his brother-in-law, Joseph E. Caine today said he would arrive home from Omaha Sunday morning. He will therefore not be at the convention tomorrow. His claim, however, will go before the delegates as candidate for county clerk.

John B. Cummons, Democratic candidate for sheriff, when asked what he thought of his chances for nomination at tomorrow's county convention said this afternoon: "I am in the fight to the end; everything looks favorable to me from my point of view and I believe I will win."

Eureka Enterprise: The Democratic county convention which meets in Salt Lake next Saturday should meet half way the Republicans who are fighting the battles of silver. They should be given the proper representation on the ticket and on the campaign committee. All silver men should get together and unite against the common enemy.

A. T. Schroeder announces his retirement from the field as a candidate for county attorney in the following letter: "In some moments of temporary alienation, I have yielded to the seductive arguments of friends, and said to them that if I received the Democratic nomination for county attorney, without effort on my part, that I would be pleased to accept it. While I am truly grateful to the many friends who have, without solicitation, proffered me their assistance in this locality, it is my sincere judgment and firm conviction that I do not want the nomination, and will not accept it."

The Democrats of this city will hold municipal ward conventions at the following places to nominate candidates for the offices of constable and justice of the peace:

First municipal ward, house in Ninth ward meeting house.

Second municipal ward, SIXTH ward meeting house, Third West between Fourth and Fifth South.

Third municipal ward, Bolle Hodgy hall on Third North, between First and Second West.

Fourth municipal ward, Darling on second house.

Fifth municipal ward, Veteran Fireman's hall, 420 east South Temple.

Money and to Spare.

P. Rogers, a miner was arrested today for drunkenness.

There is no special significance attached to the above statement because such arrests are made every day, but Rogers had on his person something that everybody doesn't have these days. He was not only in possession of an overload of that which comes from the cup that cheers, but actually had secreted in an inside pocket, a roll of $740 in greenbacks—a "roll" you don't see every day. Where Rogers got it from or what he intended doing with it is not known, the last only remaining that he had it. He was five dollars short, however, when he left the police station, as he deposited that amount and allowed the same to be forfeited.

MEETINGS IN SCOTLAND.

Ten Thousand People Assemble to Hear the Mormons.

Opposition Also Held Meetings—The Saints are Well Attended, and Preach the Gospel.

107 KYLE ROAD, Widnes,
September 4, 1896.

To the Editor:

We send you a paper with the account of an open-air meeting held at Garston Bridge, Sunday, August 30, 1896, with the request that you publish the same in your paper. The day was very wet, for it had rained for two or three hours. But in spite of the wet weather some people came for nine miles to attend that meeting. You will see from the account given that Satan sought to see them for his own purpose, for he knew the servants of God were there and that they were preaching His Gospel. We meet many from there who begin asking us questions about the Book of Mormon and the Prophet Joseph Smith, and as a result we think some are investigating the Gospel, for which we thank our Father in heaven.

We are holding an open air meeting every night this weather will permit, and sometimes two. They are attending in good shape to hear a new sound. They have it posted on the bulletin board "Mormons at Clipsdale." We feel gratified to them for advertising us and the cause of truth so well.

We feel as though this part is a beautiful field and to the near future will bring forth fruit to the glory of God.

ROBERT CANNON,
HARVEY E. COLTRIN,
THOMAS W. JONES,
GEORGE STEWARD.

WIDNES, Lancashire, England,
Sept. 1, 1896.

To the Editor:

We are holding open-air meetings at Garston Bridge on the river Clyde, three miles from Widnes, and are receiving much attention from the newspapers and others. Brother George Stewart of Malad, Idaho, and myself, and Thos. W. Jones of Montpelier, Idaho, have been labouring in said district for the last six months. We have held open-air meetings on the bank of the Clyde almost every Sunday, the people coming from different parts of the surrounding country to hear us preach the word of God. The crowd of people increased every Sunday until they received upwards of three thousand souls. Different denominations sent their speakers to oppose us. We held meetings on our part, we coming from one hour to an hour and a half. Then others would follow us, trying to show where the Mormons were wrong, which they failed to do.

One preacher, a Campbellite, told us would give a Mormonism the following Sunday. The excitement grew so much that on that Sunday the paper said there were four thousand people there. The following Sunday he commenced by "saying" Mormonism by reading from a book entitled Rocky Mountain Saints, written by F. H. H. Stenhouse, commenting at the Mountain Meadow Massacre, which he threw as much stress on that the people knew him and told him to "shut up," that they did not wish to hear such trash. If they could not know that the Mormons were wrong to keep quiet. Tom argued with and he began to call us imposters, false teachers, and everything but gentlemen. After he finished Brother Stewart replied saying it was the same old story, as he knew just how the preacher or any one else would argue Mormonism—that they would refer to Stenhouse—some such writings, which were easily from beginning to end. We read a few remarks from a book published in England by Phil Robinson which gave a very flattering account of the Saints in Utah.

We then proceeded with our own meeting as usual, pave the people a good sermon on the principles of the Gospel, gave our testimony to the truth of the Gospel and that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God. At this meeting some said there were ten thousand people. We put it at eight thousand. After closing out meeting we stated that we would have another as usual on Sunday at 6 o'clock at that place.

When Sunday arrived we proceeded to the "ring." We did not expect to see any crowd as it had rained all day. We arrived there at 5:30 p. m. and to our surprise there were about a thousand people, both men and women, with coats and umbrellas to keep dry. Before six o'clock arrived, it quit raining. The Campbellite asked us to let him have the first hour and we to take from 7 p. m. on, which we did. He spoke from the sidestalk, chapter of Acts, picking up what we had said on it the Sunday previous. He had spoken about 30 minutes when a speaker of a different denomination said that what he was saying was not correct. They began to quarrel between themselves, calling one other liars and ran for thirty minutes, we was still going on when we stopped for tea and said our time had come to commence our meeting. They saw away very reluctantly and we commenced by singing "O my Father!" then prayed. Brother Stewart spoke a short time on the thing that shall be followed, saying that it is was Christ only sounded that had been going on for the last half hour by those who came to expose the Mormons. I did not wish any of it. I asked the Spirit of God to rest on us and present us. They commenced to interrupt me, but the crowd told them to keep quiet and let us finish, which we did. Brother C. Coltrin and Robert Cannon followed. I felt the present time to be our time. We all bore our testimony to the work of God and the Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God. We feel at least two thousand people to listen to us.

It's fine day and Sunday we will have at least two thousand people to hear us. We have a meeting on the street every evening except that it weather will permit and at least two times a week. We attend the meetings of the Saints conference to meet in the Mode Hall—which is old. Brothers Cannon and Coltrin, as we feel so much to do and so many places to visit, we shall leave for home. We expect considerable good will to come here before long.

GEORGE STEWART,
THOMAS W. JONES.

Malad Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Malad Stake convened at Portage Sept. 13th and 14th, 1896. There were four meetings held, including a "testimony meeting on Sunday evening. The attendance on Sunday was quite large, but the meeting on Monday was not so well attended, which was due to the very busy season of the year. Apostle George Teasdale was in attendance. There were present, besides the Stake Presidency and most of the High Council and Stake Patriarch, the presiding officers of the various organizations and quorums of the Stake, together with most of the Bishops of the various wards.

A portion of the time of each morning was occupied by the officers reporting the condition of the organizations in the Stake. These reports showed that the Stake was in a prosperous condition and that a good feeling prevailed among the Saints. Elder Teasdale of the Apostles dwelt powerfully upon the first principles of the Gospel and the mode of life requisite to be a true follower of Christ. He also touched on passages from the Bible, Doctrine and Covenants, Book of Mormon and Pearl of Great Price to substantiate his assertions. His remarks were very pointed and calculated to arouse deep reflection. Taken all in all the conference was a very profitable one.

It was decided by unanimous vote of the conference to change the days of holding our quarterly conferences from Sunday and Monday to Saturday and Sunday. As usual, the choir under the leadership of Brother D. F. Jones, rendered valuable assistance, and the good people of Portage extended their hospitality to those from a distance.

MINES AND MINING.

exposing a fourteen-inch vein of ore which runs 20 per cent lead, 10 ounces in silver and from $1 to $5 in gold to the ton.

A shipment of 160 tons came from the Dalton and Lark Thursday. There are only twenty-five men employed by the company at present.

The Big Cottonwood Power Plant, is the subject of a very admirable and highly interesting illustrated article in Thursday's issue of the Inter-Mountain Mining Review.

The Dipper mine at the mouth of Little Cottonwood is reported as being in splendid shape, and ore is being taken out preparatory to the making of shipments.

Little Jack proud and jolly too, of its recent success in carrying off the only prize at a mineral exhibit at the N. Orleans Exposition held at St. Paul, over the exhibits of Oregon, Washington, Montana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and the two Dakotas. It was in charge of John Hooper, secretary of the Idaho mining exchange.

Idaho Democrat: Peter Knight has left some samples of very fine looking ore at this office taken from a claim on Doggett creek recently discovered by him. He states that the width of the ledge is as yet an unknown quantity, but it is certainly 50 or 60 feet. The assays have been made, but it is to night the ore will go $40 to $50 in silver and gold, the former predominating.

Boise Statesman: The Idaho mining exchange has just received a large sample of copper ore, which weighs 60 pounds, from the Head mine, on Big Wood creek. It will assay at least 50 per cent copper and 25 ounces silver per ton. The mine from which this sample comes is located in the Seven Devils country, two miles Cornishat Heat and Robert Gee of Montpelier recently returned, bringing the sample with them.

At the Congress mine in Arizona, the shaft is now down 1,800 feet and 200 men are employed under ground. In addition to a crushing plant with a capacity of 100 tons, there is a 45 stamp mill which runs night and day and forty more stamps are to be added. About four miles of tunnels, shafts and stopes have been run. Besides the 1600-foot shaft, two others have been sunk, one to the depths of 700 and 1,100 feet respectively. Cross cutting to the south vein has been commenced. The present output of the mine is 250,000 per month.

MINOR MENTION.

Ralph Clark was fined $15.00 in the police court today for kilting a registered dog.

This evening a four-act comedy will be given at M. I. A. hall, corner Fifth South and Third west streets, for the benefit of the Young Ladies' Magazine, that is those who chant the rules of the play. The piece is very well tempered and should be well patronized.

Who is Happy?

The healthy mother and healthy child has a happiness all her own. Here's to a joy that cannot be told. It is peculiar to motherhood. The responsibility for the soft little, sweet little, dependant creature—so much a part of herself as her own heart—brings a pleasure that may be equaled in Heaven, but never on earth. The greatest thing that can be done to this world is to bear and rear healthy, happy children. Many women do not do it—do not reach the full measure of beautiful, perfect womanhood, because of the neglect of the health of the organs directly concerned in maternity.

Every woman may be perfectly healthy if she chooses. She need not submit to the humiliating examinations and local treatment of physicians. She need have no trouble and slight expense. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure any disease or disorder peculiar to women. It is the invention of a regularly graduated, skilled, expert, successful specialist. It has been sold for over 30 years, and has a greater sale than all similar medicines combined. It regulates every feminine function—makes a woman better able to bear children—better able to take care of her children. It greatly lessens the pain and danger of parturition. No honest druggist will offer you a substitute—look out for the one who does.

Delightfully simple. Constipation cures them. Dr. Pierce's Pellets relieve and cure constipation. They cure permanently. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. Pellets is a popular name. They are small enough to be easily swallowed. Druggists sell them, or they will send them, postpaid, for 25 cents a vial. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. The Danger is Averted by Using
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some severe fevers and sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend one of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. Harmon, Avon, Mo.
